

FARMERS FLOCK TO CORVALLIS MEET

Homemakers' Week at O. A. C. Brings 452 Visitors Before First Day Ends.

MANY WOMEN IN THROG

Six-Day Programme Includes Prominent Speakers—College Has Special Exhibits—Agriculture Is General Theme.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, O., Jan. 3.—(Special)—The annual Farmers' and Homemakers' week at the Oregon Agricultural College began today. At 9 o'clock this morning, the registration of visitors had reached 452, about one-third being women. Late trains tonight were bringing additional visitors in large numbers, and it is expected that the registration tomorrow will exceed that of the first day.

The programme outlined for the week extends in scope any yet offered by the Oregon Agricultural College to the people of the state. Agricultural and industrial problems of a wide range of application will be discussed by specialists of the college staff, the state at large and other states, as well as by successful men and women representing varied lines of business and professional life, with special emphasis upon those callings allied to agriculture.

In addition to a large number of independent lectures on a wide variety of subjects, 25 special conferences have been arranged to vary in duration from a half day to the entire six days allotted to the conventions. One hour of each day has been set aside for a general assembly in the women's gymnasium, at which time a programme of music, dramatic readings and addresses by prominent men of Oregon and other states will be given.

All of the department laboratories are open for exhibition purposes, and several special exhibits have been arranged for display in the gymnasium. Among these are the poultry show, the second annual horse show which will be held Friday night in the Armory.

The programme of the week is well planned and includes a wide range of work on certain days. The Homemakers' Congress covers the entire week, and includes the morning and afternoon sessions of the two-day roadmakers' conference was held. At the first session of the Homemakers' Congress, Professor Backwith, of the Oregon Agricultural College, discussed the question of child and grip.

"Out-Door Fisheries" and "Old-Fashioned Flower Borders" was the subject of a paper presented by Professor Peck. Professor Lovett, station entomologist, discussed the question of the most insect pests. In the afternoon Miss Alice Hattenhill, of Vancouver, B. C., gave her well-known lecture, "Up and Down of Hobbies" or "Rhythms of Nature."

Miss Anna Barrows, of Columbia University, gave a two-hour contribution on principles of cookery.

publican National Convention at Chicago next June.

He is the first Republican to enter the race for the first candidate for Multnomah County to be named for the Republican National Convention at Chicago next June.

Colonel Dunne has been a resident of Oregon for 24 years. He was County Commissioner from 1887 to 1892, and Presidential Elector in 1892, voted for Benjamin Harrison. From 1893 to 1914, a total of 15 1/2 years, Colonel Dunne was United States Collector of Internal Revenue for Oregon.

He served under four Presidents. He was appointed by Mr. McKinley, and continued to hold the office under Presidents Roosevelt and Taft, and was President of President Wilson's Administration.

When he did leave the collectorship, the office of Portland ranked No. 1 for efficiency in the records of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

"Of course, delegates are pledged to vote for the candidate for President selected by the majority of the delegates," he said. "But if I had my choice, my vote would be cast for Hughes, ex-Governor Hadley, of Missouri, or Philander C. Knox."

"I believe, any one of these men would unite the Republican and Progressive parties. That, in my opinion, must be taken into consideration."

APPRENTICE RAIDS SWEEP CALIFORNIA

Residents of Sacramento Valley Rescued in Rowboats After Cloudburst.

SCHOOLS FORCED TO CLOSE

Many Saved From Death at Oakland by Firemen and Police. Streets Inundated and Many Families Are Marooned.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 3.—One of the heaviest rain and wind storms in years is sweeping the Sacramento Valley, the rainfall in northern towns being particularly heavy. A part of the business section of the lower residential section of Chico, together with the Diamond Match Company's plants, were flooded by a cloudburst during the night. Residents were rescued in rowboats and many were marooned.

The rainfall was so heavy in Sacramento the schools had to be closed for the day, the children being unable to attend because of overflowed storm sewers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—With the main portion of the wind and rain storm which visited most of California yesterday with almost unprecedented violence and fury still over the Oregon-California coast, a portion of the disturbance rapidly is moving eastward tonight. Storm signals were still set tonight along the coast.

Shipping, for the most part, has been paralyzed, and many vessels have been forced to run out to sea, or, when conditions would permit, return to ports along the coast.

Little damage to citrus fruits was reported from orange and lemon-raising sections of the state, and what damage to other crops was reported is offset by the breaking of the recent wave as an aftermath of the storm.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—Classes were dismissed today in several schools in which certain classrooms were exposed in the weather by broken skylights and windows, as a result of the storm which swept the city last night. Nine school buildings were damaged by the wind.

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 3.—Twenty-five men, women and children were saved from death when their homes were flooded early today in the storm which raged over the city during the night. They were taken from their homes by firemen and police officers. Four Chinese, whose home was flooded under 12 feet of water, were saved from drowning.

All of the public schools were closed at noon, basements of many of the buildings having been flooded. Boats were rowed from the harbor, a distance of seven blocks, over the surface of fourteen feet of water, which was covered by four feet of water. This street is in a corner. Ten families of 11 members—mostly women and children—were taken from flooded houses adjoining in rowboats, the water having flooded the beds in which they slept.
