New Battle Cruiser Due Soon. All the ways of the Walker yards are occupied by war vessels of various kinds. Among them is a battle cruiser which in point of speed and armament far excels any that has yet been floated. She contains many formidable new features, and in addition represents perhaps the most remarkable feat of accelerated ship construction that has ever been accomplished. Hre designs were only secided on in January, she is now ready for launching, and all her guns, rengines and other equipment are waiting for her.
