STATE RESTS CASE IN TRIAL FOR ARSON

18

Conversation Between Mordie, Keeney and Woolettes Repeated by W. A. Groce.

"STAND PAT" PLEDGE MADE

Captain of Fire Department Declares He Heard Suspect Tell of Difficulty in Escaping From Lombard-Street Fire.

Conversations overheard by W. A Groce, a captain of the fire department between Mordie Keeney, Mrs. Keeney, George Woolette and Mrs. Woolette on the night of September 12, were repeated today in Judge Gantenbein's court in the trial of Keeney, who is charged with arson. Mr. and Mrs. Woolette have testified for the state. Groce declared he first heard them agree to "stand pat." Later Keency said that he was afraid they had moved too much furniture out of the house, and also that he was afraid that Grant Hawley, who testified to helping Mont Akeyson and Woolette mix linseed oil and turpentine, might talk. Keeney had declared that if they got him in jail he would stand pat. and later, in a reminiscent mood, had said that they had had a mighty hard time getting away from the Lombard-street house after it was fired because of a street light close to the building.

berry juice submitted by students of the public and private schools and uni-versities of Oregon, ended Sunday. Songs arriving by mail yesterday will be accepted, however, as the committee will take into consideration that on Sunday no mail was handled from many postoffices. George E. Waggoner is chairman of the Ad Club song committee. He and his fellow-committeemen have been fairly swamped by the avalanche of lyric praise of the loganberry and its juice. The object of the contest, which was to a waken interest in the loganberry industry through the state as a preliminary to a Nation-wide ad-vertising campaign, has already been achieved.

LECTURES ON IRELAND TO BE GIVEN NOVEMBER 18 AND 20.

"Laughter in Ireland" and "The Irish Theater" to Be Toples of the Noted Irish Author.

Interpretations of Irish literature from the standpoint of the people of that race will be presented in Portland by Lady Augusta Gregory, one of the foremost founders of the Irish Na-tional Theater movement, who will give two lectures in the new Couch School auditorium on the evenings of November 18 and 20. The subject of the first lecture will be "Laughter in ****************************** Ireland" and of the second, "The Irish Theater," The second lecture prom-ises to be of particular interest be-cause of the fact that Lady Gregory will discuss the movement of which she is one of the leaders. Lady Gregory will speak here under the auspices of the Portland Educa-tion Association. She is making a tour of this country and is lecturing in the leading citics. This will be the first time she has ever lectured west of Chicago.

Oglesby Young, attorney, alao was a witness for the defense, being called to prove that he had been paid $65 by Keeney to foreclose a morigage assigned to Keeney by the Woolettes.
The state alleges that checks totaling $55 given by Mrs. Woolette to Keeney, wore in payment for his destruction of the Lombard-street house. The defense contends that they were given in the morigage transaction.
Lady Gregory will arrive in Portland Education Association on the evening of November 13. At this time Portland people who are interested in literature and the frame and particularly educators will be given an opportunity to meet her.
Lady Gregory has been styled the greatest interpreter of Irish superstictions and beliefs and she has a wide troown as a playwright and authoress. She began writing about 15 years ago. feeling that the drishman was never contends that they were given in the mortgage transaction. Keeney admitted being at the Lom-bard-street house the afternoon that woolette and Akeyson were putting pa-per on the walls subsequent to the plaster being removed. He said, though that he had heard Woolette talk of re-pairing the bouse and thought that was what they were doing. He also ad-niited being the agent who purchased the property for the Woolettes.

What Does "Inauguration Month" Mean?

-It means the inaugurating of merchandising service on a new high plane, made possible by this vast new store now completed! -The old expression that we learned at school, "In unity there is strength," is the keynote of our ability to sell highest quality merchandise at lowest prices. And not only that, but to provide conveniences that make shopping comfortable and pleasant.

-The union of 75 inner stores under one great roof brings selling costs to a new low level. And the proof of merchandising efficiency in this store is repeated a thousand times as you price the new goods.

-"Inauguration month" IS an event that means much to YOU.
