CAMP TO INITIATE BIG CLASS.—Multnomah Camp, No. 77, Woodmen of the World, will hold a special meeting at the hall on East Sixth street tonight to initiate a large class of applicants who cannot come at the regular meeting Friday night. Clerk Wilson reports about 400 to be taken into the camp before January 1. The actual membership of the camp is given at 2904, but with the applicants all initiated there will be about 3200 members, putting the camp at the top so far as membership is concerned in the Pacific jurisdiction. Arrangements are being made for a banquet for all those who brought in an application to be held at the Multnomah Hotel on January 12. The building committee is at work investigating the building project and a report is expected after the first of the year.

SELLWOOD SUNDAY SCHOOL TO HOLD ENTERTAINMENT.—The annual Christmas Sunday school entertainment of the Sellwood Methodist Church will be held tonight at the church at 7:30 o'clock. The primary department will be represented by Lois German, Bennie Cochrane, Lois Beal, Katherine White, Sunny Eliza Huff, Lucile Schultz, Elton Strahorn, Pauline Jones, Annie L. Griffith, William Lehman and Helen Hill. Mrs. Reed's class will give a drill and there will be exercises by other classes. For the main Sunday school a chorus of girls will sing carols, Mrs. C. A. Miller's class will give a dialogue and the other large classes will take part in the programme.

FAIRVIEW CHRISTMAS EXERCISES TONIGHT.—Christmas exercises will be held tonight at the Fairview Methodist Episcopal Church at 8 o'clock. All wishing to do so can place presents on the tree. It is desired to have all presents early this afternoon at the church so they may be placed on the tree early this evening. Christmas exercises will be held tomorrow afternoon by the primary grade of the Fairview school at 2 o'clock. A short session of the Fairview Parent-Teacher Association will follow the programme at the schoolhouse.

DESPONDENT MAN TAKES GAS.—John Swanson, 31, was found dead in his room at 511 Everett street at 9 o'clock last night with his face resting on an open gas jet. Swanson had been despondent since his partner in a fishing venture became insane and the partnership property was placed under the care of the courts. Swanson had postal savings receipts for $200 in his pocket. He is survived by a sister, Freida Swanson, 522 Tillamook street, and a brother, Alvin Swanson, 511½ Gilsan street.

THIEVES ROB CHICKEN RAISER.—Chicken thieves are robbing Milan Krstich of his livelihood, according to his report to Patrolman McCulloch yesterday. Krstich, who lives at 345 North Fourteenth street, said that 24 chickens were stolen from his yard on the night of December 13 and 15 more Tuesday night. He has but 17 chickens left, he said, and they are not laying heavily enough to keep him from the prospect of starvation. He has no employment but chicken raising.

TROUTDALE CHAPTER ELECTS.—Troutdale Chapter, Order Eastern Star, has elected the following officers for the year: Worthy matron, Janet Grant; worthy patron, William Sales; associate matron, Laura D. Hamon; secretary, Margaret McKay; treasurer, C. F. Wilson; conductor, Lulu Mickley; assistant conductor, Salena Fox. A joint installation will be held with Fairview Lodge, A. F. and A. M., next Monday night.

L. H. AMOS IS IMPROVING.—Although still in a critical condition, L. H. Amos, who is at the Portland Surgical Hospital following an operation for appendicitis Saturday, showed a slight improvement yesterday. He is 74 years old and the recuperation from the operation is slow, but Mr. Amos has shown remarkable vitality.

FIRST UNITED BRETHREN CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.—Christmas exercises will be held tonight at the First United Brethren Church, East Fifteenth and East Morrison streets, which will be given by the Sunday school children. The children and others may bring donations which will be distributed to needy families before Christmas.

H. H. GUNMAN HERE.—H. H. George, physical director of the Eugene Y. M. C. A., is in Portland for the holidays to study the methods of the Portland association. He expects to hold several conferences with A. M. Grilley on physical department problems at Eugene.

R. L. DURHAM IS VERY LOW.—Hope for the ultimate recovery of R. L. Durham, ex-president of the Merchants National Bank, who is critically ill at his home at Riverdale, has been abandoned, it was reported yesterday. He is 84 years old. Dr. Noble Wiley Jones is in attendance.

CHURCH TO PRESENT CANTATA.—Mrs. G. Olson, of the Pioneer Methodist Church, of St. Johns, has written a Christmas cantata, which will be presented on Friday night, December 24. It requires the help of 25 pupils of the Sunday school.

EXTENSION OF EAST BURNSIDE STREET ROUTED.—Proceedings for the opening of East Burnside street from East Forty-fourth to East Fifty-fifth street has been advanced to that point where the City Engineer has made his report on the surveys made and the route selected. Also East Burnside street will be widened from Gilham avenue to East Sixty-ninth street and to a connection with Thorborn avenue on the north side of Mount Tabor. Extension of East Burnside street has been agitated for the past five years. There has been little opposition, but there has been difference of opinion as to the route, for the street will pass through some acreage property and some buildings may have to be moved. It is considered important that East Burnside street should be opened to Mount Tabor, where it will connect with East Stark street and the Base Line road and divert some of the country travel over East Burnside street and the Burnside bridge.

CHRISTMAS PARTY TONIGHT.—The Rose City Park Sunday school, East Forty-fifth and Hancock streets, will hold a Christmas party today. The beginners and primary departments will be entertained in the afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. All other members of the school will participate in the evening party, beginning at 7:30, the principal feature of which will be the cantata, "Mother Goose's Visit to Santa Claus," put on by members of the school.

