> Issue Manifest. LONDON, Oct. 26.—A manifesto op-osing conscription has seen issued by a comparatively small number of members of Parliament. Among the reasons given for such opposition is that the compulsory system would so deplete the ranks of the industrial workers that Great Britain would be unable to meet her obligations assumed in behalf of the allies to supply them with stores of munitions and give them substantial financial help.

It is further declared that compulsion would arouse bitter opposition among the workmen and irretrievably destroy national unity, which is essential to the successful prosecution of the war.

WASHINGTON. Oct. 26.—So many adventurous young Americans have been working their way across the Atlantic on the horse and mule transports with the purpose of enlisting in the British army that the British embassy here gave notice that hereafter such persons would not be allowed to land on British soil.

Many of these Americans have been under age and in some instances their parents have secured their discharge from the British army and return to the United States through representations by the State Department.

In future any Americans reaching British ports as hostlers will be required to continue in the same service or return home.
