

GIRL LOSES FAITH IN 'BIGAMIST' HUSBAND

Confession of Schiffbauer Tends to Explain Flight but Not Escape Attempt.

RENO RETURNS FUGITIVE

Suspect Declares He Believed Wife No. 1 Had Filed Divorce Action and That He Acted in Good Faith Towards No. 2.

"Most assuredly, I will not believe his story."

This was the emphatic assertion of Miss Eleanor McAllister, wife No. 2 of Robert Schiffbauer, when informed yesterday morning that her illegal husband had been returned from Reno to face a bigamy charge, and had pleaded good faith.

Three weeks ago, and about 78 days after his marriage to Miss McAllister, Schiffbauer fled to Reno, leaving no money or provision for the girl he left behind, and so wretched of where he was going. He was arrested by Reno authorities and brought back to Portland yesterday morning by City Detective Swanson.

Confession in Freely Given.

The story told by Schiffbauer to Deputy District Attorney Deich yesterday morning explains nearly everything in some degree, except the reason for leaving no money or explanation with his wife. His apparent willingness to return with the detective did not take into consideration the reason that he had a wife, Clara Schiffbauer, in Los Angeles at the time he married Miss McAllister, and also admitted his intimacy with Mrs. Minnie Spaulding in his own home.

Divorce Information Assented.

The accused man maintained yesterday that he married Miss McAllister under the impression that his Los Angeles wife had obtained a divorce from him three years ago. He says he telegraphed her before his second marriage inquiring about this but received no reply, until a letter, which arrived after the ceremony with Miss McAllister. He then went to Reno to file divorce papers himself, he said. He was married the first time in Chicago, March 17, 1910. The second marriage was performed by Dr. W. E. Hmann in Portland on October 23 of this year.

Schiffbauer asserts that he telegraphed his first wife to come to him at Reno but that she answered that she could not, but had filed papers in Los Angeles. The police say that Schiffbauer does not care to consent to the divorce without a money settlement in his favor, which Mrs. Schiffbauer is unwilling to make.

Threat on Wife Revoked.

Miss McAllister in 17 years old. Her faith in Schiffbauer has been shattered, not only because of his desertion but because of his relations with Mrs. Spaulding, which she had not known when she married him. Knowledge of Schiffbauer's first marriage came to light through Mrs. Spaulding, who gave the information to the police after she had been married, through jealousy of the girl he married. She even appeared at the home of the girl-wife and threatened her life, according to reports in a case later dismissed in Municipal Court.

Schiffbauer waived preliminary examination before Municipal Judge Swanson yesterday and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in Just a Few Moments.

25-Cent "Danderine" Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be that a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knoviton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and you are sure to get it as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

and make factory site and to dredge out Columbia Slough. Several have signified their willingness, but the larger owners are yet to be seen.

The filling of the Union avenue and Derby street approaches to the Interstate bridge has demonstrated what can be done toward making a general fill of the main portion of this territory. If the owners will co-operate an organization will be effected which will take up the development of the Columbia Slough district.

OFFERING IS FOR POOR

PRESBYTERIANS TO HOLD UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Collection Will Be on Behalf of Men's Resort, Which Cares for Needy and Conducts Farm.

Every dime and dollar in the collection plate at the Thanksgiving day service on Thursday morning at 10:20 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian Church will be set aside for the benefit of the Men's Resort, the home of the homeless, the embryo of the men who are without friends in the city.

The Men's Resort, situated at Fourth and Burnside streets, cares for hundreds of men every week. In addition to conducting a reading-room, supplying clean, comfortable sleeping places and other attractions, lectures, musicals and kindred entertainment for the men, a farm is maintained where men out of employment are given work and a place to live.

East and West side churches are joining in one large central meeting, in which six pastors will participate. The quartet of the First Church will sing two special numbers and will lead the large congregation in the singing of Thanksgiving hymns. It is planned to make this one of the most impressive services of this nature which has ever been held in Portland. All strangers or visitors will be heartily welcomed to share in this Thanksgiving hour.

COUCH SCHOOL INSPECTED

Programme of Addresses and Music Given on Patrons' Night.

With a programme of addresses and music and a general inspection of various departments, patrons' night at the new Couch School was observed last night. Several school officials gave brief addresses. Miss Nita Greathouse gave a reading and Miss Julia Platt and Albert K. Brown sang. Music was also furnished by an orchestra.

Following the programme the building was thrown open for inspection, and the patrons visited the various rooms. First Church two months ago in session in order that they might gain some idea of the work which is being done.

The visitors also had an opportunity to view the 60 art pictures which are being shown in the art exhibit in the auditorium of the school.

LODGE AWARDED TURKEYS

Multnomah Camp of Woodmen is Completing Membership Campaign.

Clerk Wilson, of Multnomah Camp, No. 77, Woodmen of the World, has completed the delivery of 263 turkeys by tonight to those of the members who brought an application for a new member the past week. Delivery of the turkeys started yesterday and will be finished today.

Last week the camp offered a turkey for every new application, with the result that 263 came in. This puts the camp over the 2000 membership mark, which makes it the largest camp in the Pacific Coast jurisdiction, and ahead of the San Francisco camp, which has 2000 members. The membership stands at 2500, but 2000 has been reached.

TURKEY RUSH DUE TODAY

Retail Prices Are Ranging From 25 to 50 Cents in Portland.

Retail dealers reported a fair demand for Thanksgiving turkeys yesterday, and expect a much larger trade today. The supply is believed to be ample for all requirements.

The price generally asked was 25 cents, but a few of the retailers set their prices at 27 to 30 cents, as the birds cost them more than they thought would be the case. Dressed turkeys were abundant and were offered for sale at 15 to 20 cents. Chickens also were plentiful and could be had for 15 to 20 cents a pound. Front-street commission men received a number of belated shipments of dressed turkeys from Valley points, and although the wholesale price was

FOUNTAIN MAY BE MOVED

Only Statuary Parts Would Be Brought to Portland.

Although there is no certainty about it yet, Portland will get the Fountain of Earth from the Panama-Pacific Exposition if it is possible to move it here for installation at one of the Portland parks. This information was brought back yesterday by Park Superintendent Conville on his return from his vacation in California.

He has applied for the fountain, and the request is under advisement by the exposition officials. Mr. Conville says if the fountain is moved it will be only the statuary parts. The base will be constructed here in Portland.
