Haunting Hawaiian Melodies recorded for the Grafonola

Columbia Records that really convey the strange fascination of Hawaiian music, and the romantic atmosphere of the South Sea Islands.

The plaintive minor wail of soft female voices against the rich choral background of deep-throated male singers in COLUMBIA DOUBLE DISC RECORD NO. A 1616-75c.

"ALOHA OE"

sung by Toots Paka Hawaiian Company will thrill even those who have never visited Stevenson's beloved "Isle of Dreams," nor heard the distance-softened chorus floating faintly over the waters on velvet-dark Hawaiian nights.

"The Hawaiian Medley" on the reverse of this record is an odd blending of the wild melancholy and still wilder merriment of Hawaiian instrumental music. No one can remain unresponsive to the all-but-human notes of the South Sea guitar, or the rhythmic throbbing of the ukulele—the appeal of Hawaiian music is well-nigh universal.

For a novel "Musical Evening in the South Sea Islands," your dealer will be glad to make suggestions from among the many Columbia records listed in the special Hawaiian catalog. Hear "Kamawee," the original Hula dance, and others, by the same inimitable company of Hawaiian musicians.

Party Success and Convention on Coast Are Mark.

REPORTS ARE OPTIMISTIC

Republican Committees Are to Work Out Details of Meeting and Decide on City in Which It Is to Be Held Later.

Republican National committeemen of the Pacific Coast, who will attend the meeting of the National committee at Washington, D. C., December 14, are united in the consideration of two things—that of joining in a strong movement for a big Republican victory next year and that of pulling, tooth and nail, for San Francisco as the meeting place of the next National convention.

The Republican party of the Pacific Coast will be represented at the meeting by leaders of the party in the several states. Oregon will be represented by Ralph E. Williams, of Portland; Washington by S. A. Perkins, of Tacoma; California by Colonel Phil A. Stanton, of Los Angeles. The committeemen of the other Western states also will have reports of a reassuring nature at the meeting.

sets to be discussed will be the apportionment of delegates to the convention. The meeting will recognize all delegates elected in the various states since the last convention. Harmony will be the keynote of the meeting and the prospects are that it will be one of the largest pre-convention gatherings held in many years.

Committees to Work Out Details. Mr. Williams, accompanied by Mrs. Williams, will leave for the East Sunday night. After remaining at Chicago a few days he will go on to New York, where he will confer with Republican leaders. A number of committee meetings will be held in New York, when various phases of the situation will be discussed.

'VICTIM' DECIDES TOO LATE

Court Frees Fred Wilson Because Positive Identification Is Belated. Fred Wilson gained his liberty and exoneration from the charge of assault and robbery by violence because T. H. Jacobson didn't make up his mind quick enough. He met a policeman, told him about it and pointed out Wilson as his assistant. But he wasn't positive.

Three hours later, Jacobson testified yesterday in Circuit Judge Gantenbein's court, he met another policeman and pointed out Wilson. This time he was sure, he said. Wilson was indicted and his case went before the jury yesterday. But when the taking of testimony was concluded, Judge Gantenbein halted the proceedings and instructed the jury to bring in a verdict acquitting Wilson, because Jacobson hadn't made up his mind instantly that Wilson was the man.

EAST SIDE CLUB ARRANGING TO INSPECT LIVESTOCK.

Automobiles Will Be Donated to Carry Business Men to Displays at Peninsula Plant.

The East Side Business Men's Club plans to take 250 people to the Livestock Show at the Union Meat Company plant on the Peninsula Monday, according to the arrangements made yesterday at the meeting of the special committee. F. B. Egan, chairman, outlined the plan to leave the clubrooms at 1:15 Monday in automobiles and arrive at the show before 2 o'clock.

panies had agreed to lend machines. Mr. Egan pointed out the vast importance of the livestock show and what it means for Portland and the Northwest.

"It is the duty of every business man on the East side, and resident, for that matter, to visit the stockyards next Monday, and this will be the opportunity to do so," said Mr. Egan. "Everyone will have an opportunity to see this big plant and the fine stock without cost and at expense of little time. There will be ample transportation facilities to take all who want to attend by being at the clubrooms, to attend by being at the clubrooms, to attend by being at the clubrooms, to attend by being at the clubrooms."

Assistant Secretary Miller today will send out invitation cards to all members of the club, asking them to return the cards, showing how many will attend. Returns postal cards will be sent. The committee desires to get a line approximately on how many may be expected to go on the trip.

Members are asked to return the cards with the information immediately. "This is going to be the best livestock show given here," said Yardmaster Downs, of the Southern Pacific, "and today three carloads of fine stock passed through the East side yards on the way to the stockyards for this show."

Woman Balks Intruder.

"Do the Phillips live here?" a tall, slender man of about 35 years, clad in long, dark overcoat and black soft hat, inquired of Mrs. D. J. Higgins, at her home, 2086 East Taylor street, yesterday, and when she replied that they did not, he tried to force his way into the house. Mrs. Higgins slammed the door to, with some effort, and telephoned to the police.
