REGENT OF KANSAS DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION HONORED AT RECEPTION YESTERDAY.

COMPLIMENTING Mrs. A. B. Castleman, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. Christopher D. Brunst presided at a charming luncheon and bridge party yesterday afternoon at her home in River. Covers were placed for eight around a prettily decked table, and the honors at bridge fell to Mrs. Castleman and Mrs. Adrian F. McCalmann.

Mrs. Castleman has been in this country several months, her home being London, England. She will leave Saturday for San Francisco, and will sail for Honolulu to pass the winter. A number of charming affairs have been given in her honor, and among those planned for this week is the reception which Mrs. Rudolph Prall will give Friday.

Another charming affair of yesterday afternoon was the tea party for which Mrs. J. Martin Watson was hostess, honoring Mrs. George Thacher, Guernsey, of Independence, Kan., who is a candidate for the presidency of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hammond entertained with a 500 party at their home, 902 Tillamook street, the latter part of the week. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. Allen, Mrs. Mabelle Grenfell, Mrs. George B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dannels, Miss Florence M. Grenfell and George Moncrieff.

A pleasant Halloween party was given at the home of P. Maxine Godfrey, 310 Farrington street, recently danced and music formed the principal entertainment. Several piano solos were played by Herbert Sweet. The house was prettily decorated in Halloween colors and autumn leaves. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Grace Linklater, Margaret Ward, Dorothy Shibley, Ruth Moreland, Edith Rydman, Esther Wright, Herbert Sweet, Edward Phoebe, Philip McCarty, Edna Clarence Wright and Harold Godfrey.

A small informal dance tomorrow night will be preceded by a progressive dinner, which will be given by a group of Laurelhurst people, those entertaining being Mrs. Jack Hoben, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rees, Mr. and Mrs. C. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Duane A. Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Murray.

The committee of the Monday Night Dancing Club has arranged for a series of dances for the season, which will be given in the Hotel Multnomah ballroom. The first of the series will be held Monday, November 15, and as a complete membership is desired as early as possible, the committee urges prompt replies to Clarence B. Sewall.

This club is one of the oldest established dancing clubs in Portland and has been extremely popular with the young married set. In the past few years, the membership was increased to permit of a number of popular bachelors being admitted, who also are eligible this year.

Another club, which will claim a great deal of attention from society, is the Monday-Night Skating Club, which will meet every Monday evening at the Ice Hippodrome, when they will have the exclusive use of the rink. The membership will be limited to 400, the first meeting to be Monday, November 15. During the evening, instructors will assist those who wish it, each member being permitted to bring a guest.

The committee is: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mrs. C. Edward Grelle, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, J. C. Ainsworth, Victor A. Johnson, Lewis H. Mills, Gordon Forbes, C. H. Davis, Jr., and I. L. Webster.

Mrs. Cora Puffer entertained the Matinee Bridge Club yesterday at her home.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hare, of Spokane, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coulson Hare. They have been touring California, and are en route to their home. They will leave Friday night for Seattle for a short visit, before proceeding to Spokane. During their visit in this city, Dr. and Mrs. Hare will be extensively entertained. Dr. Hare is clerk of the United States District Court of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, accompanied by Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, left Sunday night for San Francisco for a visit to the exposition. The Shevlin plan to go East shortly, and probably will pass the holidays with their sons who are attending Eastern schools.

An interesting item of news from San Francisco is that telling of the reunion for the first time in 25 years of four sisters, Mrs. James H. McCracken, of this city; Mrs. Richard Verley, of Oakland; Mrs. George A. Hastings and Mrs. Ernest H. Palmer. The reunion was celebrated with a delightful dinner party at the home of Mrs. Hastings on Monday night, in San Francisco. This is the first time the four sisters have been together since the wedding of Mrs. Verley in Oakland. Since that time Mrs. McCracken has lived in this city. Mrs. Palmer in New York and Boston and Mrs. Verley passes much time in travel.

The dinner was charming in every detail and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Palmer, Mrs. Richard Verley, Mrs. J. H. McCracken, Mrs. George A. Spear, Misses Zita Hastings, Evelyn Palmer and Wallace Hastings.

Mr. Palmer has been visiting in Portland with the McCrackens for several weeks en route to the southern city to join his family.

Miss Lillian Palmer, bride-elect, was the guest of honor for the Halloween party Saturday afternoon for which Mrs. John Keller was hostess. The rooms were attractive with autumn leaves and bowls of marigolds. Music was one of the diversions of the afternoon. Mrs. J. T. O'Brien singing a number of selections.

Mrs. George L. Simonds, daughter of General and Mrs. Page, and wife of Captain Simonds, will leave Monday for her home in West Point. Miss Page, another daughter, is recovering from an illness and is now domiciled at the Campbell Hotel.

The Original Hi Jinks are making preparations for another party to be given Friday at Christensen's Hall. The committee in charge is: Harold Shadle, Naomi Marcellus, Marion Speer, Carl Naeger, Madeline Brown, Julius Berkey, Margaret Dixon, Virginia Brown, Bob Hamaker, Beach Crofton, Harry Humphrey, Mary Dunbar, Lee Waldron, Max Schulz, Hoyt Brown, Percy Brown, Marie Beach, Marion Hoban, Roland Manary, Vesta Tegar.

