WILL VISIT FAIR

Portland, Gresham and Boring Expected to Make Big Showing in Attendance.

MOTOR PARADE PROMISED

Parson's Band Heard for First Time With Mrs. Delphine Marx in Vocal Numbers—Playgrounds Will Be Feature Today.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY THE MAYOR OF GRESHAM.
Whereas, the citizens of Gresham and vicinity have decided in mass meeting assembled to celebrate Friday, November 12, as Gresham day at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show in the City of Portland, I therefore designate the afternoon of said day as a half holiday, to be observed in accordance with the purpose named.
And I would request that all business houses of Gresham be closed during the afternoon of Friday in honor of the occasion, and that all persons should make an effort to take part in the celebration and parade, and visit the exhibition. (Signed) GEORGE W. STAPLETON, Mayor.

This is Gresham, Portland and Boring day at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show.
Mayor Stapleton, of Gresham, has proclaimed that there shall be a half holiday in that city, and the population will turn out in mass. At least 100 automobiles will carry the Gresham visitors to Portland, arriving here about 2 o'clock. Three hundred Gresham pennants have been purchased by the chairman of the Gresham day committee, George F. Honey, and when the Gresham delegation arrives in the city members will carry their own advertising.
Word was received late yesterday from residents of Boring that that town also would send a delegation, but the members of the committee were not named and no other particulars were learned.
Cars in Plenty Promised.
C. M. Zimmerman, chairman of the automobile committee from Gresham, has had the cars in mass, an ensuring fact that one of the biggest delegations that has visited the land show will be on hand today. Beside the automobile banners that will be sold to the owners of the machines found in line, white signs, decorated with appropriate slogans, will be furnished the machine drivers free. The Gresham delegation will be swelled by any who care to join in the ranks on the road to Portland.
In speaking of the celebration, Mr.
Honey says that "it is the intention of the committee to get 100 machines for the parade, and the committee will be able to do so without turning a hair." The parade, he says, is what put up by any outside town "is what the Gresham people have promised." Starting from the Chamber of Commerce about 2 o'clock, the parade, headed by the Twenty-first Infantry band of Vancouver, will parade through the "downtown" streets and then go to the Armory.
New Band Heard.
Yesterday Parson's band made its initial appearance at the land show.
Mrs. Delphine Marx was heard in vocal numbers and pictures of the trip of the Mazamas to the summit of Mount Hood were shown.
Tonight business girls from all over the city will forget the million worries of the day and join in making business girls' night a huge success. The committee that will have charge of that feature tonight follows:
From the Lico Club of Lippman-Wolfe & Co.—Miss Fregan, Miss Hilda Sturman and Miss Harrison.
From Meier & Frank Company—Miss Bess Young, Miss Vivian Cooley, Miss An Gerden.
From Olds, Wortman & King—Miss Connie Belknap, Miss Blanche Park, Miss Lou Laxon.
From Roberts Bros.—Mrs. Lou Abbott, Miss Bella Danner.
From Holmes Business College—Miss Jane Connor.
From Link's Business College—Miss Lillian Wilkinson.
From the Catholic Women's League—Miss Elizabeth Doyle.

PAIR ACT AS CHILD IS DEAD

Theatrical Couple Carry Roles as Funeral Is Held.

DUQUOIN, Ill., Nov. 4.—While Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Holtman, members of a theatrical troupe, were acting in roles at a matinee, they did so with the knowledge that at the same hour the funeral of their little 8-year-old boy, Billy, was being held at Elgin.
The parents received a message ap-prising them of his death, but were unable to leave the theatre daily, and they enacted their parts unflinchingly, though the mother was on the verge of collapse several times during the performance.

WHAT IS AN INTERNAL BATH?

If you were to ask a dozen people this question probably not one would answer correctly, although half a million Americans are now using it with a marked improvement in health and strength.
The Internal Bath of to-day is no more like the old-fashioned Vacuum Cleaner is like a whisk-broom.
Now, by means of the "J.B.L. Cascade," simple warm water cleanses the Lower Intestine the entire length, removes all the poisonous waste matter therein, and keeps it as clean and pure as nature demands it shall be for perfect health.
You will be astonished at your feelings the morning after taking an Internal Bath by means of the "J.B.L. Cascade." You will feel light, brisk, confident and as though everything is "working right"—and it is.
It absolutely removes Constipation and prevents Auto-Intoxication.
Woodard, Clark & Co.'s Drug Stores in Portland will explain to you, and on request will give you a free book on the subject of an eminent specialist. Ask or send for this free book, which tells the roles of to-day is Only 25¢ Efficient, while you think of it.

WAR CLOSES HONEYMOON

Bride Forced to Leave Mexico Declares She Was in No Danger.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6.—A honeymoon in Mexico lasted just 30 days for Mrs.
Luis C. Penhoel, who has returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. S. B.
Molander, No. 244 Bayless avenue, St.
Paul.
Mrs. Penhoel, with eight American women, was urged to leave the mining town of Nacoaral when warfare and violence threatened.
Mrs. Penhoel said she left at the admonition of her husband, who insisted on providing against an emergency that seemed improbable. She said current impressions in America of the uprisings in Mexico are in many cases without foundation.

