ATHENS, via London, Nov. 4 .- The Cabinet of Premier Zaimis resigned today, following its failure to obtain a Republicans Say Morrow Has 1476, vote of confidence on a minor issue which arose in the national assembly

The entire press of Athens, as well as the political leaders, predict dissolu-tion of the chamber.

The discussion arose in the course of debate over proposed military laws. The Minister of War, General Yanakitsas, made a remark which ex-Pre-mier Venizelos considered an insult. The ex-Premier demanded an apology. Government Is Defented.

Diplomats Have Hope.

On the other hand, it is not forgot-Venizelos up to a certain point, and there are some diplomats here who believe that, assured of a landing of strong Anglo-French forces at Saloniki and Kavala, together with a Russian army on the other side of Thrace and the possible assistance of Roumania, the Greek King might be willing to embark on operations against Bulgaria. Greece never looked with favor or Bulgarian occupation of Macedonia, and there are some in the country wh fear that a victorious Buigaria might income covetons eyes on Kavala, which ims Ferdinand fought so hard to get the conclusion of the Balkan wars. Roumania is in somewhat the same n as Greece. A majority of the of that country favor the allies, lle the King and government wis maintain neutrality, at least until appears clear that the allies can win the war. There have been continual demonstrations in Roumania in favor of attervention, which have been height-med by the presence of a large Rus-ian force on the northeastern border waiting to attack Bulgaria
