

REPUBLICANS WILL ORGANIZE NEW CLUB

Mass Meeting Called to Be Held This Evening at Central Library.

PAST DIFFERENCES BURIED

Spurred by Activity of Democrats, Rival Party Sends Out Call With 500 Signatures—All Welcome, Men or Women.

In response to a call signed by about 500 Republicans of Portland, a mass meeting is to be held in the assembly hall of the Central Library at 8 o'clock tonight to take preliminary steps, at least, toward the organization of a new Republican club.

The idea behind the proposed organization is to establish a strong club in Portland, with branches through the state, that will be a factor in harmonizing past differences and uniting all Republicans behind the party candidates in the coming Presidential campaign.

The Democrats are already toiling like busy little bees through their Jackson Club in Kentucky and their Woodrow Wilson League, lining up "the boys" to stand by Woodrow and the party, so Republicans figure it's about time to begin a little activity themselves. Hence the call for tonight's meeting.

All citizens, whether registered as Republicans or not, will be welcome at the meeting. And there will be no distinction between men and women. In fact, women are especially invited to attend and join the organization.

The meeting will be held with the selection of temporary officers. Whether permanent organization will be effected at this meeting or a later one, will depend on the result of the meeting. There are several candidates for president of the new club.

Among those who are to speak at the meeting are C. B. Moore, Republican state chairman, and George Arthur Brown, former state chairman of the Progressive party in Oregon, who is expected to discuss the terms on which Progressives of the state will join forces with the Republicans.

The call for the meeting as signed by approximately 500 Republicans is as follows:

"We, the undersigned, believing in the principles of the Republican party as exemplified in its past history, and realizing the importance of restoring it to power in the Nation, urge all Republicans, without reference to past personal differences or affiliations, to make common cause with us in the organization in the City of Portland of a great Republican club for this state, whose sole aim shall be to lend assistance and make effective every legitimate effort for the restoration to power of the Republican party. And to that end, and for that purpose, we do hereby issue a call to all such Republicans to meet at the Central Library in the City of Portland, Or., on the 20th day of January, at 8 o'clock P. M., then and there to organize a Republican club."

D. C. Lewis is the first candidate for the Legislature from Multnomah County to line up at the starting post. He announced his candidacy yesterday for re-nomination on the Republican ticket for his present seat in the lower house. His slogan will be "Reduction of expenses, internal improvements and rural credits." He has already forwarded his declaration of candidacy to the Secretary of State, being the first legislative aspirant to take advantage of the new law whereby a candidate may have his name placed on the ballot by enclosing a fee with his declaration. Mr. Lewis will run on a platform favoring consolidation of state offices, and the rural irrigation program suggested by the recent irrigation congress. As a member of the lower house at the last Legislature Mr. Lewis fathered the bill which provided for the consolidation of Portland and St. Johns.

George J. Cameron, chairman of the Multnomah County Republican Committee, entertains ambitions to attend the Chicago convention as a delegate. He will probably announce his candidacy shortly for delegates.

INDIGESTION AND STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

The Moment "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes.

Instantly Stops Any Sourness, Gases, Heartburn, Acidity, Dyspepsia.

"Really does" put bad stomach in order—"really does" overcomes indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stomach lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you $100 worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world.

Pape's Diapepsin instantly neutralizes the acids in the stomach, stops food fermentation or souring, absorbs gases and starts the digestion. The relief is quick, sure, wonderful—stomach sufferers have pleasant surprise awaiting them.—Adv.

AUTHOR OF SLOGAN FOR 1916 ROSE FESTIVAL MAILED INVITATION TO PRESIDENT WILSON TO ATTEND.

WILSON IS INVITED

Mrs. Smith, Composer of Rose Festival Slogan, Is Sender.

PRIZE IS GIVEN WOMAN

Fred Cooper, Californian Who Designed Poster Last Year, Consents to Do Likewise Now, if Board Agrees.

Mrs. Bertha Slater Smith, composer of the winning slogan for the 1916 Rose Festival, was escorted to the Festival headquarters yesterday and received from O. C. Bortzmeyer, secretary of the Festival board, the check for $25, which was the prize awarded.

Letters of congratulation to her from President J. H. Dundore, of the Festival board, and from others were received, and then Mrs. Smith was escorted to the big mail box for the "Writing Week," at Sixth and Morrison.

Here she deposited the first official announcement of the slogan that has been sent out of Portland—a letter to President Woodrow Wilson, announcing the Festival and inviting him to visit Portland during the Festival. Mrs. Slater's slogan will be brought out on the official letterheads of the Festival board as soon as possible, while printing concerns all over the city are already arranging to incorporate the slogan in postcards, souvenirs, letter heads and stationery. Everybody will be urged to use it in the letters that are to be sent out during the remainder of "Letter-Writing Week," and by the beginning of next week everybody in the United States is supposed to know it.

