streets of Portland since the Rose Festival.

Between 700 and 300 employes of the O.-W. R. & N. offices had arranged to march in the pageant that is to be held in the afternoon at 1:30, when the announcement was made by the officials of the company that they would let about 600 more men off from the Albina carshops for the parade, thus swelling the number of people who will participate to between 1500 and 1600.

Franklin T. Griffith, president of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, has notified the officers of the show that the offices of the street railway company will be closed this afternoon to give the employes the opportunity of visiting the show. Other transportation concerns are expected to co-operate similarly and thus to send the largest attendance that has visited the show on any afternoon since its opening.

Four Mayors Invited.

When the first Land Show was held in Portland three years ago, the em-ployes of the O.-W. R. & N. Company and affillated lines participated in "Transportation day" festivities by parading through the streets of Portland for the purpose of impressing their interest and the interest of the company in the agricultural and industral development of the Northwest. That parade was the first manifestation on the part of the employes of a desire to get together and form a definite active or an interest of the employes. inite active organization in the affairs Opening Show Recalled.

The employes remember their joyous participation in that parade and this year will make a similar display on a larger scale. A committee, composed of George F. Koch, chairman; A. G. Brown, Harrold West and A. C. Forrester, has arranged for a big demonstration.

The march will be headed by a police plateon followed by the O.-W. R. & N. Empleyes' Club band. Following the band will be the Employes' Club drill team, then the officials of the company in automobiles, headed by President Farrell and other officials.

A number of floats will be in line, the first of which will represent the uncultivated area of Oregon, as typified by the sagebrush and Jackrabbit, then will come freigation, then the cultivated land, fourth, the growing crop, and last, the corn field in maturity.

Today is also Albany. Corvallis, Eugene and Salem day, and delegations are expected to come from there. Mayors of those cities have been invited and will be guests of the Chamber of Commerce while here. Albany has sent word that her band and her marching organization, the "Pheasanta," will be on hand to participate in the celebration.

One of the features tonight will be the display of the motions pictures of farming on a large scale in Union County, which are being offered through courtesy of the management of the Union County exhibits.

The great feature of the day, however, will be the big participation of the O-W, R. & N. people.

business starts to improve, the wave begins in the East, travels westward, reaching Southern California first, and then continues northward through San Francisca and Portland.

Business Follows Traffic. The telegraph business, Mr. Gaunt explained, is a fair guide to general business. The simile of a barometer can be better applied to it than to any other business for, like a barometer, it indicates a condition that is to come, when the telegraph traffic starts to expand a corresponding expansion of expand a corresponding expansion of general business always follows, Mr. Gaunt says.

In connection with his discussion of In connection with his discussion of the business situation, Mr. Gaunt made the pleasing and interesting announce-ment that within the next few weeks three of the newly-perfected multiplex sending and receiving instruments are to be installed in Portland, to accom-modate the ever increasing volume of traffic.

By mean of these instruments it will be possible to carry eight separate and distinct messages on the same wire at the same time, four in each direction. The machine was invented by a group of Western Union engineers and is regarded as the greatest gift to the telegraph service since Edison invented the duals.

Machine Is Automatic.

Net only does this wonderful machine take and receive eight messages at a time, but it trasmits them over the wire without use of a telegraph operator and copies them without aid of a typewriter operator.

Four girls at each end of the wire operate typewriters connected with the sending instruments which automatically tick off the messages. When the messages reach the other end of the wire they are automatically copied on typewriters. The volume of business that can be handled in this manner is increased 400 per cent over the volume possible with the present available facilities. The machines cost $3700 a piece.

As soon as the machines are installed As soon as the machines are installed in Portland one will be used for the work between Portland and Chicago, and the other between Portland and San Francisco. The third will be used for local work, but can be pressed into service on either of the main lines when occasion requires.

service devices. As fast as they are perfected they will be put into use."

Peculiar as it may seem, he pointed out, the business of the Western Union has increased in the last four years by 65 per cent, and this in spite of the improvement in the wireless and the long-distance service.

While the Western Union is not building any new lines in this territory, it is following the railroads wherever they go. It will extend its service with the new Southern Pacific line into Marshfield soon after the first of the year.

Diva Is in Artistic Voice for Recital of Monday Musical Organisation. Programme Wisely Selected.

Enjoyable songs in German, French and English—and with real vocal sun-shine in them—marked the fine recital given yesterday afternoon at the ball-room of the Multnomah Hotel by Mad-ame Jeanne Jomelli, soprano, under the auspices of the Monday Musical Club. of which organization she is a member. The event was a first-class musical social success and was largely at-tended.

social success and was largely attended.

Madame Jomelli was in artistic voice and gave a recital which impressed all who heard it with a new appreciation of the manifold beauties of her expressive, sparkling singing. The programme was a prima donna one, wisely selected to please all tastes. Madame Jomelli cleverly suited her voice to all moods of the various numbers of her long programme, whether the song rendered was somber, lively, dramatic or sentimental.

Leon Gottlieb, in Extended Reply. Attempts to Explain Questionable Career-Issuing of Draft

In an extended answer to the divorce omplaint of Clara Herschberger Gotlieb filed yesterday, Leon Gottlieb alleged adventurer now in the County Jail under indictment on a charge of passing a worthless draft for $12 drawn on a New York bank, declares that she lured him from Scattle to Portland and made an appointment to meet him at the Benson Hotel for the express purpose of causing his arrest, all of which he volubly alludes to as disloyal and unwifely conduct and quite undeserved. in restful, quiet charm. A decidedly star number—one of the best heard at the entire recital—was Lowe's "Niemand Hat's Gesehen," sung with an archness and liveliness that won instant applause. It had a laugh in every note, and in such a number as this all young singers will find every clement for successful rendition. It is one of the big musical "finds" of a long time and ought to be a Portland favorite.

Another big number was the aria from the Charpentier opera "Louise," which formed the chief attraction of the French group. The aria was rendered with high regard for its intrinsic, dramatic values, Madame Jomelli's own song, "Jai Pleure En Reve," was sung with appealing pathos, and it pleased immensely.

In the English group the star selection was "Spirit Flower" (Campbelli-Tipton) and fine sentiment was shown in singing MacDermid's "If You Would Love Ma." Madame Jomelli was recalled several times, so enthusiastic in appreciation were her fellow members, but the only extra number she sang was "Mother Machree" (Olcott-Ball), Miss Canstance Piper was plano accompanists.

> ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS FOR Locomotor Ataxia

In a very interesting article on Locomo tor Ataxia, Dr. Henry C. Story says that drugs have practically no benedicial effect in these cases. He says that rest should be insisted upon, and there should be no worries or troubles. Plenty of fresh air and moderate exercise must be insisted upon, but over-exertion is injurious. The use of tobacco and alcohol should be strictly forbidden, and over-eating is dangerous, especially when the food is poorly maxincated. The food must be of the most nourishing kind, and the quantity and variety must be changed so that the patient will not lose his appetite. The most ennoying symptom in these cases is the pain which at times is almost unbearable. Dr. Story says that he finds two Anti-kaminia Tablets repeated in an hour if necessary, gives prompt relief and rest to the patient. These Tablets can be obtained at all druggists in any quantity zestred. Ask for A-R. Tablets.

Also unexcelled for headaches, neuralgis and all Pain.

BETTER BABIES

The crusade for better babies has spread from coast to coast, and taken firm hold of American Mothers. Few women realize how much the ill health of the mother influences the unborn child, both physically and mentally. Women who suffer from mysterious pains, backache, nervousness, mental depression, headaches, etc., should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, which for nearly forty years has been the standard remedy for these aliments.—Adv.
