

CAMPAIGN ON BLUE LAW NOT INTENDED

District Attorney to Give Warrants on Demand, Not Otherwise.

NO OVER-ZEAL IN PLAN

Mr. Evans Says It Will Take Lot of Evidence to Convince Him That Sunday Bill Should Be Stopped Under Ancient Measure.

Though the Sunday blue law is not a popular one with District Attorney Evans, he will enforce it if it is upheld in the decision to be handed down by Circuit Judge Gantsheln today. "I am not going to make any campaign on Sunday closing," said Mr. Evans yesterday, "but if any come to me for a complaint I have on right to refuse a warrant, if there is evidence to justify it."

BAKER IGNORES BLUE LAW

District Attorney Says He'll Prosecute Only if Citizens Demand It. BAKER, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—Because he is confident that a jury could not be obtained in Baker County to convict under the Sunday-closing law, declared unconstitutional by the Federal court, and that to bring legal proceedings against alleged violators of the statute would result only in a waste of the county's money, District Attorney Gantsheln declared today that he would not go out of his way to compel the observance of the "blue law" unless complaints were made. The law by respectable citizens, or unless the State District Attorney's Association recommended that the statute receive a general trial throughout the state.

CURRY TO USE BLUE LAW

Sunday Closing Will Be Enforced and Gaming Prohibited. GOLD BEACH, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—Although Curry County has been dry territory for the past three years nevertheless New Year's day was a day of reform in all parts of the county. The District Attorney Ringo will not allow for cigars and card games for similar stakes will be no longer permitted. The Sunday-closing law was also re-enacted with the new year and merchants that violations of the law will be met with immediate prosecution.

MARION TO IGNORE BLUE LAW

District Attorney to Await Voice of People at Polls. SALEM, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—Until the people have had opportunity to pass upon the measure at the polls, District Attorney Ringo will not attempt to enforce the Sunday closing law in Marion County, he said today. "Salem," said Mr. Ringo, "has always been orderly Sunday and I see no reason why the state law should be enforced to the letter since the city ordinance do not require such a strict observance. Of course if complaints are made it will be my duty to enforce the law of 1914."

2 TO FACE TRIAL IN NORTH

Men Accused of Extortion Will Be Sent to Walla Walla. T. B. Moffett and Harry Stiles, alias Gordon Smith, arrested by Deputy Sheriff Christensen, December 24, in Portland, on charges of extortion, will be sent to Walla Walla to face trial for extortion, Sheriff Barnes, of that city, being expected here today. The extortion charges for which the men were held were brought on the complaint of Mrs. Nellie Sharpe, of Astoria. A son of Mrs. Sharpe, Charles Langsley, had been involved with the wife of Moffett, and by threatening propositions and extorting charges in three cities—Walla Walla, McNamara and Portland—Moffett and Stiles attempted to obtain $125 from Mrs. Sharpe, according to the authorities.

FATHER HICKEY, 70, DIES

Early Day Missionary Succumbs to Bronchitis-Pneumonia. Bronchitis-pneumonia caused the sudden death yesterday of Rev. Michael J. Hickey, aged 70, who for the past 15 years has been pastor of the Holy Child Church of Oregon. Death occurred at St. Vincent's Hospital, which he entered Sunday afternoon, after a gradual falling for the past two years. He was born and educated in Ireland, coming to Oregon shortly after his arrival in this country. For 12 years he was a missionary in Eastern Oregon, during part of which time he was editor of the Occidental Magazine. Two years ago he retired from active service and became chaplain of the convent of the Holy Child in Portland.

WIVES ARE ENTERTAINERS

Reception for Husbands Held by Hood River Club. HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—At the Oddfellows' hall this evening the 175 members of the Women's Club held their annual reception for their husbands. The men of the valley and city were splendidly entertained.

A play, entitled "Dance From Indian Campfire," was produced by members of the Girls' Club, an auxiliary organization. The young women appeared in Indian costumes. Portions of the play's action are accompanied by Indian music. Christmas trees had been gathered from city homes and were used to form a stage forest. Mrs. J. P. Lucas was chairman of the committee in charge of the evening's entertainment.