For you a rose in Portland grows. Announcement of the slogan selected has been sent to Fred Cooper, in California, who designed the Festival poster last year. Mr. Cooper has signified his willingness to prepare a poster for the coming Festival if agreeable to the board.

Following is the letter dispatched by Mrs. Smith yesterday to President Wilson: "Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, Washington, D. C.—Sir: In behalf of the Rose Festival Association of Portland, Oregon, I take great pleasure in calling your attention to our Rose Festival, June 7, 8 and 9, and in extending to you and Mrs. Wilson a most cordial invitation to visit Portland at this time. I feel sure that Portland and the people of Oregon in general would be more than pleased to have you with them at this season. Our slogan this year is 'For you a rose in Portland grows.' We would, indeed, be glad to greet you and Mrs. Wilson at the hotel and here to present you with some of our choicest roses. Very respectfully yours, Mrs. Bertha Slater Smith, Winner 1916 Rose Festival Slogan Contest."

VIADUCT BID IS $33,990

GIEBISCH & JOPLIN SUBMIT LOW OFFER ON CONSTRUCTION.

Only Two Estimates Are Submitted for Fill of 790 Feet as Part of Interstate Span Approach.

Giebisch & Joplin, contractors, submitted the lowest bid yesterday for the construction of a viaduct 219 1/2 feet in length along part of the proposed extension of Union avenue from Bryant street to the city limits to form a connection with the south approach of the Interstate bridge. The bid was $33,990. The Pacific Bridge Company submitted the second lowest bid for the making of the fill. The bids were all sent to Commissioner Dieck for tabulation. He hopes to be able to recommend to the Council the award of a contract tomorrow, so that work can be started in the near future.

The bids for the filling were: Robert Wakefield, $13,417.36, and the Pacific Bridge Company, $13,975.52. Bids for construction of the viaduct were as follows:

BURGLAR'S SLOOT IS $250

Theft of Articles in Other Homes Are Reported—Plumbing—Fixtures Thief Is Sought.

Going out for the evening without stopping to lock the door to their apartment at 111 East Burnside court Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Thomas approximately $250 in goods stolen from the place Tuesday night between 3 and 11:15 o'clock.

They left the key on the inside of the door, where it was found upon their return, but the burglar had made a good selection from the contents of the flat.

The stolen goods included a $100 diamond ring, a $20 French plume, a $25 pink Coraline ring, a $30 topaz and pearl necklace, a $15 Florentine necklace, a $10 Mouse pin, a gray suit, an $8 mesh handbag, a wedding ring, $6 in cash and a number of other articles of considerable value.

Several other burglaries and near robberies were reported to the police yesterday.

Mrs. C. Westaway, 768 East Twenty-fifth street North, began missing articles from her house October 21, and one by one they have disappeared. Among the articles taken have been a gold watch, a diamond-studded brooch and a wishbone-shaped brooch. No arrests have yet been made.

The officers are also searching for the thief who removed plumbing fixtures from a vacant house owned by Mrs. J. D. Bradley, of Woodburn, at 238 East Thirty-seventh street, in Portland.

The small son of Mrs. E. W. Malloy, 34 Gladstone street, put his father's pay check under a corner of the rug, failed to tell about it, and then forgot it. Mrs. Malloy remembered putting the check for $90.43 on the shelf in the dining-room, so when she found it gone she promptly called the detectives. They found it for her.

DR. PARSONS TO FILL POST

Eugene Man to Take Bible Chair at Albany College for Part of Time.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 19.—(Special.)—Dr. William Parsons, of Eugene, will fill the newly-created Bible chair at Albany College on Tuesday and Wednesday of each week beginning next month. Arrangements for this were made this afternoon at a meeting of the board of trustees.

Dr. Parsons was recently elected to the chair, but declined and later offered his services for the two days each week. The $50,000 gift of Dr. Parsons was officially accepted by the trustees and Dr. W. H. Lee's appointment as acting president was ratified.

Astoria Gets Lone Street Work Bid.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 19.—(Special.)—Only one bid was received by the City Council committee tonight to improve five blocks on Commercial street from Seventeenth street east. The plans call for filling the street to the established grade and covering it with plankings, which is to remain until the fill is properly settled, so that hard-surface pavement can be laid. The engineer's estimate for the work was $21,000, and the Standard American Dredging Company bid $30,000. It is expected the bid will be rejected.
