INDIAN DRY PLAN VOICE

UMATILLA TO SEND DELEGATES TO TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.
Picturesque Redman Who Reformers to Become Religious Worker to Be One Representative.

Two delegates from the Tutuilla Temperance Society, composed of "dry" Indians on the Umatilla Indian reservation in Eastern Oregon, will attend the State Anti-Saloon League convention in Portland, November 16 and 17.
The information was received yesterday by R. P. Hutton, superintendent of the league, in a letter from Motanic, one of the leaders in the temperance cause among the Umatilla Indians. Motanic is now an elder in the Presbyterian mission on the reservation, and he is well remembered as the Indian who about five years ago not only stayed with but threw Frank Gotch, the wrestler, in an exhibition contest when Gotch toured the country with Jeffries and several other celebrities just prior to the Jeffries-Johnson fight.
Motanic had Gotch four points down and the story of his ring exhibition with the famous wrestler became a wigwag epic on the reservation, and has been rehearsed around many camps. Motanic at one time was a character on the reservation and had a prowess for obtaining liquor

Second Mortgage Suit Is Lost.
COLVILLE, Wash., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Judge Bert Linn has filed his judgment rendered upon the demurrer of the defendant in the case of F. C. Hoy vs. D. J. Burk, in favor of the defendant. Burk foreclosed a mortgage against land he had sold to Hoy for $16,000, after receiving $7200 on the indebtedness. After the sale under mortgage foreclosure, at which Burk was the purchaser, Hoy brought suit for damages, alleging misrepresentation in the value, quality and use of the land in the first instance. In effect, Judge Linn holds that Hoy should have litigated this phase of the con-troverly in the first suit, and that, failing to do so, he is estopped from recovering in a second suit.

Government Wins $716 Verdict.
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 9.—Because a Great Northern section crew was negligent and permitted a forest fire to spread on the railroad's right of way in the Snoqualmie National Forest, the United States Government yesterday obtained a verdict for $716 against the railroad company in the Federal District Court.
