McCredie Favors Retention of Double Umpire System-Arbiters Last Senson Best Ever in League, He Maintains.

BY HOSCOE PAWCETT, Higning up to a big league baseball contract has degenerated into a pressiin now that the outlaw Federal League bugaboo has been removed Stanley Covelenkie, star pitcher un the Furtland Counters last year, attached a sample of his chirography to a contract with the Cisveland Americans yesterday, with an little excitement as though he were signing for a set of moreocco bound "four foot folion. Stan drifted into the McCredie billiard emporium, humped into Walter McCredie, Walt produced the "poipers" from Ceveland and the Pole signed his name all in a jiffy. Coveleskie refused in divulge the amount of his contract, which was for one year, but it probably enlied for around $2.00 or $2200.

Coveleskie appeared to be well satisfied with going to Claveland.

"It doesn't make much difference whether you go up to a leader or a tail-ender," said he, "you have to pitch to hold your job. If Sinclair or some man like that succeeds Homers, Cleveland may get some of the stars the Fortland Cousters last year, at-

Stanley once before had a trial in the majors, pitching a few games for the Philadeiphia Athletics in the Fall of 1912. During the following Winter ha was sold to Spokane in the deal that transported Byron Houck from Spo-kane to the Athletics.

He twiried fer Spokane in 1913 and 1914 and was bought by Portland last Winter. Although his record this past season was only 17 wins and 17 de-feats, he was with a rank tall-end club and was far and away the best pitcher the Portland roster. Coveleshie is 25 years old.

W. W. McCredie received word year terday from President Banin that the Court League megules would meet Jan-eary t to adopt a schedule and dispose of other unfinished details. Formal welcome of the Purtland franchise into the fold will be one of these "details."
Fortland was voted out of the league, it will be recalled, but there was a string attached. The railroads held the bigh school defeated the Monroe teams either end of the string. When the roads saw a possibility of Portland's here Tuesday night in fast games. CHAMBER CONSIDERS AGREEMENT FOR REDUCTION NOT MET.

Statement That Companies Are Losing Money Also Is Belittled and Fewer Fines Are Mentioned.

A protest against the recent rise in insurance rates in Portland, promul-gated by the Underwriter's Equitable Rating Bureau, probably will result from the meeting of the executive committee of the board of directors of the Portland Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday. At that time the recent ad-vance in rates will be taken up for consideration and some plan of action mapped out.

Officials of the chamber assert that previous to "Gleanup week" an understanding was had that in case of a successful campaign rates would be reduced. As a consequence, they now say that the recent adjustment of rates, which means an increase of 15 per cent in most instances, is uncalled for. They point out that the fire loss in the city has been becoming less and, consequently, the argument that insurance companies have been losing money is
