LOGGER KILLS HIMSELF

No Explanatory Note Left by Robert Bohle for Deed. Robert Bohle, aged 40, rented a room at the Western Lodging-House, Second and Ankeny streets, at 6 o'clock Tuesday night, and some time that night directed the contents of two ounce bottles of carbolic acid. His body was found on the bed in his room yesterday.

No note was left giving a reason for suicide, but his clothes contained nothing of value. He has a brother, Robert Bohle, at Arizaid, N. D., according to a postcard in his pocket addressed to him at Bremen, N. D.

A LAMP WITHOUT A WICK.

The Sunshine Safety Lamp Co., 810 Factory Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., has a new portable gasoline lamp which gives the most powerful home light in the world—a blessing to every home not equipped with gas or electricity.

This remarkable lamp has no wick and no chimney, is absolutely safe and gives such universal satisfaction they are sending it on free trial. They want one person in each locality to whom they can refer new customers. Take advantage of their free trial offer. Agents wanted. Write them today.—Adv.

Writers are Entertained. Menu at Banquet Consists of Products of Three Counties.

Union, Baker and Morrow counties furnished a banquet "fit for a king" to a party of Portland newspaper men at the Imperial Hotel last night.

The hosts were: W. E. Meachem, of Baker; F. E. Curvey, of La Grande, and W. W. Smead, of Heppner, who are in charge, respectively, of the Baker, Union and Morrow County exhibits at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show.

The menu consisted principally of products of the three counties represented, and the chef at the Imperial put them up in a style that proved that the products shown in those three booths at the Land Products Show are not for show purposes alone.

Those present at the dinner were: W. E. Meachem, of Baker; W. W. Smead, of Heppner; F. E. Curvey, of La Grande; H. E. Thomas, E. S. Reynolds, Charles Myers and Dean Collins, of the Oregonian; Robert Withrow, of the Telegram; Rex Lampton and Estuary O. Blythe, of the Journal, and B. E. Kennedy.

Fifty Members Announce Intention to Enter "Free Speech" Fight.

SPOKANE, Nov. 10.—Fifty members of the Industrial Workers of the World arrived in Spokane today with the announced intention of participating in a "free speech" fight. One member of the organization was fined in Police Court and sent to jail for speaking in the street at a place other than that which the police have designated.

The Industrial Workers demand that they be permitted to speak at any place they wish. The local secretary of the organization said he received a telegram from W. D. Hayward, general secretary, which read "Have notified each town of the fight and ask them to hasten all possible aid to Spokane."

BOYS' BOOK IS PUBLISHED

Harry H. Moore Is Author of Treatise on Food Selection.

The Macmillan Company recently has published a book by Harry H. Moore, class of 1913 of Reed College, with an introduction by Clark W. Betherington, Ph. D., professor of physical education at the University of Wisconsin.

The publication is a handbook on training for older boys. It treats of the selection of exercises and proper foods, provision for sufficient rest and fresh air, and control of the sex instinct. It also describes the relationship of training to the progress of the race and the Nation.

RED PATCH ON INSTEP OF FOOT

Scaly Surface. Commenced to Spread. Very Itchy. Scratched Making Spots Very Sore.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"There appeared above the instep of my right foot a small red patch with a scaly surface. It commenced to spread causing me considerable inconvenience and was very itchy. I would often forget myself and indulge in considerable scratching making the spots affected very sore."

"I then began trying many different remedies but the spots continued spreading. A Cuticura-Soap-and-Ointment advertisement came to my notice. I sent for a free sample and I bought some more. I applied them for less than thirty days. The eruption disappeared and I was entirely healed."

(Signed) Paris J. Caccari, 152 Leppard Ave., San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 4, 1915.
