

BIG REALTY DEAL ON

Option Given for Corner at Sixth and Stark Streets.

TWO LOTS PUT AT $275,000

Substantial Deposit Made Binding Purchase by January 20, 1916, and Popular Belief Is That Bank Building Is Proposed.

Considerable speculation was aroused in realty circles yesterday by knowledge of the fact that the owners of the quarter block at the northwest corner of Sixth and Stark streets had granted options for its sale at a total consideration of $275,000 on or before January 20, 1916.

GRANT DATA GATHERED

FEDERAL OFFICIAL LEAVES PORTLAND ON INSPECTION.

Special Assistant to Attorney-General Seeks Information in Oregon on Railway Land Problem.

S. W. Williams, special assistant to the Attorney-General of the United States, who has been in Oregon for several weeks quietly gathering data in regard to the lands of the Oregon and California grant, and Medford settlement as to what should be done with the grant, has practically finished his work.

Mr. Williams has already gone over a large part of the grant in his personal investigation. He has been all through the Willamette Valley, and made a trip over the old Coos Bay wagon road to look at the lands in the vicinity of these towns.

Mr. Williams later recovered the papers, but he didn't see the driver and his car again.

A. D. CHARLTON IS BACK

PORTLAND RAILWAY MAN TELLS OF BRITISH COLUMBIA VISIT.

Effects of War Apparent in Dominion Cities, but Business Continues. Peace Not Acceptable.

A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, has just returned from Vancouver, B. C., where he attended the meeting of the North Pacific Coast Passenger Association.

"Wherever you go on the street, in the hotels and in the stores—you see crippled men walking about, or men in uniform. Another effect of the war is the large number of women in mourning."

WASCO MAY BUILD ROAD

A. S. Benson Says Bonds Considered for Continuing Columbia Highway.

Wasco County is developing a strong sentiment in favor of bonding for road improvement, according to A. S. Benson, who has just returned from a trip into that county.

LEBANON PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR IS TRANSFERRED TO CHARGE AT PORTLAND.

Rev. W. S. McCullagh, of the Presbyterian of Willamette has dissolved the pastoral relations existing between Rev. W. S. McCullagh and the First Presbyterian Church of Lebanon, Or., to take effect November 1, and he will enter on his work at the Spokane-avenue Presbyterian Church of this city November 7, which extended him a unanimous call.

Denchutes River, and to improve the main roads connecting with it, Wasco County is realizing now," he said, "what the Columbia Highway means to the counties that have already built their shares of it, and will not waste much time in placing herself in a position to reap the advantage from her own unit in the great road."

HIGH SHERIFF VISITS

G. BRIMSTONE TELLS HOW ALASKA ADMINISTERED JUSTICE.

Placer Mining Gives Way to Dredging and Hydraulic Work by Large Companies, Says Official.

G. Brimstone, High Sheriff of Yukon Territory, who visited in Portland Thursday, leaving early yesterday morning en route to Antioch, Cal., where he will visit his family, was a member of a Vancouver, B. C. football team which played against the Multnomah Club team here 22 years ago. He had not been in Portland since that time until Thursday, and consequently had to be piloted about by his friend, D. H. ("Bob") Robinson.

Mr. Brimstone became acquainted with "Bob" Robinson when the latter was in the Yukon Territory and Alaska in 1899.

Widow of F-4 Victim Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Frederick Gillman, of Vallejo, Cal., widow of gunner on the submarine F-4, which sank in Honolulu harbor, was today appointed flagmaker at the Mare Island Navy Yard by order of President Wilson.

BILIOUSNESS.
A man seldom feels worse than when he has a bad bilious attack. That terrible headache together with nausea and vomiting makes him about as miserable as it is possible for human being to become. Happy relief may be had in a few hours by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition so that in a day or two after an attack a man will feel as happy as a boy.
