After all this happened the god of rain then came on the areas, with the result that the collegians made but one touchdown in the second quarter. The ball became too alippery for proper propelling, and it was with difficulty that the players managed to hang on to the spheroid at all. Neither aggregation attempted many straight-line plays, but both reserted to open work continually.

Coach Lewsy's Franklinites still had that ald fight which has characterized them throughout the season. This is the first year in fast company and the time is still far distant when they will be able to score at least one point in the Portland Interactionatic League. Fragikin did not have a chance to show outer when it wasn't raining yeslerday, for the collegians were in possession of the ball all the time during the first camb.

Franklin Displays Spirit.

There were no particular imminaries for either wide, for every athlete was en his form all the time. Not once was there any signs of rough work, and the efficials had an easy time handling the contest. Franklin followers estimated the collegians four to one, and yell Director Gallard, for the "Babes," had his collegians working overtime. had his colleagues working overtime, although the score was going against them faster as each minute flew by.
