

75,000 DRAWN TO FAIR KLAMATH DAY

Wealth and Beauty of Oregon County Reflected in Feast and Motion Pictures.

GOVERNOR HEADS PARTY

Nearly 300 Citizens From District Honored at San Francisco Are Present at Observance—Plea Is Made for Settlers.

OREGON BUILDING, Exposition Grounds, San Francisco, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Klamath day at the Exposition brought 75,000 people to the grounds and a big crowd to the Oregon building to hear Governor Withycombe, Commissioner Hawley, Commissioner Booth, C. J. Blanchard, of the Government reclamation service, and Arthur Arlett, for the Governor of California, speak on Klamath County, Oregon, its beauties and resources. Afternoon bread made by the Sperry Flour Company from Klamath flour and spread with Klamath honey, Klamath cheese and crackers and Klamath celery were served to the multitude. Klamath moving pictures, music and dancing finished one of the most delightful days in the Oregon state building's history. Nearly 300 Klamath people were present.

The Governor's party from Oregon, including Governor and Mrs. Withycombe, Miss Mabel Withycombe, the Governor's staff, Commissioner and Mrs. C. L. Hawley, Commissioner Clark and 30 other well-known Oregonians, arrived at 7 o'clock this morning on the Santa Limited. They were met by Mayor Ralph, Arthur Arlett, for the Governor of California; President Moore, Commissioner Booth of the Oregon building and George H. Hyland.

Banquet Served on Train. The Governor's party, coming down, was banqueted in the dining-car, the party just filling the car, and short speeches were made by Commissioners Clark and Logan. It was a very happy, merry party.

Commissioner C. L. Hawley was chairman of the Klamath day exercises. Arthur Arlett, speaking for Governor Johnson, reviewed the riches and beauty of Klamath and prophesied a glorious future, a future near at hand with the coming railroad development. Commissioner Booth spoke of Klamath's riches. "If there is a better county than Lane," he said, "it is Klamath; she is rich in forests; her white pine has no superior in woods; Klamath could ship to all our sister states timber sufficient to pay the National debt in white pine alone."

Commissioner Hawley introduced Governor Withycombe as a "great Governor of a great state." Governor Withycombe said in part: "The Klamath people are to be congratulated on the way they have turned out today. If all our counties would send down such a delegation, Oregon would be a greater state than she is. The Klamath people deserve great credit for their loyalty and patriotism. They represent a rich country, a country truly flowing with milk and honey; after the forests there are the farmers to pour wealth into the lap of trade."

Plea Made for Settlers. C. J. Blanchard, of the Reclamation Service, made a special plea for fair treatment of the settlers. He said, will rush into Klamath and other Eastern Oregon counties with the coming of railroads. He told of the mistake of booming prices with the first influx, of making conditions too hard for the resources of the man looking for a home in a new land. "No man is more valuable to the State of Oregon along agricultural lines than your present Governor," he said. "The Klamath project combines more elements of success and prosperity than any projects on the Coast. The possibilities of Klamath County under reclamation are still unrealized; she has the climate, the soil, and will have one of the most satisfactory irrigation systems in the world. More pep and vigor in the farmers' all that is needed; also there should be a responsible board to direct settlers to the land properly. "There should be a proper spirit of co-operation between land owners and the Federal Government; they should tell the truth about the land, charge a fair price and give the settler a fair chance; the Government should direct the homeseekers, and the land should all be properly appraised. There is an organization in one of these Western states to which a man can go assured of getting a square deal. There should be an organization among land owners to protect the land buyer."

CHEHALIS MILL IS BUSY Hill Company Operates Two Plants at Full Capacity. CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The Hill Logging Company, which is operating both its sawmill and its shingle mill at Bunker station, 10 miles west of Chehalis, is now running both plants full force. The sawmill is cutting about 60,000 feet of lumber daily, and the shingle mill about 175,000 shingles. Considerable shipments of spars, piling and other timbers also are being made. The company has called a meeting for November 6 in this city, when it is expected directors will increase the capital stock of the concern from $50,000 to $200,000. Captain C. O. Hill, a well-known Portland capitalist, is the active head of the company.

NEW ROAD WORK STARTED West Wing of Olympic Highway Being Cleared. OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The state highway department commenced work this week on the clearing and grubbing of the Olympic Highway west wing from Lake Quinalt northward. Work is being done by day labor, with Nicholas Lawson, former Tacoma City Commissioner, in charge as superintendent.

Lawson was recalled with Mayor Fawcett four years ago, retiring from politics at that time instead of seeking vindication with Mr. Fawcett, who was re-elected. He was a successful contractor before entering city politics.

SCHOOL SOCIETY FORMED Woman's Club of Sandy Starts Chautauqua Reading Course. SANDY, Or., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The Union High School Literary Society was organized yesterday with the following officers: President, Lulu Roberts, first vice-president, Florence Lamoureux; second vice-president, Majorie Adams; secretary, Gertrude Melnick; sergeant at arms, Ralph Ganger; critic, Principal Warner. Meetings will be held alternate Fridays at the school-house. The first meeting will be November 6. A new self-government executive committee has been elected as follows: Sabra Deaton, Frances Meinig, Carries DeShazer and May Klingens, who have charge of the discipline and school government for the ensuing month. A general reception to new students was given by the present students this Friday night. Principal Warner and several teachers were present.

