Mr. Baker Hopes to Be Able to Have Contract Awarded So That Work Can Be Provided for Unemployed This Winter.

Portland's proposed public Audito-Flum can be built for not to exceed $500,000, according to the official exti-mate submitted yesterday to City Commissioner Baker by the Brayten Engineering Company, which concern recentry was asked to check the plans and prepare an estimate.

The building, Mr. Baker estimates, can be erected furnished and completed in every detail for $056,806.

The estimate of the Brayton Engineering Company includes only the actual construction of the building, J. A. Fouliboox, architect, representing J. H. Freedlander, of New York, reported to lessen their assessments a trifle they withdrew their objections.
The improvement involves the construction of a viaduct 219 feet in length and a fill about 790 feet in length. It will be mand a fill about 790 feet in length. It will be mand a fill about 790 feet in