"It is difficult for people in the United States to believe that all Mexico had in ruins on account of the war," said Mrs. Penhoel, "but in Nacoaral it was always quiet and peaceful."
"My husband thought I had better come back at this time, however, because there was danger that the railroad might be cut. The town is only 25 miles from Douglas, Ariz. On our way back we had no trouble at all. At one place we had to wait while troops crossed the track, but that is as near to actual fighting as I came in the time I was there."
"Women who lived there for some time and who were in the town when there was fighting, told me that both factions were actually polite. They would inform each other that there was to be a battle, and then the Americans would gather in one house, over which they would hold a white flag.
They would not be harmed, and only panic-stricken. They told me neither faction would harm United States citizens, fearing that the United States would intervene and take the other side."
Far from being alarmed by the trouble in Mexico, Mrs. Penhoel is inquisitive to rejoin her husband. She expects to stay in Minnesota not more than a month. By that time, she believes all danger will be past.

HIGHBALL TEST IS MADE

Waiter Pleads Guilty When Chemist's Analysis Is Produced.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—A highball is a highball when it is a highball, by a teacup or a fern dish, and hotel waiters who dress them up to look like bits of cold tea or mutton broth may as well serve them in the regulation glasses, for highballs have individuality.
City Chemist W. H. Roberts tore the disguises from two highballs purchased by the police from Charles Anderson, Radisson Hotel waiter, Sunday, and did it so effectually that Anderson changed his mind to guilty of a charge of selling liquor on Sunday.
Then, that all who wish may know whether they get highballs when they order them, Mr. Roberts made public the answer to the question, "What is a highball?"
"It is as easy to tell a highball from any other drink as it is to tell a horse from a mule," said Mr. Roberts after Anderson had changed his plea.
"All you have to do is to go about it right."
"How do you know that they were highballs and not just a hodgepodge of liquors?" asked an inquirer.
"By two tests—the test of taste and the test of science," said the city chemist. "If the results of both tests agree, it's a highball."
"It tasted like a highball and then I went to work on the other test. Thus I had all the essential ingredients of the common highball of commerce, including the water." The chemical analysis was given as follows: CASHIO—By volume 11.11 per cent, or by weight 8.69 per cent.
CO2—Sufficient to insure sparkle.
Saccharomyces cerevisiae—A trace.
Extract ginger—Trace.
Extract cinnamon—Trace.
H2O—Sufficient by weight or volume to make 100 per cent.

DIVORCE PLEA IS UNIQUE

Woman Says Cruelty Made Her Lose 30 Pounds.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Weight of plaintiff at time of marriage, 118 pounds.
Weight of plaintiff at time of filing divorce suit, 88 pounds.
Loss of weight due to alleged cruelty of plaintiff's husband, 30 pounds.
This was the unique argument used by Amelia E. Heath in filing suit yesterday in District Supreme Court for limited divorce from Clifford C. Heath, an employe of the Patent Office, said to receive a salary of $75 a month.
"At the time of marriage," reads the petition, "the plaintiff weighed 118 pounds, but the cruel treatment to which she had been subjected and the distress and anguish of mind occasioned thereby have so reduced the plaintiff physically that she now weighs 88
pounds."
The couple were married here December 17, 1913, and have no children. The wife says her husband deserted her October 19, 1915. She requests permanent alimony. Edward L. Glen is her attorney.

PUBLIC IS HELD TO BLAME

Overworking Girls Laid to Continual Demand for Quick Work.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 7.—That most new hats ordered Wednesday, Thursday or Friday are expected to be delivered by Saturday night was given by Dr. Susan Kingsbury, of Bryn Mawr College, in an address to the National Consumers' League convention as one of the chief reasons why girls employed in the "needle trades," millinery and dressmaking, often are overworked and made to work long hours.
"The public is responsible for conditions prevailing in trades which have short seasons and long weeks of work during busy seasons," said Dr. Kingsbury.
"Women and members of the Consumers' League, especially, should order their clothing, hats and other necessaries in advance, so as to keep the industries they patronize in operation steadily throughout the year. Learn to do not only your Christmas shopping, but all your shopping, early."

PARDONS TO BE OFFERED

Texas Governor to Help Friendless Who Cannot Ask for Freedom.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 4.—How many friendless convicts there are in the state penitentiary who are worthy of being pardoned no one knows. Governor James E. Ferguson says he purposes to find out and to apply his pardoning power to all who have good records and are entitled to the favor of their respective states.
The total population of the state prison is about 2800, men and women.
Thousands of these submerged people have no friends outside of the prison walls to intercede in their behalf, no matter how good and model prisoners they may have been.
It has been amply proved in the past that the convict who has friends or money can obtain a pardon without much difficulty. There are many lawyers in the state who make a specialty of obtaining the pardons of convicts for a stipulated fee in each case.
They appear before Governor Ferguson and the Pardon Board and submit a brief covering of the case, together with a signed petition requesting the person's pardon. If the convict's record in prison is good it is usual for the pardon to be issued.
It is the friendless element who have no money to employ lawyers that Governor Ferguson now wants to reach.
He recently announced that he will issue pardons soon for 160 men and women of this class and that others will be freed as rapidly as the Board of Pardons can personally visit the prison and convict farms and hear the individual cases.
Governor Ferguson is deeply interested in placing the state penitentiary system on a higher plane and better financial basis. He believes that more of the convicts should be employed in outdoor labor than has been the custom heretofore.
With this end in view he recently

BOY, 14, GOES TO COLLEGE

Lad Prepared for Entry by His Own Mother.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 4.—The 14-year-old son of Professor E. A. Ross, of the University of Wisconsin, is the youngest ever entered in the Badger University.
Young Ross is fond of all sports, and plays tennis and football well. He is entered in the college of letters and science as a freshman. He is especially good in mathematics and has a leaning toward foreign languages. Because he speaks the South American countries will have an influence on the United States in the future, he is taking up Spanish. He also studies German.
The young man received his early training at home, instead of going to school. He spent the hours daily under the tutelage of his mother. The rest of the time he spent in playing.