Notable among the Halloween observances last week was the surprise party to Miss Ethel Mills given by a number of friends at her home at thirty-first and Franklin streets. The merry assemblage swooped down upon the surprised Franklin High School student and the festivities continued far into the night. Dancing, music, games of witchcraft and a dainty supper made the evening delightful.

Among those present were the Misses Greta Bowman, Bernice Donahay, Ethel Mills, Mary Green, Marguerite O'Dean, Bernice Wortman and Miss Margaret Vanian. The rooms were decorated in autumn foliage and Halloween favors. Mrs. Jones and Miss Wortman received prizes for high scores at cards.

Mrs. Frederick E. Mountain entertained informally at cards on Thursday. The party was the first of a series that Mrs. Mountain will give. The guests were: Mrs. Vuid Jones, Mrs. A. D. Morgan, Mrs. S. Ross, Mrs. Matthew Hanson, Miss Josephine Clark, Miss Bernice Wortman and Miss Margaret Vanian. The rooms were decorated in autumn foliage and Halloween favors. Mrs. Jones and Miss Wortman received prizes for high scores at cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Nudelman gave a dinner party for their daughter, son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wolfman, who celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary last Friday. The house was attractively decorated and after the dinner music and dancing were featured. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfman will leave soon for San Francisco, San Diego and Los Angeles for a visit.

to play," grumbled Nettie, scowling and frowning as she looked at the book. "I am afraid you will be caught by the grumpies some day," said her father. "You shirk and leave so much for your mother to do."

"You leave your books on the floor," said Nettie, "and your mother has to pick them up. I want you to be a helper to your mother and not a grumpy little girl."

But Nettie did not feel like helping that day. She had a very wicked thing to read, so she did a very wicked thing. Right after breakfast, as soon as her father was out of the house, she began to complain that her head ached and she was sick, so sick she could not sit up.

So Nettie went to her room and got into her bed. When she was sure her mother was busy and would not come into her room she took her book from under the pillow and began to read. She read a long time. Nettie was never sure how long or when it happened, but all at once she felt a tug at her book and a voice said: "Hello, Nettie. So you are a grumpy like us, are you? Well, we have come to take you with us."

I am not going to do a thing," said Nettie.

"Spoken like a true grumpy," said the spokesman. "But you will have to do this work this time, and after you have done it you are a grumpy in reality and will never have to work again."

"But I told you I did not want to look like you. You are a bad, shirking, troublesome lot, and I do not want anything to do with you."

"Make her," said the spokesman, and all the grumpies rushed at Nettie like a whirlwind.

"Bang!" something sounded, and Nettie jumped. Her book was on the floor by her bed. She had fallen asleep and dropped it.

"I have been a selfish girl and a grumpy, even if I do not look like this," said Nettie, getting out of bed. "I'll go right out and get the baby and his bottle and put him to bed, and I'll show those old grumpies I do not want to join them after this."

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

MISS CAROLINE E. BARNUM has arrived home after passing several months in San Francisco, where she was engaged in traveling aid work. Women's Christian Association is doing a great work on the exposition grounds. Aside from the activities going on in the main building, a clubroom has been opened on the zone for the girls who work in that locality. Rest rooms and reading-rooms are provided and baths and lunches are obtainable practically at cost. The employment department is doing a fine work in obtaining positions. Miss Brookman, who is in charge, visits the girls at their work and every effort is being made to give the young people the best surroundings and influence.

The announcement of a Halloween party to be given at the Young Women's Christian Association last Saturday night brought together at that time not only a large gathering of girls who came prepared to participate in the fun that had been planned for the evening, but also a balcony full of spectators. A pumpkin headed, corn-stalked, and a bewitched old witch, who sat in the center of the dimly lighted room, crooning beside her pot of brew.

About an hour was then given over to the games of the evening. Every girl anxious to know her fate visited the witch, who then the beautiful, who told by hand or cards the fates of the inquisitive questioners. Then if not satisfied, each took her chance of getting the symbolic penny, ring or thimble, which was hidden in the cake of fortune, or biddenfold she dipped her finger into the empty saucer, the saucer of misfortune, to determine whether she will make monthly averages showing the percentage of attendance month by month.

After making accurate tests a German scientist has decided that German rothie eye is less tiring to the eyes than Roman letters.

Thankful for Relief Remedy Brought Her

Says Fruitola and Traxo Possesses All the Merit That Is Claimed for It.

After completing the necessary treatment, Mrs. S. S. Cole, of Texas, was so well pleased with the results that she wrote the Pinus Laboratories as follows: "Fruitola and Traxo are all you claim. It removed a quantity of gall-stones, and I feel sure it saved my life. I am well and thankful to you for the great good your medicine has done me."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, and one dose is usually sufficient to clearly demonstrate its efficiency. It softens the congested passages, disintegrates the hardened particles that occasion so much suffering and expels the accumulated waste to the great relief of the patient. Following a dose of Fruitola, Traxo should be taken three or four times a day in order to rebuild and restore the system that has become weakened and run down from constant suffering. It is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach most beneficially.

Fruitola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus Laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists, in Portland they can be obtained at The Owl Drug Co. stores.
