Say: this is the best show of stock ever brought together in the Northwest—the best by long odds. Not only the greatest in number, but by far the best in quality. You ought to see the smile on the face of W. H. Daughtry and look into the laughing eyes of O. M. Plummer. Why. their countenances both speak of Success, spelled with a large S. Many of the animals on exhibition were shown recently at the great Panwar-Pacific show in San Francisco.
