11 OF 18 PROVINCES FAVOR MONARCHY

CHINESE ELECTIONS ARE HELD WITHOUT DISTURBANCES.

Reply to Powers Makes Good Impression—American Attitude Cause of Gratitude.

PEKIN, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Eleven of the 18 provinces of China have voted unanimously in favor of restoration of the monarchy, with Yuan Shi Kai as Emperor. The elections were carried out quietly without signs of trouble in the interior districts.

The reply of the government to the powers has made a favorable impression among both foreigners and Chinese. It is considered significant that China should answer in particular the British Minister's inquiry, which was made when Japan's communication concerning Yuan Shi Kai's change to maintain order should the change be made, was handed in. China assures Britain's representative that the government is confident of its ability to control the situation.

China seemingly believes that America's non-interference indicates that the United States is determined not to concern itself with China's domestic affairs. Gratitude is expressed on all sides for this attitude.

AGENTS TRY TO BUY FOOD

It is known, too, that Villa agents have been endeavoring to buy much needed supplies of flour and corn, and preparations have been made at Naco to take care of those wounded in Monday's fight around Agua Prieta.

On the other hand, General Calles' scouts report that the main body of Villa's army, reinforced during the day by an unknown number of men from the east, is still within a few miles of Agua Prieta, while the forces of General Urbalejo, the Yaqui chieftain, numbering about 1500, are still farther in.

Villa has succeeded in getting near to water supply at Calladones and Anavacachi Pass and limited food supplies have also reached him.

TOWNS PREPARE FOR ATTACK

Every preparation was made in Agua Prieta today for another attack. General Funston, commanding American forces, also made preparations later today by posting troops at advantageous points in Douglas and moving them away from immediate contact with the border. Strict orders had been issued to keep residents of Douglas far away from the international line.

Two or three companies of infantry were sent to Naco during the day. This was merely a precautionary measure.

DOUGLAS, ARIZ., NOV. 3.—Whether

General Francisco Villa intends to press home his attack on Agua Prieta, or pass up the border town and play for bigger game, the western coast cities of Guaymas and Mazatlan, which would give him ports for securing much needed supplies, is a problem that is puzzling both the American Army officers here and the Carranza forces in Agua Prieta tonight.

The Villa army began early today moving away from Agua Prieta toward Naco and tonight that little border town reported 500 Villa troops already had reached that point. Approximately 4000 others were reported by train passengers as having been seen along the road leading toward Naco.

Briand Declares Victory Is to Be Price of Peace.

CLOSER UNION IS URGED

Socialist in Chamber Hooted When He Declares No Part of Territory of Enemies Should Be Annexed by France.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—"France will not sign a peace agreement until after her restoration by right of victory and until she shall have obtained all guarantees of a durable peace," said Premier Briand today.

This statement was included in the ministerial declaration of the new Cabinet which was read before the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate by the premier.

A resolution of confidence in the government was adopted by a vote of 515 to 1.

"We are at war," said the premier, in his address. "The hour is for action. Only by close and incessant co-operation will victory be obtained. Everyone must accomplish his task. Once all responsibilities are established, every fault, every failure, will be punished."

"That is the programme of the new government. The government, aided by Parliament, must furnish all means to the army, whom we salute with emotion and pride."

Wednesday's War Moves

THE vigorous support which Herbert H. Asquith, the British Premier, and Aristide Briand, the new French Premier, have promised Serbia seemingly is about to be realized. Besides the Anglo-French troops, including British cavalry, who already are in Southern Serbia, British and French transports are arriving daily at Saloniki and troops from them are being sent up the country immediately to attempt to check the Bulgarian march from Veles toward Monastir.

Other transports, according to a Sofia dispatch, have landed troops at Kavala, a Greek port on the Aegean Sea near the Bulgarian border. At the same time the diplomats continue their efforts to obtain in the support of Greece and Roumania for Serbia, who fought with them in the last Balkan war.

As time passes, however, Serbia's position grows more critical. The Austro-German drive from the north is proceeding slowly but surely, while two Bulgarian armies are approaching Nish, from which place the Serbian government has moved to Mirovitza, near the Montenegrin frontier. The Serbians, nevertheless, are fighting sternly defensive battles, and from the German accounts it is apparent that their main armies are making good their retreat, and leaving, as the Russians did in Galicia and Poland, little except what cannot be moved, such as copper mines, for the invaders.

