LOCAL TENOR "ARRIVES"
W. E. CROSBY MAKES GOOD WITH SARI LIGHT OPERA COMPANY.
Former Grocery Clerk Gets Opportunity at Pittsburg Through Lending Man's Illness.
—W. E. Crosby, the Portland grocery clerk whose tenor voice carried him into near-stardom in light opera in a single night in Portland last June, has made good in the East, and the good luck sign has been stamped on him by the Pittsburg audiences.
—Mr. Crosby, whose home is at 1103 Hawthorne avenue, laterally was rushed to a contract by the manager of the Sari Light Opera Company, when it played at the Hellig Theater last June. Mr. Crosby was trying out at the Empress one amateur night, and P. J. McGittigan, then with the Empress Theater, called attention of the Sari manager to the young tenor. Mr. McGittigan previously had noted him through comment made by patrons of the grocery store where Crosby worked with his father.
—Mr. Crosby joined the Sari company in Portland as understudy to the leading tenor, who played the role of Lancel. By working in the chorus he took his lessons in the art of acting, and at Pittsburg several days ago, when the leading tenor suddenly fell ill, Mr. Crosby was called to the part. He made such a hit with the Nixon Theater audience that he is still playing it.
—"I am having success," writes Mr. Crosby, "and from indications I will get something big for next season."

Junction City Bank Gets Power.
JUNCTION CITY, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special)—The First National Bank has received notification from Claud Hatch, vice-president of the Federal Reserve Bank at San Francisco, that it has been granted the power of a trust company. The act provides for the formation by each bank given this commission of a trust department to handle the new business. By reorganization of this bank, which has been united with the Federal system since 1912, a distinct tribute has been shown it, as only a few banks have been granted this authority in the state, the first being a Pendleton bank.
