

SERBIA'S DANUBE PORTS OCCUPIED

Berlin Says Town on Bulgarian Border Is Hemmed In and Must Fall Soon.

FIGHTING IS DESPERATE

One Town Said to Have Been Retaken by Former Defenders. Turkish Troops to Resist Attacks by Russians.

BERLIN, Oct. 26, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—"All Serbian ports on the Danube have been occupied," says the Overseas News Agency. The Bulgarian border on the east of (Nish) has been surrounded from all sides and must surrender shortly, inasmuch as the supply of ammunition and food in the city is insufficient.

ATHENS, via Paris, Oct. 26.—An official dispatch announces that the Serbians have recaptured the town of Teles on the railroad southeast of Uskup, after desperate fighting.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The report that Turkish troops are being concentrated at Burgas, Varna and other points on the Black Sea coast of Bulgaria, is reiterated in advices received here today from Athens.

Reuter's correspondent says that the Turks are to oppose Russian attempts to land troops, having replaced Bulgarians because it was feared the latter could not be counted on to resist the Russians.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says: "Five thousand German soldiers from Constantinople are replacing Bulgarians at points in the Black Sea littoral. Defence of the coast has been entrusted to Germany."

PARIS, Oct. 26.—"Quiet has prevailed since yesterday," says a Saloniki dispatch under date of Monday, October 25, to the Havas News Agency. "The French are fortifying intensively the region they occupy east of the railroad between Gjevegl and Krivovlek. The Bulgarians have been driven to the Krivovlek-Vranja section of the line. They occupy Uskup, Kumanovo and Ilitovac.

"The Germans are pressing their advance on the Danube front, but their progress is slow and difficult."

PLIGHT OF SERBIA GRAVE

Central Powers Seek New Outlet. "That being the situation, the central powers naturally looked about to discover some new direction in which they might try to force their way to safety to themselves. Their choice fell as it was not unlikely to fall, on a great attempt to make good in southeastern Europe and through Bulgaria to threaten our forces in Gallipoli and Constantinople and Egypt, to say nothing of the vaster aspirations which resulted."

"That great project became doubly attractive from the moment when, most unfortunately, Bulgaria threw her influence on their side. There was one obstacle, and only one, to that project. The key of the situation lay in the Eastern corner of Serbia."

"We found Serbia threatened by a formidable concentration of troops, and I cannot help here paying tribute to the wonderful gallantry with which she withstood two separate invasions and her struggles against a third. She will afford one of the glorious chapters of this great war."

"Under these circumstances Serbia made a direct appeal to us for help, but we found not only Serbia that invoked our co-operation.

"Serbia was bound to Greece by geographical proximity, by common interests in this war and by treaty obligations. Moreover, it was only through Grecian territory that help could possibly reach Serbia; it was only by the use of a great force that a base could be provided for it. In the circumstances the good will of Greece was of first importance to us, and we had that time every reason to feel assured that we had that good will."

"Venetian power, and at his instance we undertook to provide a force for the purpose of enabling Greece to fulfill her treaty obligations to Serbia. It was under such circumstances that we sent such troops as were available to Saloniki. It was a small force because only a small force could be collected at the time."

"The French government, on their side, dispatched a force which is now on the spot and which apparently at this moment is engaged with the Bulgarians on the eastern frontier of Serbia. At the same time a larger force was prepared for south-eastern Europe, and transports were sent out for the purpose of conveying it to its destination."

Steps Taken Promptly. "I suggest that these steps—incomplete, no doubt—were taken with great promptitude and they were the only ones which could be taken to relieve the position of Serbia. They were taken after full deliberation with the naval and military advisers."

"The British force at Saloniki, 13,000 in round numbers, may be regarded as the precursor of a larger force which has been put under orders. At the same time the use to which that force will be put must depend upon the situation when it arrives at the scene."

"Events have moved rapidly in that part of the world. There have been two quite recent developments which profoundly affected the military and political situation. The first was the deliberate decision of the Greek government that her treaty engagements did not require her to go to the rescue of Serbia in the present momentous crisis, and the other is the progress of the campaign in North Serbia."

"The military plans must depend upon the military situation when reinforcements arrive and upon this point the allies are of one mind. The military and naval advisers of Great Britain and France will consult and, until these consultations are concluded, I cannot say for what purpose the British force will be used."

Discussion Now in Progress. "Discussions are now proceeding and General Munro, who arrived in that part of the world today, has been instructed to report as soon as possible his opinion of all the aspects of the case."

"Lord Loreburn need have no apprehension in this or any other matter of the kind likely to be led into precipitate action owing to some hurried impulse or some vague sentiment to achieve its object. At every step the government will take the best military and naval advice obtainable and that advice will have reference not only to the new enterprises but to all subsidiary questions, with regard to safeguarding communications and the supply of men and material.

