REV. C. M. VAN MARTER COMING.—Rev. C. M. Van Marter and Mrs. Van Marter, of Seattle, Or., both well-known evangelists, will be at the union services to-night at the Lentz Evangelical Church, in which the Methodists, Friends, Evangelical and Baptist congregations will join, if being the initial meeting of the series that is to be conducted through January in this suburb. All the meetings will be held in the Evangelical Church, where the auditorium will seat 100 people. A large chorus has been organized for these union meetings. Mrs. Van Marter, who is a singer of wide experience, will conduct the music at all the meetings. The Portland pastor will assist and will fill the pulpit at Seattle during the absence of Rev. Mr. Van Marter.

CHURCH WATER MEMORIAL TOMORROW.—A free social will be given by the Epworth League of Mount Tabor Methodist Episcopal Church tonight at 8 o'clock. A watch night service will follow; there will be an address by the pastor and a part of the service will be given over to the members. At midnight the covenant hymn will be sung. Evangelistic services will follow beginning on Sunday night and continuing throughout the week.
