

POLITICIANS ARE INDICTED FOR PLOT

Member and ex-Member of Congress, ex-Attorney-General of Ohio, Involved.

STRIKE MOVES CHARGED

Inclusion of Frank S. Monnett In Scussation of Day—David Lamar, "Wolf of Wall Street," Reputed Paymaster.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Eight men, including a Representative in Congress and an ex-Attorney-General of Ohio, were indicted today by a Federal grand jury on a charge of conspiring to foment strikes in American munitions factories as part of a campaign conducted by the German government to bring about the termination of munitions to the entente allies.

The men indicted were Representative Buchanan, of Illinois; ex-Representative Fowler, of Illinois; Frank S. Monnett, ex-Attorney-General of Ohio; H. B. Martin, Herman Schultze, Franz von Rintelen, David Lamar and Jacob C. Taylor.

Men "Working for Peace"

All of the men, except Von Rintelen and Lamar, are officers or ex-officers of Labor's National Peace Council. The government charged that this organization was financed by Franz von Rintelen, a German agent, to instigate strikes in munitions plants which are actively working in the interests of international peace.

Von Rintelen at present is a prisoner of war in England. Lamar, "Wolf of Wall Street," is said to have been his paymaster.

No warrants were issued for the arrest of any of the indicted men, as District Attorney Marshall said that he had reason to believe most of the defendants would appear voluntarily to enter pleas.

None of the men live in New York. The majority live either in Chicago or Washington, and are expected to appear tomorrow before United States commissioners in those cities to give bonds for their appearance in court here.

Monnett's Indictment In Scussation

The indictment of Monnett was the sensation of the grand jury proceedings. The bills against his seven co-defendants had been predicted for several weeks, but Monnett's name had not been mentioned. According to official sources, Monnett, Fowler, Buchanan and Lamar were indicted as the leaders in the alleged conspiracy. Von Rintelen was the financier and Lamar the paymaster, while Schultze, Martin and Taylor were accused of doing the actual work of attempting to bribe munition laborers.

Schultze and Martin are well-known Bohemians. Both were connected with the Anti-Trust League, and are said to have been business assistants of Lamar. Taylor is a labor leader in New Jersey.

IMMUNITY IS INSISTED ON

Buchanan Wants Freedom to Press Impeachment of Prosecutor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—When Representative Buchanan heard of his indictment in New York today on charges in connection with the activities of Labor's National Peace Council, he said that if he enjoyed any Congressional immunity from arrest, he intended to insist on it, that he might be free to press his impeachment charges against United States Attorney Marshall, of New York, who is leading in the House Judiciary committee.

"I don't know what they charge me with," he said, "and I have done nothing which I regard as anything but what is the opportunity. I have been working for peace. That is all."

MONNETT DENIES KNOWLEDGE

Employment by Labor Unions Declared Entirely Regular.

COLUMBIA, O., Dec. 28.—"I do not know anything about it," was the comment of Frank Monnett today on charges which were made that an indictment had been returned by a Federal grand jury in New York charging him with conspiracy to foment strikes at munitions plants.

"I am attorney for several labor unions," he continued, "and recently have been giving legal advice to the munition workers who are striking here. There was nothing in my employment that was not entirely regular."

SWEDES ROUSE BRITISH

VIEWS ON DETENTION OF MAIL FOR RUSSIA SILENT.

Assessment Made That Milk Powder for 2,000,000 Tons Babies May Be Sent From America.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—While as far as seen by the British press, the protest has not been made by the British government in Sweden over the reported detention of two bags of mail, bound from England to Russia, official circles admit the foreign office has sent the Swedish government an outline of its views on the subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Seizures by the entente allies of mail destined for Germany and Austria-Hungary will not affect the shipment of milk powder from this country for the relief of the 2,000,000 suffering babies in the Russian countries, according to Dr. Edward von Nash, executive chairman of the citizens' committee for food shipments.

Dr. von Nash said arrangements had been made to send three tons of milk powder by registered mail on the steamer ship Sturton, sailing from New York Saturday, and it is expected to reach Germany and Austria-Hungary through a Balkan port which is not blockaded.

V. L. Northup, photographer in the Commonwealth building, was fined $20 in Municipal Court yesterday, charged with making misrepresentation in conducting his business. Complaint against him was made by Mrs. C. Davis, 224 Davis street.

According to Mrs. Davis and others who testified, Northup circulates printed forms, which, when presented at the studio with a dollar, entitled the holder to 15 pictures, one an engraved one. Mrs. Davis said that in selling the coupons the grade of pictures which would be printed was misrepresented.

Woman Held in Default of Peace Bond at Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. Adeline Gibson was sent to jail today, being unable to furnish a peace bond of $100, following her plea guilty to charges of threatening to burn the home of her ex-husband, George Hutchinson, of Tacoma.

Before entering the jail the woman filed a complaint of assault in the third degree against Hutchinson, who pleaded guilty. Choice of a fine of $100 or a jail term of 30 days was given him. He was allowed to leave to try to obtain the money.