SLIDE BLOCKS HIGHWAY.—Forty men were dispatched yesterday by Roadmaster Yeon to a point near the Auto Club bridge, on the Columbia Highway, to clear away a big slide that the rains brought down. The Highway was blocked for most of yesterday, but will be cleared some time today. Other slides were reported, but this was the most serious.

AUTOMOBILE BREAKS MAN'S ARM.—John Dittmar, 971 East Taylor street, received a broken arm Tuesday night by being knocked down by an automobile driven by Ralph Shelton at Second and Morrison streets. Dittmar was taken to the Emergency Hospital and attended by City Physician Ziegler. Mr. Shelton lives at 347 Market street.

COMEDIAN WILL PUT ON TRYOUT ACTS.

Billy Link.

A splendid list of professional "tryout" acts has been arranged to appear at the Empress Theater tonight. Comedy, singing, dancing and music will be included in the entertainment. The "tryout" acts will include Billy Lyle, a young man and the possessor of an exceptionally fine baritone voice. His offering will consist of popular songs and funny stories.

The Watson sisters are two clever juvenile entertainers, and will offer dances of all nations with change of costume for each number. Fred Bauer, better known as "Portland's favorite tenor," will render a number of popular songs. The Wangeman brothers will offer a pleasing instrumental and singing act. The "tryout" numbers will follow the last act on the second show.

Billy Link, the popular blackface comedian on the Empress bill this week, will introduce the new acts.

BIG DINNER NEAR READY

STEAMER HASSALO DECORATED FOR FEAST TO UNEMPLOYED.

Music, Singing and Speaking Will Go With Free Christmas Feed, and Hundreds Can Be Handled.

The steamer Hassalo, moored at the Ash-street dock, will be the scene Saturday of the fourth annual Christmas dinner given by the O.-W. R. & N. Company to the unemployed and "down-and-out" men, and preparations are already in progress for the event. The boat is being given a touch of holiday cheer by decorations of greenery, and the arrangements for the big dinner which is to be served have all been made.

Last year about 1400 men were fed at the dinner given by the company, and preparations are being made to handle at least that number this year.

The dinner will begin at 11 A. M., and the exercises will last until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. In addition to the feast there will be addresses and music. Bishop R. J. Cooke, of the Methodist Church; Archbishop Christie and Rev. John H. Boyd will address the men. Music will also be furnished by the Ad Club quartet. The singing in unison of some of the old songs will also be a feature.

Invitations to the dinner are being issued through the Salvation Army, the Commons Mission and the Men's Resort.

Included in the menu for the occasion is roast and boiled beef and pork, all sorts of vegetables, plum pudding, mince and pumpkin pies.

A committee consisting of about 40 members of the O.-W. R. & N. Company Employes' Club will have charge of the reception of the guests. This includes men from the offices, shops and freight sheds of the company.

Lineal Descendants Choose Colonial Silverware.

Wedding of Miss Zola Hitchcock and Frank Stinson Gannet Tonight Will Unite Old Families.

A BIT of interesting romance, connected with the marriage of Miss Zola Hitchcock to Frank Stinson Gannett tonight, came to light yesterday.

The prospective bride and bridegroom have chosen as the design for their household silverware the Mary Chilton pattern. That fact perhaps would pass unnoticed if given but superficial attention, for that particular pattern of silverware is plainly colonial, rich in its simplicity and is popular with brides.

But here lies the romance: Mr. Gannett is a direct descendant of that very Mary Chilton for whom the silverware that they are buying was named and who was the first European woman to set foot on American soil, being the first woman to land from the Mayflower in 1620.

And that is not all. For Miss Hitchcock, the bride-to-be, is a lineal descendant of John Alden, another of the Mayflower's passengers.

So when the Gannett household is established in Salem, where the couple will live, and the silverware of colonial design graces their table, the real colonial spirit will emanate from those pieces of silver, the pattern of which Mr. Gannett has chosen because of its intimate association with his distinguished ancestor.

GARAGE OWNERS ARE SUED

C. A. Perman Alleges Fraud in Sale of Half Interest.

Carl A. Perman asks the Circuit Court, in a suit filed yesterday, for a restraining order to keep intact the garage and appurtenances at 505 Alder street until the dispute set out in the suit can be adjudicated by the court.

Perman bought for $650 a half interest in the garage from J. M. Morrison, who, with H. Ainscough, owned the plant, valued by them at $1800, according to the complaint. Perman, who confesses that he knew nothing about the garage repair and general business, alleges he was defrauded by the owners of the garage.

He sues for the recovery of his money on the ground that the transaction was based upon misrepresentations.

CONTRACTORS TO GET PAY

County Commissioners Order Funds Held Back Paid.

Under an order made by the County Commissioners yesterday, contractors who have money coming from the county but which has been held back until the work has been completed will now be paid a part of the amounts due.

The Board always holds back 20 per cent of the money on all contracts with the county for road and bridge construction until a year after the work has been completed as guaranty.

Some $100,000 will be paid out under the order.

Ad Men Honor Christmas.

Although the speaker of the day was unable to be present at the Ad Club luncheon yesterday, at the Multnomah, the admen celebrated Christmas just the same, by lining up and pledging their ardent support for the Muts in the remainder of their Christmas relief campaign.

Impromptu speeches were called for and everyone had a chance to give his views on the Christmas spirit. Edgar S. Higgins acted as chairman of the day. Dom Zan sang and the Ad Club quartet gave several selections.

It was decided that, for the sake of more goodfellowship, the members of the club should be known hereafter by their first names among their fellow members.
