BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

LAURELHURST MATRON INTERESTED IN PARENT-TEACHER AND CLUB ACTIVITIES.

CLUB CALENDAR FOR TODAY.
 Mary Antin Club, entertainment, "Little Women," Kenton School, tonight.
 Lecture, Parents' Educational Bureau, 2:30 o'clock, Courthouse.
 Woman's Auxiliary, St. Mark's Episcopal Church; Mrs. C. G. Eschelman, speaker; 3:30 o'clock, Parish House.
 Richmond Parent-Teacher Association; Mrs. Les Davenport, speaker; refreshments served.
 Portland Woman's Club; departments to meet; psychology at 1 o'clock, art at 2 o'clock, literature at 3:15 o'clock.
 Sunnyside Association, 7:45 o'clock; exhibition of children's work.
 Woodstock Association, 8 o'clock.

THE current literature department of the Portland Woman's Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. C. Low, with Mrs. Low, Mrs. C. J. Smith and Mrs. E. B. Gaze as hostesses. Mrs. P. J. Mann and Mrs. Cora Puffer presided at the table. Mrs. J. M. Reeves read Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews' book, "The Three Things." Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. The room was decorated with red carnations and palms. Among those present were Mesdames W. H. Seigrist, H. J. Biggar, L. E. Watters, J. H. Shewry, Johnson, H. L. Torrence, C. E. Dant, C. B. Simmons, G. L. Buland, L. B. Smith, Nathaniel T. Palmer, O. P. Jamison, J. L. Aldrich, C. M. Hoerber, M. A. Osborn, A. A. Bailey, Frank Menefee, A. Tilzer, B. F. Weaver, J. C. Bryant, Fred Whitton, C. Franks, A. M. Brown, J. Francis Drake, C. W. Hopkins, M. A. Ogden, J. M. Reeves, Sherman, C. J. Smith, E. B. Gaze, C. C. Low, Cora Puffer, E. McLeod, Anthony, Roberts, A. G. Dayton, A. B. Manley, E. Clerin, Hoyt, of New York; E. Brown, of Chicago, and several others.

Mrs. R. M. Tuttle and Miss Ada Alice Tuttle will repeat tomorrow night their art programme given at Mrs. Alice Webster's last Saturday. Although 70 attended the first event there came an urgent request for the affair to be given again. Pictures by some of the great masters will be shown and appropriate poetry and music will be given showing the co-relation between the fine arts.

At the last recital Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. A. D. Charlton, Mrs. C. L. Boss and Mrs. E. B. Gaze presided at the tea that followed. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Webster's art class will meet at 2:30 p. m. Both meetings will be held in Mrs. Webster's residence at East Fifteenth and Skidway streets.

An enthusiastic meeting of presidents of Parent-Teacher circles was held yesterday in the Parents' Educational Bureau and plans were made for the flag sale that will be held February 6. Mrs. A. F. Fiegel is chairman.

The Mary Antin Club, assisted by the ninth-grade boys, will give a dramatization of "Little Women" tonight in the assembly hall at Kenton School.

A candy sale will be held today at 2:30 o'clock by Shaver Parent-Teacher Association. The money will be used for practical philanthropic work in the neighborhood. Mrs. Marie Patterson, president, will be assisted by an able committee.

The art department of the Portland Woman's Club will meet today at 2 o'clock in Women of Woodcraft Hall. George B. H. Schellman will read a paper on "Correggio and Murillo-Jesuit Piety."

The women's auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal Church will meet today at 2:30 o'clock in the parish-house. All members have been urged to attend, as this is to be a most interesting meeting. Mrs. C. G. Eschelman will read a paper on "The Life of Bishop Pape of Spokane, and of Bishop Atwood of Arizona." The good works of these two distinguished prelates will also be told. Mrs. T. T. Stow is president.

Kerns School held an unusually fine exhibition yesterday. The work done by the manual training department resembled that of skilled workers; the sewing by the young girls was of a high character and the cooking was as good as if prepared by a chef.

Mrs. William M. Davis, a member of Kenton Parent-Teacher Association, is interested in school work and will assist in many efforts this season for the benefit of the parent-teacher work.

Richmond Parent-Teacher Association will meet today. Mrs. Les Davenport will speak. Important business will be transacted.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer's literature department of the Portland Woman's Club has arranged an attractive programme to begin at 2:15 o'clock today.