The woman was arrested in a cabin, without food and in a serious condition, after a search of three days.

Providence Journal Replies to Captain Boy-ed's Statement.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 28.—The Providence Journal today sent a long wireless dispatch to Captain Karl Boy-ed on the steamer Rotterdam and "our farewell statement to the American people, insofar as it relates to the Providence Journal," the message said, "is a willful and deliberate falsehood. Has the Providence Journal created a hysterical suspicion concerning the destruction of American factories, the murder of American workmen or the daily plots against the peace and safety of this Government and its citizens, almost all of which acts have been fathered and financed from your own office? Every word of what the Journal has published with regard to your personal connection with these plots has been true and nobody knows it better than yourself."

Superintendent Ryckman Confers With R. E. Clanton on Increasing of Output.

Fishing in the McKenzie River during the winter was better than ever in the history of the river, says M. L. Ryckman, superintendent of the McKenzie fish hatchery, at Poulsbo, in Lane county, but he will be better next year if he and Superintendent of Hatcheries R. E. Clanton have their way.

Last year 50,000 yearling trout and more than half a million smaller fish were planted in the river, and it plans for enlarging the water supply at the hatchery are approved by the board the number will be increased. The hatchery is able to turn out more fish if the water supply is enlarged.

Insurance Policies Provide Method Whereby Property May Be Saved and Dues Couldn't Be Met.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—The suicide of Charles Hohne, the one-time prosperous New York hotel proprietor who had put most of his savings into the bankrupt Northwest Association and yesterday shot himself, was an act of heroism, a sacrifice in the interests of his two sisters, Misses Hattie and Martha Hohne, according to the opinion of Coroner Hempstead, who today thoroughly investigated the case.

Hohne held two life insurance policies, one for $1000 and the other for $2000. Unless payment was made within a short time they would be forfeited and an examination showed that he lacked the money to meet the premium.

His five-acre tract, which lies on the Mount Pleasant road, near Oregon City, and which he bought only a short time ago, is only partially paid for and he lacked money to meet interest and to make regular payments on the mortgage against the property.

ALBANY, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—In a complaint for divorce filed in the State Circuit Court here yesterday against William N. H. Peel, of Lebanon, Mrs. Peel alleges that her husband procured a photograph of one of the finest barns in the county and sent it to his mother in England, with the statement that he had erected it on his large dairy ranch, on which he had a large number of cattle. She says he also wrote that he had incurred an indebtedness in building the barn, "that times had closed down and he was unable to get money, and that the grasping and crooked Yankees were about to close him out on a tract of about one acre for $4000 by cable and got it, if his wife's statements in her divorce complaint are true, he says he promptly squandered it in drunken revelry."

With him alive, the insurance policies would be forfeited, for he had no money to continue to make payments, his Mount Pleasant property might go back to the original owners because of lack of cash.

A note was found today which bears out strongly the belief of the coroner. It is brief and in German and was found with the two insurance policies. "The only way out—the only way his two sisters could be kept out of want—is the way he described his death. He begs for their forgiveness and prays that they will understand."

Despite his story of the large barn and dairy herd, Mrs. Peel says that they live on a tract of about one acre. She alleges that her husband has used other schemes to get money from his mother and that within the last year he has squandered the money. "The complaint further alleges that a few years ago Peel's father died and left him an estate of about $20,000 to be given him upon the death of his mother, who is now 80 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Peel were married March 21, 1903, in Manchester, England. In addition to a divorce, she is asking for alimony in the sum of $1000."

"Memories that bless and burn"

A BEAUTIFUL old story retold; an old song made to live again in new loveliness, with a new appeal, by the blended strains of the cello, piano and violin.

Nevin's "Rosary" will always live and be loved. A beautiful fabric it is, woven of fact and fancy—warp and woof a poignant grief and a melancholy resignation. Delicately these instruments trace the pattern, and spread the tapestry again before you—a rendition that will "still a heart in absence wrong."

With remarkable fidelity the recording portrays the thrilling manly appeal of the cello and the sweet feminine response of the violin—melody and accompaniment beautifully balanced, and delivered with a restraint and dignity that proclaim the Revillon Trio a company of sincere artists.

With exquisite charm there is given upon the reverse of the same disc, Marshall's plaintive melody, "I Hear You Calling Me"—here a "song without words," another story of darkened romance surcharged with deep emotion.

Again we have a delicate harmonization by the same skillful grouping of instruments—piano, cello and violin—an arrangement that has never before been used in recording either song. No matter how many times you may have heard these ballads of bygone happiness, you will want to hear them again in the exquisite new rendition—Columbia Record No. A1815.

Among the most appealing Columbia successes are these numbers in trio form. The voluminous Columbia Record catalog lists a host of them. Let your dealer play for you such a gem as D'Hardlot's "Because," Columbia Record No. A 1735, 10-inch 75c; or "Love's Old Sweet Song" by Molloy, Columbia Record No. A968 10-inch, 75c.
