CANDIDATES ARE OUT

Clackamas Has Prospects for Lively Primary Campaign.

MR. BROWNELL TO RUN

Several Appear for Commissioner, Assessor and Recorder, While Lawyers Seek Nomination for District Attorney.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—The date of the primary nominating election comes next May, but aside from the candidates who are expected to succeed themselves for a second term, there is already promise of a lively interest in the county campaign.

This is particularly true of the offices of Commissioner, Assessor and Recorder. Clackamas County will elect three representatives in the Legislature, and there are three men who may be regarded as being in the field, and they are all strong factors in a political race.

George C. Brownell, who served three years in the State Senate, once as president of that body, will unquestionably run for the lower house, there being no vacancy in the Senate. Christian Schuchel, who has been in the House for the last two sessions, will make the race again, and E. D. Oida, of Oak Grove, will be a contender.

It is over the race for Commissioner that a fight promises to develop. Commissioner Mattson has decided that he would be a candidate. J. W. Reed, ex-Mayor of Hazzard, and Guy T. Hunt, of the same town, ex-members of the Legislature, are possible timber. W. H. Hottentiller, of Clark, has been urged by some of his friends to get into the race. It is expected that Charles W. Rialley, a member of the last Legislature, will be the Democratic candidate.

W. W. Everhart, of Molalla, probably will make an active campaign for Assessor on the Republican ticket. Charles F. Romig, a teacher of the Willamette school and a former resident of Canby, has also announced his candidacy, as has R. E. Woodward, of Oregon City. Others mentioned are: Rowell L. Holman and C. I. Staffeld, both of Oregon City. The Democratic candidate will probably be G. F. Johnson, present Chief Deputy Assessor.

Dudley Stone, of Oregon City; Clyde Hughes, of West Linn, and Pearl Selby, of Oregon City, are candidates for County Recorder. Mr. Boyles is chief deputy in the office of Recorder Deane and has a wide personal acquaintance. Mr. Hughes is employed by the Crown-Willamette Paper Company and Mr. Selby is connected with the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company.

County Clerk Harrington, Sheriff Wilson, Treasurer Dunn, School Superintendent Calavan, Surveyor Johnson and Coroner Hempstead will be the Republican candidates for second terms and will probably have no opposition in the primaries.

There is promise of an interesting contest over the office of District Attorney. The incumbent, Gilbert L. Hodges, a Democrat, is expected to be a candidate to succeed himself. William M. Stone, an Oregon City attorney, is already making an active canvass

BOND PRICES ARE HIGHEST

Improvement Issue for 10 Years at 5 Per Cent Brings 106.25.

For $15,000 in 10 year 5 per cent municipal improvement bonds out of a total issue of $7,425 sold yesterday, the city got the highest price ever paid here for bonds of that type. Henry Teal got the $15,000 block at a price of 106.25. The rest of the issue was purchased by the city for investment in one of the sinking funds.

The price of the bonds has been climbing steadily upward recently. Part of the last issue brought 105.50, which was a record up to that time. The lowest bid submitted for any part of the issue was 102.25 for the entire issue.

The bids received were as follows: Chicago Bank, 104 for $25,000; Mrs. F. T. Rust, 106 for $2,000; Mrs. Amelia Quibria, 106 for $1,000; Oregon Life Insurance Company, 106.12 for $50,000; John Murphy, 106.12 for $1,000; Hoesler, Cummings & Prodder, 105.38 for entire issue; Henry Teal, 106.27 for entire issue; Ladd & Titton Bank, 106.20 for $25,000; Lumbermen Trust Company, 106.20 for entire issue; L. E. Wing, 104.50 for $25,000, 104.75 for $25,000, 104.55 for $25,000 and 105.15 for $25,000; Frances M. Holt, 106 for $200 and 106.10 for $500.

CONVICT'S NUMBER TO GO

Warden to Restore Name and Close "Hole" as New Year's Gift.

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 28.—Warden Drum, of the Washington State Prison, according to advices to the Prosecuting Attorney here, will give the convicts a New Year's gift of greater privileges. He has ordered that the numbers be removed from the men's clothing and hereafter the convicts are to be known by their names.

The "hole," where unruly convicts were confined, was also ordered closed. Discipline will be maintained by deterring men who break prison rules of privileges.

BOND FUND MAY GO TO BANK

City Treasurer Recommends Deposit of $100,000 for July Maturities.

If recommendation of City Treasurer Adams is adopted the city will deposit with a local bank a total of $100,000 now on hand in the improvement bond sinking fund to draw interest at the rate of 2 per cent until July 1, 1916.

Treasurer Adams says the city now has ample funds to retire the bonds, which will fall due up to July 1, and can get a satisfactory rate of interest by placing the money in a bank on time deposit.

Pendleton Record 13 Arrests.

PENDLETON, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—All former Pendleton Christmas records were broken Saturday when 13 arrests were made, 12 of which were for attempting to get Christmas cheer by the drink method. Peter Howard who was arrested for being drunk was found to have a large revolver in his pocket upon being searched. For the second time within the last two months he was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or serve 15 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. The Christmas record falls far short of the 1914 Roundup record when 69 arrests were made in a single day.

