Clubwomen are expressing an interest in the approaching visit of Dr. Maria Mentecorri, who will be in Pertland December 1, when she will give a secture in the Masonic Tempis. A committee of clubwomen and educators headed by Mrs. G. J. Frankel, Mrs. Adeline Alvord and Miss Gertrade Talbot, will be spensors for the lecture. Mine, Montecorri is known all over the world, and curiosity as well as interest doubtless will prompt many to see this wonderful woman. When Mrs. Senno seems to have solved the world advocates "Natural Education," as she calls it, was here she criticised the wonders, however, is an argument in its favor. A long list of prominent Porticianders will serve as patrons of the book. She is active, mentally alert and seem. She has clear and sparkling frown eyes and rosy cheeks. Her teeth are small and white. She is not only simple to her dress and home life, but in her traveling. She invariably rides third-class when on missions connected with her bank. She rarely goes out except when called by business.