ARSON REPORT PLAN FIXED

System Inaugurated of Keep Tab on All Suspicious Blazes. OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—In independence with a request by the chairman of the arson committee of fire underwriters for the Pacific Coast, CLEVER DANCER AND PORTLAND BOY APPEARING AT FANTASIES THIS WEEK.

Dancing around the world is the unique position in which the beautiful Hannah Leach and clever Jack Holland find themselves. Miss Leach and Mr. Holland are among the stars at Fantasies this week. Of special interest to Portland patrons of the play is the fact that Mr. Holland is a Portland boy. He is the son of John Francis Shea. His name also appears in the list of the cleverest dancers in Vienna and Petrograd. She was a star at the Palais Bergere, the great amusement palace of Paris. Together the couple present one of the classic dancing acts in vaudeville, introducing their own original and popular dances, including the including the "Reuben Rumpster Trot."

H. C. Fishback, State Insurance Commissioner today began an investigation and report system of all suspicious fires in Washington. He requests prosecuting attorneys, fire marshals and fire chiefs to forward information in all such cases especially where there is any indication of incendiary work as carried on by the arson rings discovered operating recently throughout the coast territory.

Registration on Third Day Totals 1921, With Only 164 Democrats. Republicans far in the lead, Democrats second, Independents third, Prohibitionists fourth, and Progressives and Socialists contending for fifth place, is the order of standing in Multnomah County registrations at the office of County Clerk Coffey at the end of the third day. Registrations to date number 1921, of which number 894 are Republicans and 164 Democrats. Registrations were divided yesterday as follows: Republican 276, Democrats 51, Independent 13, Prohibitionist 7, Progressive 3, Socialist 1.

Car Owners Sued for Damages.

MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—Because his horse was killed, his buggy demolished and personal injuries were sustained as a result of a collision with a motor car, J. A. Holbrook, of Monmouth, has filed suit in the Circuit Court against Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nelson, of Independence. Mr. Holbrook alleges that Harry Nelson, young son of the defendants, was driving at an excessive rate of speed when the accident occurred. He asks for $100 for property loss and $1500 for personal injuries.

Old Blanco Hotel Closes.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—The Blanco Hotel, the oldest hotel in Marshfield, and occupied as such since 1871, closed its doors today. Emerson Perry, proprietor, said a 50-room hotel cannot exist in Marshfield without a barroom. The place was opened in early days by James Bailey, and the present owner had conducted the place for 15 years. The Blanco held a lead in hotel business for many years and had always been a home for the loggers when they were in town.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR STIFFNESS AWAY

Rub pain from back with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacob's Oil."

The Sunday Oregonian

When your back is sore and limp or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" at any drugstore, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you could fifty the soreness and lameness is gone. Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints.—Adv.

Registration at Convention at O. A. C. Reaches 685. BIG PROGRAMME ARRANGED Many Sessions Already Held and Others Are in Store for Week of Demonstrations and Lectures at College.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 5.—(Special.)—Farmers and their wives, professional and business men, teachers, students and others representing every walk of life are arriving at Corvallis on every train to attend the annual Farmers' and Home-Makers' week and industrial conference at the Oregon Agricultural College. Last night 685 had registered at the central bureau and indications point to an increase of several hundred tonight. Dairymen Open Session. The State Dairymen's Association met this morning for a two-day session and the Oregon Field Crop and Seed Growers' Association convened for its annual meeting. The conference of ministers and religious workers, the drainage association convention and the home-makers' congress continued in session. Governor Withcombe arrived today and will take a prominent part in the meetings of the week. Last night the members of the various dairy breed associations and the State Dairymen's Association, which had been in session throughout the day, were entertained at a banquet tendered by the students' dairy club. President Mr. J. W. Miller, of Fort Atkinson, Wis., editor of Hoard's Dairymen; Cummings Dickson, of Shedd; Mrs. Addie Howie, of Wisconsin; and E. T. Whalley, of Portland, vice-president of the Oregon-Guernsey Breeders' Association, were among the speakers. William Constantine, of Portland, this afternoon gave a two-hour demonstration on pork cuts and pork products. A get-together meeting was held tonight in the women's gymnasium, with a booster speech-making contest. Conventions to Be Held Today. Conventions scheduled for tomorrow include that of the Oregon Butter and Cheese-makers, the Oregon Potato-growers and the Oregon Pure-Bred Breeders' Association. No single conference of the week has exceeded in interest that of the Oregon Drainage Association. More than 200 were present when J. W. Brewer, of the Oregon Development League and recently elected president of the Oregon Irrigation Congress, made an address as the representative of the Portland Chamber of Commerce. E. R. Jones, professor of soils at the University of Wisconsin, and one of the leading authorities in the United States on farm drainage, outlined the methods of appertisement of assessments for drainage districts under the Wisconsin district law, which is similar in essential principles to the Oregon law.

