

WOMEN'S CLUBS

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE, WHO WILL PRESIDE AT MEETING TODAY.

Miss Emma Griebel

THE Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will hold its first meeting of the new year on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in room A of the church house. The programme is of special interest, owing to the presence of Mrs. Frederick W. Neal, one of the Presbyterian missionaries in Africa, who came home on furlough more than a year ago and to hold here by war conditions on the continent. Mrs. Neal is an interesting speaker. She has with her some collection of curios, illustrating the customs and work of the people in her mission field. The meeting is open to all women interested in mission work. A social hour will follow the programme.

The State Women's Press Club of Oregon met on Wednesday evening in the rooms of the Press Club, with Mrs. Nathan Harris in charge of the programme, drama and dramatists.

Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons, professor of English at the University of Oregon, who conducts the extension classes at the library on week ends, will meet her classes for the first time since the Christmas recess, Friday, January 14, for rhetoric and English composition, and on Saturday, January 15, for the short story class.

The Irvington Park Literary Club at the meeting held in the home of Mrs. Edna Randall elected the following officers: President, Mrs. W. Graves; first vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Miller; second vice-president, Mrs. M. D. Bromberger; Mrs. Randall, third vice-president; Mrs. C. W. Clanton, treasurer; Mrs. Mackay, chairman committee on entertainment; Mrs. E. Hunt, librarian and correspondence; Mrs. E. H. Short. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Short, 723 Holman street, January 17.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club was entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. Indry, 1514 Irvington street. The following programme was given: Review of "The Virgin Soil," Mrs. G. I. Stahl; readings from the "Hawaii," Mrs. Anna Orr-Dunbar. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. J. Jackson, 211 East Burnside street, at 2 o'clock. Take Montaville-East Ankeny car to Twenty-second street.

Great interest is being shown in the approaching reelection of "Home and Junior" for the benefit of the Baby Home. Mrs. D. C. Burns, president, in speaking of the executive meeting held yesterday, said: "We had splendid results. The Chamber of Commerce is standing by us loyally. Thirty-five of the men are working as a solid committee for the benefit of the Baby Home."

The Portland Shakespeare Study Club will have charge of the sale of candy at the performance of "Romeo and Juliet" every dime and dollar will go to help the Baby Home. All who wish to contribute candy may send it to the Young Women's Christian Association, marked "The Shakespeare Club." The Omegas will assist the clubwomen on Thursday; Omegas No. 1 on Friday and Multnomah Campfire Girls on Saturday.

Mrs. Weister's new club for the study of psychology and art will hold its first big social meeting on January 18 in her new home in Irvington. Mrs. H. M. Tuttle will give the address, Miss Ada Alice Tuttle and Miss Barbara Lull will give musical numbers.

The Portland Psychology Club will meet next Thursday in the library.

The Monday Musical Club is planning an all home for January 16, when they will entertain in the evening in the Hotel Multnomah. An elaborate card party will be the feature.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae will present a play today in the Portland Heights clubhouse. "A Christmas Fantasy-Drama," written by Mrs. Henry Seal Torrey, will be given by talented members of the association. Among those to participate will be Miss Ruth Dewdney, Miss Allison Brown, Miss Barbara King, Miss Marion Snyder, Miss Laura Moffett, Miss Genevieve Courtney, Miss Nellie Hennaway, Miss Ethel Wakenman, Miss Margaret Russell, Miss Mary McCredy, Miss H. L. Hewitt, Miss Anna Hendon who will have charge of the costumes. Miss Frank Towles is coach and Miss Emma Griebel will provide.

The Vernon Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting Tuesday. The dramatization, "The Linden," was given by the following little folks of Miss Dewar's room: Thelma Wallace, Glenn Linn, Bernice Walker, Katie Davis, James Murray, Belle Hirsch and William Brudney. Mrs. A. F. Jellen was elected to represent the club as past president delegate to the Portland Parent-Teacher Association.

Mrs. James L. Davidson, of Carters, Polk County, has been visiting her sister, Miss Abbie Wright. Mrs. Davidson is president of the Parent-Teacher

Association of her district. Since her election last May the old tumble-down schoolhouse has been replaced by a new and modern building. The parent-teacher organization in Carters is a great factor for good.

CLASSES ARE TO RESUME
Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons to be at Library January 14.
