

Big Dual Feature Attraction

Jackie Saunders

the Maude Adams of the Screen, in

The Adventures of a Madcap

Beautiful Hand-Colored Pathe Production

The Heart of a Mermaid

With MARY FULLER, Noted Screen Star

Commencing Today—National Theater

CHARITY RULE PROVIDED

CHAMBER TABULATES REQUIREMENTS FOR APPROVAL

To Receive Indorsement Organizations Must Be Permanent and Not Primarily Demagogical.

All indorsements thus far issued to charities in the city by the Chamber of Commerce have been only temporary, and with the beginning of 1916 every charitable organization desiring official indorsement was obliged to make a fresh application to the civic bureau of the Chamber for recommendation for continued approval.

OTHER CHARGES PROBABLE

White Slavery Allegation Investigated in Case of Frank Dillon.

Frank Dillon, alias Burke, who was sentenced to 30 days on a charge of vagrancy in Municipal Court yesterday, is being investigated by the Government authorities on a charge of white slavery. Dillon was arrested with Emma Miles, who also possesses several aliases, at the Berlin rooming-house by Lieutenant Harms.

C. H. CLEMENTS IS DEAD

Grants Pass Lawyer Succumbs in Portland at Age of 42.

Clarence H. Clements, formerly of Grants Pass, Or., died Monday night at his apartment at the northeast corner of East Twenty-eighth street and Sandy boulevard, at the age of 42 years. He is survived by his widow, his mother, Mrs. M. F. Clements, and a sister, Mrs. C. H. Wise, all of Grants Pass. Mrs. Clements left last night for Grants Pass with the body.

LIQUOR REPLEVIN SUIT OFF

22 Bottles Seized by Police Missing, but Lieutenant Shows Receipt.

What became of wine, champagne and beer—22 bottles of it—that was confiscated by Police Lieutenant Harms in a raid on the house of Lucile Ayers in 1913 has not been determined, but a receipt for the liquor was received by Lieutenant Harms from Charles Himmerman, clerk of the Justice Court at that time, as an action for replevin fell through in District Judge Dayton's court yesterday.

VETERANS HOLD BANQUET

SPANISH WAR SOLDIERS BUY OUT BAKER TO AID RELIEF FUND.

Officers Take Boxes for "The Littlest Rebel" and Parties From Vancouver Post FTH House.

AND, TOO, AMONG THE DAMNED ARE THESE VICTIMS OF THEIR SINFUL LOVE.

THE MOST STARTLING SENSATIONAL DRAMATIC DOCUMENT EVER FILMED

THE WARNING

WITH THE NOTABLE PLAYER HENRY KOLKER COME EARLY—IF YOU WISH TO SEE IT

SEWER COST QUESTIONED

Because the Montavilla trunk sewer cost $160,000 when they thought the contract had been let for $148,000, the property owners do not understand the reasons for the increased cost, and desire an explanation from the city engineer. A committee of property owners will look into the conditions of the contract, and then City Engineer Dater may be asked to explain the increase.

Once each year the Spanish War Veterans buy out some place of amusement and hold a benefit. The benefit is for a relief fund for the widows and orphans of Spanish War Veterans. This year they have bought out the Baker Theater for three nights and all proceeds from "The Littlest Rebel" for last night, tonight and tomorrow night go to swell the relief fund.

The play is peculiarly fitting for the enterprise, inasmuch as it is a war play, a story of the North and South, one of the few really good ones. It has an other drawing power in the artistic work of Little Mayo Methot in the title role, co-starring with Edward C. Woodruff.

Last night the theater was filled with soldiers and their friends. More than 200 came over from Vancouver. The boxes, which are gaily decorated with flags and greens and tri-colored bunting, will be occupied each night by officers and their parties. At last night's entertainment the two Emmert children, Velva and Howard, presented a little Scotch sketch between the third and fourth acts of the play. The orchestra is playing martial airs at each performance. Thirty members of Scout Young Camp are appearing nightly in the big battle scene of "The Littlest Rebel."

Majestic Novelty Trio

Majestic THEATRE

Other Features

Today and Tomorrow Only

Last Opportunity to See Henry W. Savage's Tremendous Broadway Comedy Success

EXCUSE ME

A Pullman car mixup of newly-weds and nearly-weds. Full of rip-roaring, side-splitting situations. A perpetual mileage of laughs without any stopovers

Featuring George F. Marion, Vivian Blackburn, Geraldine O'Brien, of the Original Broadway Cast

Remember, Today and Tomorrow Only

Coming Friday and Saturday Only

"FATAL JEALOUSY"

Featuring Miss Genevieve Hamper, the Most Beautiful Face on Earth