Workers Busy in War Zone.

"Other thousands of Salvationists are engaged in relief operations. It is probably not generally known, but we have a large variety of relief agencies in operation, both at the front and in the belligerent countries. The echo of the first shots of the war had scarcely died before our General my eldest died before our General, my cldest brother, had offered the British mili-tary authorities our relief institutions in Great Britain for whatever purposes they chose to use them. Our command-ing officer in Germany made the same offer to the German authorities. In Ing officer in Germany made the same offer to the German authorities; in both cases the offer was gratefully ac-cepted, and many of our buildings in these countries, as well as in France, italy and Builgaria, have since been employed as hospitals." With feet imbedded in mud and body almost erect, though the face was in the water, which was but three feet deep at the spot, the body of a man supposed to be Edward Swanson, of Newcastle, Wash, was discovered by City Grappler Brady yesterday morn-ing in a pool of water beneath the Broadway bridge and between Albers docks Nos. 1 and 2. From his position the man is supposed to have jumped into the water with subridal intent. Lack of money was not the cause of suicide, thinks Deputy Coroner Smith, as the man was well dressed and had $30.10 in the pockets of his clothing. He
