BUDGET DUE TODAY

Public Hearing Expected to Be Lively.

BIG ATTENDANCE PROBABLE

Medical Inspection in Schools, Auditorium Erection and Closing of One Fire Station Are Main Points at Issue.

The public will have its inning this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the City Council's budget of proposed 1916 expenditures. The Council will devote the afternoon to a public hearing of all budget questions citizens wish to bring The Commissioners are looking for some lively tilts, inasmuch as there are several important questions is which there is a division of publi-which there is a division of public opinion.

Trouble is expected over the proposition of cutting out school medical inspection. The City and County Medical Society, a number of women's organizations, the citizens' advisory budget committee and others are in the lineup scheduled to oppose this move. It is contended the service is an absolute necessity for the protection of school children from contagious disease. The inspection stands now eilminated from the city budget by vote of Commissioners Baker. Daly and Bigelow against Mayor Albee and Commissioner Dieck. The balance of power in the proposition rests with any one of the three Commissioners who have voted against the inspection. The switching of the vote of one of the three will save the inspection.

Commissioner Daly is said to be wavering. He has announced that he doubts the wisdom of discontinuing the service, and while he does not say he will switch his vote, it is thought there is a chance of a change.

The proposition of discontinuing the service, and while he does not say he will switch his vote, it is thought there is a chance of a change.

The proposition of discontinuing building of the proposed public auditorium will be another bone of contention. It is said a delegation of South Portland people will be on hand to favor going ahead with the construction, while others will protest against the structure. The Central Labor Council will be represented with a committee to urge construction.

Still another fuss is expected over the plan to abolish the fire station at Sixteenth and Washington streets. Fire Chiefs and the underwriters declare there is need of a fire station in this vicinity. So far their recommendations have not been recognized by the Council majority—Baker, Bigelow and Daly, H. P. Boardman, of the Equitable Rating Bureau, has declared before the Council that the change means an increase in fire rates for that section of the city.

in fire rates for that section of

It is expected that property owners of that vicinity will be on hand both to-oppose and favor the removal of the station. It is said there is a division of opinion as to the need of the station. The pian of the Council majority is to move the apparatus from this station to Fourteenth and Glisan streets.

Ted Haley, '15, and Roy Turner, '18, two of the "stunt" men with the glee club, are as clever a pair of entertainers as ever registered in the university. Haley comes from a long line of actors and has written three prize football songs, two light operas, besides starring in three annual productions of the Columbia Slough Accident.

Charles Wilson, who fell from the first span of the Columbia Slough trestle, at the approach of a Vancouver train Wednesday, and was fatally injured when he struck a log raft 25 feet below, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday morning. It could not be determined whether he fell from the trestle in trying to escape helms hit by the train of was struck, as his heddy lay directly below the steps of the first car, and the motorman said that the car did not hit him.

Wilson was 46 years old, and came from Scattle, but no relatives are known of. There probably will be no inquest.

Charges Made by W. C. Black Are Declared to Be Untrue.

Charges of W. C. Black to the effect

Charges of W. C. Black to the effect that he sustained injuries at the hands of policemen at the City Jail are being investigated by Mayor Albee. The Mayor yesterday received reports from the policemen in which it is asserted that the charges are entrue.

The police asserted that Mr. Black was intoxicated and that whatever injuries he had suffered were his own fault and not due to any brutality on the part of the policemen. The Mayor said yesterday that, while he is convinced that there is nothing to the charges, he still wants to investigate a little further.

Johnson leaves a wife and four children. He has a sister, Louise Johnson, in Fortland; a brother, Chester, also in this city. His father is still living in California. The family has been the ward of charitable organizations and under the wing of the Juvenile Court for some time. Johnson was 32 years old.
