More than 350,000,000 tons are hauled over rural roads in the United States each year at an average cost of 23 cents per ton per mile. The average haul is about eight miles, making our annual bill for hauling over the public roads mearly $650,000,000. The cest per ton-mile for hauling on hard-surfaced roads does not exceed 13 cents, effecting a exceed 13 cents, effecting a saving of 10 cents per ton on this enormous traffic. Not only is this great economic waste conserved, but the road is ready for use at any time if hard-surfaced with

Warren Brothers Company, Journal Building, Portland, Oregon.

Williamette Valley the Williamette River at Willamette Valley the Willamette River at Portland rose rapidly during the 24 hours ended at 8 A. M. today. The rate of rise during that 24-hour period was 2½ inches per hour. At 4 P. M. the river stage was 12-4 feet, a rise of one foot in eight hours, and as mountain streams are failing rapidly, it is expected that the rise at Portland will be slow Thursday and that the river will remain nearly stationary Friday and fall rapidly Saturday.