SHIP LINE FORMING

Seattle Shippers Plan Three $1,250,000 Steamers.

FREIGHT IS PILING UP

Vessels of Proposed Company Will Ply to Hawaii, Australian and New Zealand Ports—Tonnage Shortage Felt.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 28.—Seattle shipping men, headed by R. M. Calkins, traffic manager of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, today announced that they were organizing a company to build and operate three $1,250,000 steamships to ply between Seattle and Hawaii, Australian and New Zealand ports.

Necessary for the new line, Mr. Calkins said, is made evident by the accumulating of export freight here. All available storage space is filled and thousands of tons of freight are en route for which there is no room.

Mr. Calkins said that if the project received the support from Seattle interests which the initial canvass indicated, contracts for the vessels will be awarded to American shipbuilders within a few weeks.

"The need of a merchant marine is an urgent commercial problem," said Mr. Calkins. "It is not possible for the business men of the country to await Federal action and, facing accumulated freight and scarcity of ships to transport cargoes which are piling up in the warehouses daily, we have been compelled to provide vessels of our own."

"The plans are to build steamships of large tonnage, modern in all respects as to speed and quick facilities for handling cargo and passengers, and operate them as all-American-owned on regular schedules between Seattle, Hawaii, Australia and New Zealand. There is enough business in sight for eight months to come to load such vessels to capacity."

Scarcity of ocean tonnage is retarding the export business of Seattle in nearly all commodities, shipping men say. Flour and wheat are being shipped overland in the hope that steamer space can be found at the Atlantic seaboard. Shipping agents are unable to quote rates by sea from Seattle before March 1, and exceedingly high rates prevail. The latest quotations on flour to the United Kingdom are 126 to 135 shillings, against a normal rate of 25 shillings.

STRANDED CREW RESCUED

Schooner Sausalito Is Ashore on Waddah Island.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 28.—British Columbia wireless stations last night picked up the news that the schooner Sausalito had been driven ashore on Waddah Island, near Neah Bay, on the American side of the straits, at Cape Flattery. About 9 P. M. the Sausalito sent out distress signals by discharging rockets and displaying flares and immediately afterwards the oar-propelled surfboat stationed at Neah Bay but to sea in a heavy sea to render aid to the crew of the wrecked schooner. According to word received here at an early hour the Neah Bay surfboat had reached the Sausalito after a hard row and succeeded in taking off all the members of the crew.

LAZINESS CHARGED IN SUIT

Husband Wanted Her to Kill Him, Declares Woman Asking Divorce.

THE DALLAS, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Alleging that her husband, William E. Morris, took her 25 chickens, sold them and bought liquor with the proceeds of the sale, Mrs. Sadie Morris has filed a suit for divorce in Wasco County Circuit Court. What made matters worse, says her complaint, the chickens Morris sold had not been paid for, the woman having given her personal note for the birds. Mrs. Morris avers her husband is so lazy he won't support her. She asks for freedom on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

They have been married less than two years, having been wedded at Trenton, Mo. They have been residing on a homestead near Shaniko, in the southern part of Wasco County, during the last year. The divorce complaint avers that Morris recently told his wife he wanted to die, asking her to kill him and promising to leave a note telling the world he had committed suicide. The complaint alleges that Morris, upon his wife's refusal to murder him, threatened to kill himself, and so frightened his wife that she fled from the house and spent the night in the sagebrush.

Feast Promised Indians. PENDLETON, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—The Indians who are encamped at Tutuilla Mission for a series of camp meetings are to enjoy a big New Year's dinner next Saturday. To satisfy the members of the dusky tribe a promise has been made of a steer, a hog, one beef and 60 jackrabbits in addition to 150 worth of other edibles. Three Indians left today for Echo in an attempt to bag the rabbits.

Prominent Douglas Woman Passes. ROSEBURG, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. Maggie Pickett, aged 45 years, and one of the most prominent women in Southern Douglas County, died at a hospital here today after a brief illness. She was born in Illinois and had lived near Glendale for 25 years. She is survived by a husband and three children. Mrs. Pickett was a member of the Christian Church and was active in church and social affairs.

Pendleton Man in Defense Society. PENDLETON, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—C. E. Cranston, secretary of the Pendleton Commercial Association, has been appointed state committeeman of the American National Defense Society by Governor Witzoombe. Mr. Cranston has been requested to appoint a chairman of this committee by form of referendum vote who will act as head of the society in this state.

Seattle Convent Founder Dead. SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 28.—Malcolm McDougall, millionaire lumberman and farmer, died Monday in the Carmelite convent here, which he founded, and of which his sister, known as Mother Cyril, is superior. He was 73 years old and had lived in Seattle more than 21 years. It is estimated that he gave at least $500,000 to the Carmelite convent.

Car Strikes Horse Unseating Rider. PENDLETON, Or., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Charles Bowlesby, a well-known young

Pendleton man, was knocked unconscious Sunday night when the horse he was riding was knocked from beneath him by an automobile driven by

Daphne Grayben. Miss Grayben in making the turn from Court to Alta street hit Mr. Bowlesby's horse throwing the rider beneath the car. His face was badly bruised. The horse which is valued at $100, was injured so badly that it was necessary to shoot the animal.
