Members of the board said that Washington in advocating the fresh-man rule had announced that it would compute with no school which did not har freshmen from intercollegiate activities, and the action of the schools east of the mountains in refusing to sanction the freshman rule made sevrance of relations necessary.

The board's action leaves the University of California, the University of California, the University of Cocgon and Oregon Agricultural College the only Western schools in good standing with the University of Wash-

In an attempt to get the School Board to reconsider its action, taken Decem-ber 2, when it granted the Washington High School chamber or commerce per-mission to sell books and stationery to students on the co-operative plan, several Portland merchants and druggists appeared before the Board at its regular meeting yesterday. The question was referred to a meeting of the committee on supplies.

E. M. Orth. representing the petitioners, declared that the merchants have rights and that the students in selling rights and that the students in setting books and supplies were infringing upon those rights.

"It is unjust discrimination," he declared, "for the merchant must payrent and cierk hire and has other expenses while the students who fit up their establishment at the school are free from that."

He declared that if one school were permitted to have the book store the final result would be that it would apread to various other schools of the Director Lockwood declared that the school system should not be exploited for the benefit of any particular kind of merchant or for any class and that