she says, ran away with her husband, so McCane Stewart, a colored attorney, told Judge Stevenson in the Municipal Court yesterday. In the meantime, pleaded the attorney, if the court would release Mrs. Miller until Saturday, he would see that she stayed within her own home where Mrs. Vessell could not get at her. Stewart represented himself as attorney for Isaac Vessell, whose interest in the other man's wife got him in trouble. So Mrs. Miller was allowed to go home to her children on the other fellow's lawyer's promise that she would be immune from attack until Saturday. Oddfellows at Vincent Celebrate. VINCENT, Or., Jan. 5.—(Special.)—The Oddfellows held their annual New Year's celebration Friday night, December 31. A large banquet was served. Representative Ben Hill, of Walla Walla, and Grand Past Master Kellogg were the speakers.

From Nothing to $6,000,000 in Three Months

Three months ago today nobody had ever seen a Triangle Play.

Today moving picture theaters all over the country are paying at the rate of nearly six million dollars a year to show them!

Prices vary. At the Knickerbocker Theater in New York you pay two dollars for the best seats. In smaller cities, and smaller theaters, you can see the same pictures for ten cents.

Taking it by and large probably two million people will see Triangle Plays this week.

When you think what Triangle Plays are—you will realize how it happened.

One day last Spring half a dozen of us—all practical experienced moving picture people—decided the public was ready for better moving pictures than had ever been made—ready enough to pay practically any price to get them.

Backed by a large capital and long experience, we were able to get into the project the three highest-paid, best-known producers in the world.

Griffith—who produced the "Birth of a Nation." Ince—who made the wild West famous in pictures. Sennett—maker of Keystone Comedies.

And with them the greatest aggregation of charming, beautiful women and brilliant men who ever acted together.

Just run your eye over this partial list.

The type is small—but the names are big.

Douglas Fairbanks	Robert Herron	Weber & Fields
Mae Marsh	William S. Hart	Raymond Hitchcock
Lillian & Dorothy Gish	Bessie Barriscale	Mabel Normand
Tully Marshall	Frank Keenan	Roscoe Arbuckle
Thomas Jefferson	Enid Markey	Fred Mace
Frank Campeau	Katherine Kaelred	Ford Sterling
Helen Ware	Orrin Johnson	Truly Shattuck

There! How many equally good ones could you add—no matter at what price!

With the three top-notch producers, the finest motion picture studios ever built, pretty nearly every really well-known actor and actress in America.

The rush of success was not surprising; it was inevitable.

Triangle Plays are getting better every week.

If you haven't seen the last one you haven't seen the best one.

Working at top pressure every minute—we haven't yet got to all the theaters that want Triangle Plays.

But we are adding them every day.

Maybe the theater you regularly go to is showing them now; maybe the manager is trying for the contract—unless he thinks he can hold your patronage with something that costs him less than Triangle Plays.

Speak to him next time you go by.

Ask him when Triangle Pictures are booked to come to him.

For if his is the best house in town they'll be there.