The Woman's Club of Sandy has club-rooms in the Shelly building and has taken up the Chautauqua reading course, in which nearly all members have joined. First meeting in the club-rooms was held Thursday, with Mrs. Scales and Mrs. Purcell as hostesses.

GOVERNOR ASKS STAY IDAHO APPEALS TO LANSING IN CANADA MURDER CASE. Doubt as to Guilt of A. L. Clinger Prompts Desire for More Investigation Before Execution.

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Governor Alexander has appealed to Secretary Lansing to obtain a stay of execution in the case of Albert L. Clinger, an ex-resident of Reubens, Idaho, condemned to die at Kamloops, Canada, for murder. Intercession for Clinger is said to be the first in the history of the state on behalf of an ex-resident condemned in a foreign country. Clinger is accused of the murder of a companion near Kamloops, British Columbia. Clinger says that his companion was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun as they were breaking camp one morning, and that he fled from the authorities when he realized that, as a stranger, he would have little chance to resist a charge of murder.

He contends that there had been no quarrel, and that the two had been such friends that he had lent money to the other for the purchase of the team with which they had planned a trip across the country. After the killing the team was returned in lieu of deferred payments, and Clinger then attempted to flee from the country.

He was arrested, however, tried, convicted and sentenced to die at Kamloops December 23. Governor Alexander believes, from the evidence at hand, that there is room for a reasonable doubt as to Clinger's responsibility for his companion's death, and has asked the State Department to obtain a stay of execution until a thorough investigation can be made.

FINANCIER UNDERGOES OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS. J. P. MORGAN IS ILL. Attack Mild, Recurrence Feared.

The patient's attack of appendicitis was mild in character, it was said, and his condition was in no way attributed to the attempted assassination of Mr. Morgan by Meunier. Apparently the financier has fully recovered from the effects of the two bullet wounds he sustained then. His general health, his doctors said, was so excellent that his prompt recovery from the operation of today was confidently expected.

Mr. Morgan attended a meeting of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation Tuesday. He was at his desk as usual Wednesday. He was indisposed Wednesday, however, and specialists diagnosed his ailment as a mild attack of appendicitis. Fearing a recurrence of the malady later, his physicians advised him to undergo the operation, which was performed at his home in Glen Cove, Long Island.

Effect on Stocks Slight. All members of the Morgan family were present. On the Stock Exchange the effect of Mr. Morgan's illness was almost imperceptible. Stocks went down fractionally, but quickly rebounded.

At the Morgan offices his illness was not regarded as serious by any member of the family. Whether Mr. Morgan's present indisposition could be attributed in part to Recovery From Recent Bullets Wounds Complete.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—J. P. Morgan, who has been at his desk a little more than two months since recovering from bullet wounds inflicted by Erich Muenster, the mad professor of languages, who attempted to kill the financier last July, again is confined to his bed and under the care of specialists, this time from an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. Morgan underwent an operation today which three attendant specialists afterward described as successful. The appendix was removed at noon and the official bulletin, issued shortly thereafter, said Mr. Morgan was resting comfortably. Continued progress was reported, unofficially, during the afternoon.

WATER ENGINEER NAMED

Aberdeen Official to Supervise Construction of $400,000 System.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—City Engineer L. D. Kelsey this week was named officially as engineer to build the $400,000 new Aberdeen water system. The City Council is expected to act in an advisory capacity and Kelsey will make a weekly report, showing both the progress of the work and expenses. He has full power to employ all the men and superintendents needed on the job.

The first big item of expense on the project, contracted for this week was a $2300 truck. A crew of about 20 surveyors has been at work several weeks.

Leona Toney will be given relief, according to an opinion handed down by Judge Gustav Anderson today. He holds that the purchase of the Licklider millinery establishment for $1650 early in March by the plaintiff, to furnish a means of livelihood for Mrs. Toney, together with the fitting up of apartments for her in Baker at a cost of $200, as a part of a contract in which Mrs. Toney was to secure a divorce from Asa Toney, and J. D. Toney a similar separation from Alta Toney, with the intention of being free to intermarry, was contrary to morals and public policy. Also that in view of this neither party to the suit has the right to ask relief in the courts.

Mrs. M. Baldwin Dies at Elma. ELMA, Wash., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Mrs. M. Baldwin, age 62, for the past 15 years a resident of this city, died Thursday at the Aberdeen General Hospital after a few weeks' illness. She is survived by four sons, four daughters, one stepson and two grandchildren, all of whom live in this county.

THE TRUTH

We Print the Truth About Delovage Bros. Emergency Jewelry Sale and the Truth Is Stronger Than Anybody's Opinion.

READ THE FACTS

It looks like a couple of jewelers of Portland are trying to grab the bull by the horns and corral all the jewelry business in town. No, kind reader, we are not sure because "the other fellow" is trying to get business, but—we positively will not take a back seat, with folded arms and watch a mighty procession of Christmas shoppers led to slaughter by "hired road-agents," who conduct sales to benefit nobody-in-particular.

Instead, we've rolled up our sleeves and are going to give the buying public of Portland a real sale, with real values, that will long be remembered.

We're conducting our own sale and all in a manner that will benefit the public directly. It's a case of emergency. Hence this sale.

There will be no wavering—no temporizing; we are going through our stock of jewelry with as little sympathy for what it cost as if the stock had cost us nothing.

Not a single article will be withheld from this broad emergency sale. There will be no reservations, no exceptions. The entire stock is included. And the beauty of it all is—for you—cost and profit are entirely forgotten.
