

RAIL TRADE HEAVY

Wheat-Buying is Nearly All for Shipment East.

CANAL BLOCKADE IS CAUSE

At Least Eight Carloads of Northwestern Grain Sold for Exportation From Atlantic Ports to Europe.

If it were not for the Eastern outlet there would be practically nothing doing in the Northwestern wheat market these days.

It is known that at least eight carloads of Northwestern wheat have been bought in the interior in being shipped by rail as promptly as possible to the Atlantic seaboard or to hold for shipment later.

It is known that at least eight carloads of Northwestern wheat have been bought in the interior in being shipped by rail as promptly as possible to the Atlantic seaboard or to hold for shipment later.

At the Northwest Exchange session December white wheat bids were unchanged, but January fortyfold bids were 1/2 cent higher and January thirtysix bids were 1/2 cent lower.

DEMAND FOR ORANGES IS HEAVY

Consumption Never Larger at This Time of Year.

Front-street dealers are surprised at the large quantity of oranges at the present time. They attribute the heavy demand not only to the good color and flavor of the oranges now coming in, but also to the seasonable price.

BOXED APPLE HOLDINGS SMALLER

Storage Stocks Nearly Two Millions Less Than Last Year.

The report of the International Apple Shippers' Association has just been made public. The total storage holdings of boxed and banded fruit in the United States in storage as December were 3,838,000 barrels, as compared with 5,838,000 barrels on December 1, 1914, an increase of 200,000 barrels.

FACTS

Passenger fares have been reduced twenty-five per cent and freight rates fifty per cent since the paving of the Linton road. This alone, it is asserted by competent authority, will pay for the cost of improvement of this highway in two years. Of course, owing to the heavy traffic on this road this dividend is large, but all roads proportionately show as great returns if hard-surfaced with the peer of pavements.