The grade teachers will meet on Saturday morning in the waiting-room of the Meier & Frank store at 11:45 o'clock they will go in a body to mail letters in the mammoth mail box.

market at 15 cents a dozen, and very nice Winter Neils pears at 10 cents.

In the fish market although the wintry conditions on the Columbia River have laid the fishermen almost idle for over a week, a surprising variety is offered.

Royal Chinook is very scarce, and what remains is held at 50 cents a pound; steelhead, 15 cents.

Salmon trout, 25 cents a pound.

Halibut, sanddabs, perch, soles and black cod, 15 cents a pound.

Tomcod, catfish, halibut cheeks and Puget Sound smelt, each, 12 1/2 cents a pound.

Rock cod, fresh herring and flounders, 10 cents a pound.

The rain of yesterday is expected to bring in smelt from the Columbia River very shortly. In the meantime, frozen stock, which tastes remarkably well, has been sold at 12 1/2 cents a pound.

Oysters, 50 cents a pint; lobsters, 40 cents a pound; prawns and shrimp meat, 50 cents a pound.

Crabs, 15, 20 and 25 cents each; mussels, 10 cents and hard-shell clams, 5 cents a pound.

The meat market still offers buffalo and venison steaks at 75 cents and 51 a pound.

Fresh beef tongues, averaging four pounds, 75 cents to 80 cents each.

Beef kidneys, tripe and hearts, 10 cents a pound.

Rabbit skins, 20 cents each.

In the poultry market: Turkeys, 22 1/2 to 35 cents a pound.

Guinea fowls, $1.50, and wild mallard ducks, capons, $1 each.

Squabs, very scarce, 50, 60 and 75 cents each.

Eggs, fresh ranch, water-glass and cold storage, 50, 40, 25 and 30 cents a dozen.

Butter, 40 cents a pound; 75 cents a roll.

Portland-made cheese is on the market at 25 cents a pound. It has the taste of sharp American and is very nice indeed.

Imported Swiss, 50 cents; Wisconsin Swiss, 35 cents a pound.

Sauerkraut, 10 cents a quart, which has won the approbation of a number of good old Dutch cleansers.

Dried Black Republican and Lambert cherries, from The Dalles, 10 cents a pound.

The kraut, cherries, honey, preserved fruits, and much else for which economical housewives keep their eyes open, can be found down in the Carrol Public Market.

Wheat has gone to $1.12 and $1.14 per bushel. Flour will advance proportionately. Better buy that flour NOW.

GOOD THINGS IN THE MARKET

ALTHOUGH climatic conditions at either end of the line are fortunately very unusual, California is furnishing a daily supply of new season's vegetables, and the price has already begun to decline.

Green peas and string beans are 20 cents a pound this week. Cucumbers, 25 cents each.

Artichokes are 15 cents and lettuce heads 10 cents each.

Flood River potatoes, of even sizes for baking, are $2 for a sack of 115 pounds; other stock $1.10, six pounds for 10 cents. Sweet potatoes, six pounds for a quarter.

Fancy celery hearts, 20 cents a bunch, but local celery can be had at half this price.

Bromsels sprouts and rhubarb are each 15 cents a pound.

Hubbard squash, 10 and 20 cents each; dried onions, five pounds, 10 cents; French carrots and leeks are each 10 cents a bunch.

California spinach, two pounds, 25 cents, and entire, 3 cents a head.

Chico tomatoes, 20 cents a pound, and bell pepper, 25 cents.

Celery root, two pounds, 15 cents; cabbage, 2 1/2 cents a pound, and heads, 10 and 15 cents each.

Oranges have begun to stiffen in price, but can be had all the way from 25 to 50 cents a dozen; lemons, 10 to 30 cents.

Florida grapefruit, two for a quarter, and California, 5 cents each, in some quarters eight for 25 cents.

Bananas, 20 and 25 cents a dozen; pineapple, 10 cents a pound; cocoanut, 15 cents each; pomegranates, three for a quarter.

Cape Cod cranberries, 15 cents a quart.

Imperial grapes, 20 cents, and white Malaga, 25 cents a pound.

The choicer varieties of apples are rising in price, and now range from $1.85 to $2 a box.
