The Last Word

Twenty alert and clever women, trained shoppers, in different parts of the United States were recently employed to go into the largest and the small exclusive shops at the last moment each month, pick up the choicest, newest ideas they could find in the way of woman's novelties for her person, her home, her child, or her kitchen, and send them by quickest mail to Philadelphia. There they are instantly photographed, put on the fastest printing presses, and quickly bound into the latest issue of THE LADIES' Home Journal as the last pages.

This insures from 40 to 60 of the newest ideas in each number of the magazine gathered at the last moment and gives one of the quickest and most up-to-date services that a magazine has ever attempted.

It is the new idea that women want in these days, and this new department will be what is called "The Last Word"-a pictorial postscript bristling with new ideas.
