SOLDIERS LAY DOWN ARMS

Joyful Shouts Rise in Hungarian Parliament When Count Tisza Announces Defeat of One of Balkan State Allies.

BERLIN, Jan. 17.—The King and the government of Montenegro on January 12 asked a cessation of hostilities and opening of peace negotiations. It was officially announced today by Austro-Hungarian headquarters today. The Austro-Hungarian government replied to Montenegro that peace negotiations were only possible if the Montenegro army unconditionally laid down its arms, the headquarters statement, as received here from Vienna, says. The Montenegro government adds the statement, yesterday accepted the Austrian conditions. "Montenegro asks for peace," said Count Tisza in the Hungarian Parliament. The proceedings under the first paragraph of the order of the day had just been completed when Count Tisza asked permission to interrupt the discussion. He said that the King and government of Montenegro had asked the inauguration of peace negotiations. The announcement caused a great commotion in Parliament. "We asked the beforehand Montenegro unconditionally lay down her arms," continued the Premier. "Joyful shouts followed this statement. "Just at this moment," continued the Premier, "the news has arrived that the unconditional laying down of arms has been accomplished. "Since the preliminary condition has been fulfilled," added the Premier, "peace negotiations will be entered into immediately."

MEDFORD GIRL IS INJURED

Caroline Andrews One of Many Victims of Train Wreck.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 17.—An Illinois Central passenger train jumped the track today near Garza, Ia., and four persons were seriously hurt and a score injured. The accident occurred as the train was approaching a bridge over a creek. The baggage car is believed to have first jumped the track pulling the other five cars from the track. Miss Caroline Andrews, of Medford, Or., a member of an opera company, was among those slightly injured. Seventeen others of the opera company were injured, the only one seriously hurt being Phil Bronson, of New York. George Walker, of Cherokee, Ia., and O. G. Sage, conductor of the train, were injured internally and may die.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 17.—Accidental death due to suffocation was the verdict of the coroner's jury today in the case of William C. Lifson, a University of Pennsylvania freshman who was killed in the bowl fight last Wednesday. Lifson, who was 17 years old, lived at Elizabeth, N. J. Dr. Edgar Smith, provost of the university, testified at the inquest that the bowl fights had been actual scrimmages for more than 50 years, and that this was the first time there had been a serious accident. Provost Smith announced that it had been decided by the students and faculty to abolish all class fights at the university.

PRUSSIAN DIET IS STORMY

AMSTERDAM, via London, Jan. 17.—The discussion of the budget in the Prussian diet today gave rise to disorderly scenes, owing to interruptions by Dr. Karl Liebknecht and other Socialists, and to conflicting opinions expressed by members of different parties on the question of reform of the electoral law. Herr Hirsch, Socialist, said: "We demand the re-establishment of the complete independence of Belgium. If the enemy governments are not yet ready to listen to demands for peace their attitude is in marked contrast to the feeling prevailing among the demanding people who everywhere are demanding peace. We demand electoral reform on behalf of women and, above all, secrecy of the ballot."