RUSSIANS GO BACK HOME

Few Intending to Come to Portland Await Court Decision.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Oct. 26.—It was learned at the Immigration Bureau today that most of the 18 Russian immigrants affected by yesterday's decision of the Supreme Court in the All Gleig case returned to Russia when the immigration authorities at New York ruled they could not land and proceed to Portland, Gleig and those who remained with him are now at liberty to proceed to Portland.

It also became known that the Commissioner of Immigration is considering recommending legislation giving it powers which the Supreme Court yesterday held it did not have. The Commissioner believes authority should be given by law to bar immigrant laborers who seek admission at this time, when there is much unemployment in the United States.

SQUATTERS FILE PROTEST

No Notice Given of Intention to Open Imperial Valley Lands.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—Squatters on the Imperial Valley lands thrown open to entry yesterday by the Government General Land Office sent attorneys to the land office here today with protests based on the failure of the Government authorities to give notice of their proposed action.

Many of the protesters are men and women who have been dwelling for three years on parcels of the 7800 acres thrown open to settlement, awaiting opportunity to file claims. Their time and what labor they have expended on the lands will go for nothing, it was said.

Attorneys representing them declared a deluge of contests would follow.

TURKS OCCUPY FOES

British Declared to Have Attacked Hospitals.

REPRISALS ARE INTIMATED

Submarine Also Said to Have Fired on Red Cross and Several Other Unarmed Vessels Near Constantinople Without Warning.

BERLIN, by wireless to Sayville, N. J., Oct. 26.—A statement was given out today by the Overseas News Agency saying attacks have been made by the allies on Turkish hospitals and ambulances in violation of international law. A number of cases were cited. The latest attack mentioned was said to have been made by an allied aeroplane on August 27 on a Turkish hospital at Galata Keui, on Gallipoli Peninsula. The statement says one person was killed and three injured.

It is also said that unfortified towns on the Gallipoli Peninsula have been bombed, resulting in the death of many women and children; that the hospital of Malindi, outside the military zone, was attacked by aircraft and 10 wounded inmates were burned; that the training ship Tougan, on her way to Constantinople with 700 passengers, was attacked without warning by a British submarine in May; that the unarmored steamer William Hickners flying a Red Cross flag and carrying 700 wounded was attacked by a British submarine in July without warning, and that small craft of the allies which were used for landing troops and war materials were protected by a hospital ship.

These charges were published in the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, quoting from which the news agency says: "The Turkish government protests against these violations of international law. If they continue the Turkish government will be compelled to make reprisals."

GERMAN IS OPTIMISTIC

SITUATION FAVORABLE TO TEUTONS, SAYS MAJOR MORAHT.

Allies' Attacks in West Ebbing, Italy Not to Aid in Balkans, Serbians Believe, Says Critic.

BERLIN, Oct. 26, by wireless to Tuckerton, N. J.—The present military situation is eminently favorable to the central powers, in the view of Major Morahrt, the military critic of the Berliner Tageblatt, whose review of the Allies' campaign is summarized thus by the Overseas News Agency:

"In the west the Anglo-French offensive is ebbing slowly. Political reasons are compelling the British and French to continue their offensive operations for a time.

"Good reasons make her own war, and all demands from the Anglo-French press that she send troops to the Balkans will be in vain. The country is that Italy needs all her reserves in the Alps, since she has lost hundreds of thousands of men by senseless attacks.

"In the Balkans the most difficult part of the task has been achieved by the forcing of the passage of the Danube and the storming of the principal fortifications south of Belgrade, while the Bulgarians, through the capture of Kumanovo, Uskup and Velea, have made it impossible for now on for the entente allies to help the Serbians."

HOMELESS BOY SEEKS JOB

German Lad of 16, After Wandering All Over the World, Alone Here.

William Freiman is 16 years old, alone in Portland and without any friends. He was born in Berlin, Germany. After traveling with his parents to various parts of Europe he went to South America, where his family made a home in Buenos Aires. Because he wanted to make his own living he left home, going first to Brazil. Later he set sail on a German ship, went to Africa, Australia and, finally, landed in Portland. The Boys' and Girls' Aid Society took care of him and got him a job in a grocery store. This he quit later and went to live in the country where, he says, folks wanted to adopt him, and he didn't want to be adopted, so he came back and now he wants a job.

"Good hard work in a wholesome environment are what William Freiman needs. He left home at such an early age that he hasn't had the right opportunities," said Rudolph Arne, superintendent of the aid society, in speaking of Willie.

The boy speaks Spanish and German, and says he is willing to work. Any one willing to give him a chance may address him care of the Y. M. C. A.

The creed suggested by Mr. Bradbury follows:

I believe in the Gospel as the power of God, and the wisdom of God, and in Christian good will as the force to transform the world; I believe in the church universal, the communion of the faithful, and of the kingdom and the life everlasting."

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA. Look Young; Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness. Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not what we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.