There is no further news of the Russian expedition which several days ago was reported off Varna, Bulgaria's chief seaport. The opinion is held in the entente allied countries that Roumania is in favor of intervention on their side, will allow the forces of Emperor Nicholas to move across her territory.

General Ivanhoff has won another victory over the Teutons on the Stripa River. Farther north in Volhynia there is heavy fighting, and the Russians say they have checked an Austro-German offensive, which had as its object the capture of Cartorysk.

In fact, all along the eastern front the Russians, according to the German official report, are making a series of attacks in favor of intervention on their side. It is admitted that the Germans were compelled to withdraw their lines in the lake district, but the other Russian attempts are said to have been repulsed.

In the west unfavorable weather is interfering with the operations.

Both French and British submarines are now in the Sea of Marmora, where the French submarine Turquoise was recently wrecked by the Turks.

MOOSE BACK IN OLD FOLD

Justice Hughes Looms as Possibility for 1916.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Administration Democrats and Republicans are in practical agreement tonight on the following indications of the results of the elections yesterday: That the drift of the voters back to Republican control of the Government, which was evidenced in the Congressional elections a year ago, is continuing.

PROGRESSIVES FORSAKING PARTY

That the Progressives are forsaking their party and casting their votes more generally for the Republican than for the Democratic candidates.

That President Wilson, while stronger than his party, will have to make a hard fight for re-election next November.

That ex-Senator Root, of New York, who dominated the New York state constitutional convention and championed the new constitution, is definitely out of the running as the Republican Presidential candidate in consequence of the overwhelming rejection of his work.

Hughes Strong Possibility.

That Associate Justice Hughes looms the "best bet" of the Republicans for the Presidential nomination.

That the retirement of Governor Willis, of Ohio, from the Presidential race and Republican gains in the Buckeye state strengthen the Presidential candidacy of ex-Senator Burton.

President Wilson declined to comment today on the results of the election, and his political advisers assert they are not significant because only local questions were before the voters. Nevertheless, before the elections took place, the Administration supported Walsh, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, and the Democratic candidates for the Legislature in New Jersey, the Democratic candidates in Maryland and the Democratic candidates in Kentucky.

Issue Forced by Democrats.

The Democratic slogan in Massachusetts was "a vote for Walsh is a vote for Wilson." The Democrats in New Jersey appealed to the voters to assure a Democratic victory, pointing out the interpretation that would be placed by the country upon the defeat of the Democratic candidates in the State's own state. In Kentucky, Stanley, the Democratic candidate, who was elected, enjoyed the hearty indorsement of the President.

Here are some of the comparative figures cited by the Republicans tonight:

In 1912, Massachusetts gave Wilson 175,000, Taft 155,000, and Roosevelt 142,000, a plurality for Wilson of 18,100.

In 1915, Walsh (Dem.) received 218,312, and McCall (Rep.) 235,318, a plurality for McCall of 6606.

In 1912, Kentucky gave Wilson 235,000, Taft 115,000, and Roosevelt 102,000, a plurality for Wilson of 104,000 votes.

In 1915, Stanley (Dem.) received a plurality of less than 5000 votes.

New Jersey Situation Reversed.

In 1912 New Jersey gave Wilson a plurality of 22,000 over the Democrats.

In 1915, the Democratic candidate for Governor, received a plurality of 3000.

The political advisers of the President assert that only local issues were before the voters. A study of what has happened, however, convinces Democrats as well as Republicans, that these National matters had an influence with the voters:

1. Dissatisfaction with the tariff. Ex-Vice-President Fairbanks made this an issue in the Kentucky campaign, along with other criticisms of the Administration.

Foreign Policy Disapproved.

In 1912 the President's European policies. This, it is asserted, was evidenced by the course of voters of German-American extraction in Baltimore and in the Twenty-third Congressional district of New York.

3. Disapproval, especially by Catholics, of the President's Mexican policy.

Attention is called in this connection to what happened in Maryland.

These deductions are of such moment as to attract the attention of the President of those associated with him.

In his speech to the Daughters of the American Revolution, the President practically declared he wanted no other voters in the United States than American voters. During the coming campaign he is expected to make this
