Auto Parade on Highway Arranged for Tomorrow. $1000 EXPECTED IN DAY

Memorial to Pioneers at Crown Point Proposed and Great Attendance Is Desired.

The Vista House Association has put in an order for fair weather tomorrow, because at that time the largest number of automobiles will go over the Columbia Highway that has made the trip since the hard-surfacing work began.

On this occasion the association hopes to add a long list of names to its builders' book and to raise more than $1000 toward the erection of the big rest house at Crown Point, which is to be a

Public Defender's Faith in Beggars Is Justified

Attorney Wins Wager With Prosecutor by Following Solicitor to See Where Dime Is Spent.

THAT all "handshakers" do not spend their begged earnings in purchasing real estate or supporting unions, as is popularly rumored, was proved yesterday to the satisfaction of five city officials, and Public Defender Robinson is five cents richer.

At a meeting of the directors of the East Side Business Men's Club yesterday at the clubroom, 163 Grand avenue, the first action was taken to ask J. W. Mulkey, retiring president of the dock commission, to reconsider his announcement of retiring from that place.

TRIO FACE NEW CHARGES

Holdup Suspects May Be Sent to Hillsboro for Burglary Trial.

Positive identification as men who have conducted recent hold-ups in Portland falling, though the police are certain they have the culprits, Jack Carter, Earl Braun and James Sullivan, ex-convicts who were arrested early Thursday morning, probably will be sent to Hillsboro today to stand trial for burglary.

Goods, including 30 pairs of shoes, three overcoats and several suits of clothes, taken from the Mayers Bros. mercantile store at North Plains, November 21, found at the shack where the men were sleeping, have been identified.

HEILIG RECITAL IS SUNDAY

Mrs. Beatrice Dierke, Pianist, Is to Present Programme.

At the Heilig Theater tomorrow at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Beatrice Dierke, pianist, will appear in her first public recital for many months, and the event is of such unusual musical importance that it is expected the recital will be largely attended.

The programme will consist of selections from the works of Chopin, Debussy, Rachmaninoff, Liszt, Mendelssohn, Tchaikowsky, Wagner and MacDowell.
