THE Visiting Nurse Association's executive board met yesterday in the Mabel & Frank social service room. Reports showed that December had been the busiest month the association has experienced for more than a year. There were 254 patients who received help, and care. Of these 219 were general and 35 tubercular patients. Visits were made as follows: General, 734; tubercular, 112; total, 846. Plans were made for the Valentine tea which will be given by the association on February 14. Several new members have been added to the roll of the Visiting Nurse Association this past month.

Mrs. E. F. Mann, of 11 Belmont street, will entertain Chapter C. P. E. O. Starbrook, on Friday, Mrs. R. G. Brand will preside.

Mary Lou Moser, 382 East Second street, will entertain the Carrie Jacobson Musical Club on Saturday.

The Portland Fruit and Flower Mission will meet on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Day Nursery, 424 Main street. The annual election of officers will not take place until the February meeting.

Installation ceremonies of Camelia Chapter No. 27, O. E. S., were held Monday night, when the following officers were installed: Mrs. Estelle J. Fye, worthy matron; H. M. Greene, worthy patron; Mrs. Adelle F. Snyder, associate matron; Mrs. Claude Cullen, conductress; Miss Marion B. Cole, associate conductress; Mrs. Marvete Robinson, secretary; Mrs. Lida A. Hamilton, treasurer; Mrs. Nannie McDaniel, chaplain; Mrs. Ethel C. Graham, marshal; Mrs. Jennie Crawford Adams, Mrs. Ida Crawford, Ruth, Mrs. Beatrice W. Bentley, Ester; Miss Alice Myers, Martha; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Finch, Electa; Miss Edith M. Gresham, organist; Mrs. Desha W. Holbrook, warder; A. J. McDaniel, sentinel.

Members of the Portland Art Club will have a lunch meeting at 12 o'clock, when Henry Wentz, the artist, will address the meeting in the Art Museum. His subject will be "Composition."

The Sunday School Workers' Union will resume their regular meetings tomorrow at 2 P. M. in the Library building. Aside from the teaching of the Sunday school lessons for the coming Sunday, Mrs. A. W. DeLong will give her regular monthly missionary talk. Her subject this week will be "How to Reach the Heavens in Our Own Country." All Sunday school workers are invited to this meeting.

The Y. W. C. A. Thursday morning Bible study class, which was discontinued during the holidays, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. A. W. DeLong will have charge as usual. Women who are interested in Bible study ought not to miss this series of talks. Mrs. DeLong has a new way of presenting old thoughts which is interesting and helpful.

Mrs. Flora Peterson, 76 Cornell street, will entertain the Women's New Thought Club today.

The Portland Shakespeare Club's members are to direct the sale of candy at the Christmas performance of "Romeo and Juliet" at the Hotel, January 12, 14 and 15. The play will be given under the direction of Madeline Jansell and will be for the benefit of the Baby Home.

All the dancing classes of the Portland Heights Club will meet as usual Wednesday of this week, the class for the little children beginning at 2:15 and the class for older children at 4:15. The Wednesday evening class for adults begins the first series of lessons this week and the first lesson of the new course will be given Wednesday night, January 12, at 8.

The all-important meeting of the afternoon will be that of the Council of Jewish Women, which will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Multnomah. Mrs. Delphine Marx, con-will sing. The Berger-Jones pictures will be shown. A large receiving party will assist in the social hour. Mrs. Sol Baum is chairman of the programme. Mrs. Maurice Goodman will preside in the social hour and Mrs. Isaac Swett will introduce the singer and preside at the meeting.

Plans for the biennial to be held in New York City May 22 to June 2 are interesting clubwomen in all parts of the United States. The biennial, at Madison avenue and Forty-third street, has been named as the headquarters for the Oregon, California and Ohio delegations. It is rather interesting to note that two candidates up for the presidency will be represented at the same hotel. Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, of Los Angeles, is backed by California and Mrs. Samuel H. Sneath, the present vice-president, has been endorsed by the Ohio Federation for the high office of president of the general federation. Those who are "sides" regarding club affairs say, however, that it will be not at all surprising if Mrs. John D. Sherman, chairman of the conservation department, is a candidate for the presidency.

All three women are known to the club leaders in this state. Mrs. Sneath and Mrs. Sherman were here last June attending the biennial council.

Mrs. J. A. Pettit, Mrs. John McRobert and Mrs. J. W. Tift are among the Portland women who are planning to go to New York in May to attend the biennial convention. Many others will go, but definite plans are not yet made.

Mrs. McRobert, a member of the Portland Women's Club, is among those who recently have made substantial donations to the memorial endowment fund of the general federation.

An excellent programme will provide the Coterie Club's luncheon today. The members will meet at 11 o'clock in the Hotel Imperial. At 12:30 o'clock luncheon will be served. Among those who will contribute to the programme will be Mrs. B. T. Soden, Mrs. G. F. Alexander, Mrs. F. Hammond, Mrs. E. R. Root, Mrs. J. E. Coover, Mrs. C. M. Higgins and Mrs. Newton McCoy.

The Ladies' Literary Club, of Burnsville, has issued an attractive little year book and calendar. For the meeting on January 4 the subject will be the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Those who attended will give talks on the various phases of the big fair.

Mrs. Charles H. Crocker, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, is in Corvallis where she was asked to preside at the conference on "Efficiency of Women in the Home." Her address was on "Social Life in the High School."

It is said the use of the hand for signaling involves many difficulties. The many devices on the market will be inspected.
