M. Word, Jr., Miss Mildred Whittlesey, Miss Bertha Masters, Miss Flawine Killingsworth, Miss Florence Kendall, Miss Gertrude Holmes, Mrs. William Heinzer, Miss Ruby Hammarstrom, Miss Lenora Hansen, Miss Ailene Gehr, Miss Flora Dunham, Miss Zillah Crawford, Mrs. E. S. Cobb and Miss Beulah Bridges.

The cast of characters follows:

Miss Matilda Jenkins, the rector's daughter, Mrs. M. C. Robins, Miss Mary Smith, her sister, Miss Charlotte Hamilton, Miss Brown, a new resident, Miss Laura Shay; Miss Peina, a friend of Miss Jenkins; Miss Anna Palmer; Mrs. Furmister, born a Tyrrel; Mrs. Cora Puffer; Miss Betty Barker, retired milliner; Miss Ruth Dunaway; The Hon. Mrs. Jamison, society leader, Mrs. M. Baruh; Martha, maid to Mrs. Jenkins; Mrs. G. J. Finkler; Miss Jenny; Miss Winifred Crabtree.

There will be three acts, with appropriate stage setting.

Miss Ruth Dunaway, who will be Miss Betty Barker, the retired milliner, secured a success recently in the play put on in the Portland Heights clubhouse by the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. She is gifted in a dramatic way and has a charming personality.

Mrs. Cora Puffer, a member of the Women's Club, one of the most popular of clubwomen, has unusual talent. She is to be the dead lady in the play and is a strong comedy support. Mrs. M. Baruh's work is always enjoyed.

There will be the society woman, with her dog, "Spuddy," and her many airs and graces.

Miss Laura Shay has a chance to do some clever dancing after the first act in the singing and will dance the fashionable, quaint dances will be introduced. All others in the cast are adapted admirably for the parts they take.

Many of Portland's prominent women are interested in the banquet that will be held on or about February 14 and the auspices of the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers. Tribute will be paid to the pioneers. Among those on the committee are Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. S. B. Houston, Mrs. Benton Killin, Mrs. P. J. Bannan, Colonel R. A. Miller and M. C. George.

Bible study classes are becoming quite popular among various groups of women.

Thursday morning at 10:20 o'clock, in the Bible room of the Y. W. C. A., Mrs. H. E. Millard, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church, will begin a short Bible course for the women's class to which all women are cordially invited.

The Woman's Civic Welfare Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in room E, Central Library, for a discussion on "Self-Help as Reformation and Solution to the Unemployed Problem." The meeting is public.

Central W. C. T. U. will be addressed today by Will H. Warren, secretary to Mayor Albee. The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock at 1714 Eleventh street. Miss Frances Gotschall will give the musical programme. Mrs. Lottie Murray will lead the praise service.

At the Y. W. C. A. vespers service Mrs. Robert H. Tate gave an interesting talk to 50 or more girls. She told what was being done in all parts of the world to educate people to a higher appreciation of child life.

There will be a baby test at the parents' educational bureau in the Court House today. Parents are requested to telephone to the bureau for reservations, as there are many applicants for these tests. Phone Marshall 235. A flag sale for the benefit of the bureau and other child welfare work will be held February 5.

Mrs. Alice Weister's art class will meet on Saturday at 2:30 o'clock in her home, East Fifteenth and Skikyou streets. Mrs. Weister is state chairman for art for the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and recently has been chosen a member of the General Federation board in the department of art.

Eighty guests enjoyed Mrs. R. M. Tuttle's lecture on art, given in Mrs. Weister's home Saturday night. Miss Ada Alice Tuttle provided the incidental and interpretative music.

Mrs. Lola P. Staron, a member of the auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans, who returned from a visit to Toledo, O., after an absence of four months, is registered at the Hotel Carlton. During her stay in Toledo, she attended the joint installation exercises of the Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary.

On account of conflicting dates the Hawthorne Buckman Parent-Teacher Association's joint meeting planned for Thursday night will be postponed and time of meeting will be announced later.

The Portland Grade Teachers' Association will meet today at 4:30 o'clock in the library. This will be a business session.

The Woman's Society of the First Presbyterian Church held an all-day meeting yesterday. Sewing for the needy, a luncheon for men and women at noon, a business session and a programme occupied the day. Fordyce T. Richards spoke on censorship. He urged the people to take a stand and create a sentiment for better pictures.

The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Graduate Nurses' Association will be held in the Public Library today at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Grace Watt Ross will give an informal talk on parliamentary law and Captain Speier, harbor master, will give a demonstration of the lung motor.

Mrs. John Felleman entertained the Portland Study Club Monday. Among those who contributed interestingly to the programme were Mrs. J. J. Curfiss, Mrs. E. K. Myers, Mrs. R. E. Gehr, Mrs. M. O. Bromberger, Mrs. W. O. Feen-aughty and Mrs. D. J. Russell. On February 28 the club will meet with Mrs. W. L. Johnson, 491 East Forty-fifth street.

Miss Josephine Hammond will lecture in the library this afternoon on "Dramatic Literature." Laurelhurst Study Club members will attend in a body. The club met Monday with Mrs. R. E. Watkins, as leader. Readings were given by Mrs. A. C. Chandler and Mrs. R. C. Little.

A resolution adopted by the California Federation of Women's Clubs, honoring Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles for the General Federation presidency, will be sent to every state federation.

Preparations for the celebration of the National Y. W. C. A. are being made by the Portland Association, of which Miss Carrie A. Holbrook is president.

Scientists have figured that the earth is thickest along an imaginary line drawn from the top of Chimborazo, a mountain in Ecuador, to a point on the coast of Sumatra, where the land is fairly high.
