

MRS. MOHR'S RIVAL IN MRS. MOHR'S HEART

Woman Admits Early Friendship Was Cause of First Break With Husband.

FIRST MARRIAGE IN DOUBT

Doctor Said to Have Been Earning $52,000 a Year at Time Suit for Separate Allowance of $100 a Month Was Filed.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 27.—The first serious outbreak in the marital relations of the late Dr. C. Franklin Mohr and his wife, Elizabeth F. Mohr, who is charged with having hired two negroes to kill him, occurred at the time she told her husband of her friendship for a man named Samuel A. McDougall, who is now a minister in Pictou, Nova Scotia. This statement was elicited from Mrs. Mohr in the course of a severe cross-examination today by Attorney-General Rice. Step by step the prosecuting attorney brought out the details of Mrs. Mohr's life. Occasionally she broke down and sobbed.

Preference for Minister Admitted. "The doctor was under the influence of drugs," said Mrs. Mohr. "He asked me if I preferred McDougall to him and I told him that the way he was acting I thought McDougall would have been better, as he did not touch liquor."

Marriage Performed Later. Mrs. Mohr later said that she and the doctor were married at Lynn, Mass., May 24, 1909. The doctor thought it would be best, she said, on account of the children.

Earlier Mrs. Mohr had told of repeated beatings by her husband which she objected to his attentions to other women. Questioned further by her counsel, Arthur Cushing, she said a reconciliation in 1912, followed soon by the final break.

The following letter from Manager Hodges recounts the experience and condition of many Portland men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y. "I am the general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beef, Iron and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable in weight."—Samuel Hodges, 531 Stone ave.

BEACH LANDMARK GOES

Top of Arch of Jump-Off Joe at Newport Is Torn Away.

COURTMARTIAL IS PROBABLE FOLLOWING VENTURE INTO MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—There was no indication tonight that the United States Government would consider any action necessary in the case of the two American soldiers captured yesterday by armed Mexicans near Brownsville, Tex., and returned unharmed to their commands today, other than to investigate the incident and probably court-martial Lieutenants Peyton, Mort and Waldron, who led the detachment of soldiers into Mexican territory to rescue their comrades. Secretary Garrison said positive orders had been given every officer in the Army not to cross the boundary under any provocation without specific instructions from Washington. Should the investigation ordered by Major-General Funston prove that the officers violated this order, it was said they undoubtedly would be court-martialed and probably held responsible

STORM'S GENERAL OVER CALIFORNIA

Barometer Reading Reaches Lowest Figure on Record at San Francisco.

COMMUNICATION CUT OFF

Two Feet of Water in San Diego Telegraph Office Put Wires Out of Business—Snow Falling in Mountain Region.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The storm on the Pacific Coast was general in all sections of California today. The southern part of the state was generally cut off from wire communication. Before the wires began to go down there were reports of heavy damage by flood and wind.

The United States Weather Bureau barometer here registered 29.95 just before noon today, the lowest on record for San Francisco since readings were recorded, beginning in 1871. Last night it registered 29.85.

The Weather Bureau said the remarkable performance of the barometer was caused by the intensity of the storm, the center of which was passing over here. General flood warnings were sent out at once over Southern California.

Rainfall Makes New Record. The rainfall here at noon was 13.52 inches for January, and 21.18 inches for the season. The January figures constituted a record for that month. Only four years since the establishment of the Weather Bureau here in 1871 had a greater total rainfall than the present season.

There's two feet of water in the office," said a telegraph operator in San Diego today, talking to San Francisco wire failed, shutting off the town over the wire, and a moment later the from outside telegraphic communication.

Continued rains and snow upset telephony and telegraph arrangements in many places west of the Mississippi River. Telegraph wires were routed from Kansas City to Dallas, Tex., back up to Denver and from Denver to San Francisco.

LONG BEACH IS FLOODED

The heaviest rainfall ever recorded at Long Beach during a 24-hour period registered 3.33 inches early today, and all but a trace of the amount had fallen since 6 o'clock last night. As a result, the city's streets were running curb high in places with water and the basements of numerous business places were filled, while outlying sections were covered with water almost the same depth as during the high water a week ago.

Michael Tierman, a wood chopper, was frozen dead today three miles south of Redding, covered by a heavy fall of snow which fell early in the day, and which caused the collapse of small buildings there and in surrounding towns. A wing of the Kellogg Hotel at Hayfork and scores of barns were crushed by the weight of the snow, added to that of previous storms.

Snow was reported falling all over Northern California.

LOS ANGELES USES WIRELESS

Hundreds of Men Working to Keep One Railway Line Open.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—(By radio to San Francisco.)—Los Angeles depended tonight on radio service as the only means of telegraphic communication with the rest of the world, while strenuous efforts were being made by hundreds of railroad workers to keep the valley line of the Southern Pacific—the only system of land transportation which withstood the terrific storm which is raging here—from succumbing to the ravages of wind and rain.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I was a big woman as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every woman I know I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

operate in the task of holding good the sole remaining line of land communication. At San Pedro, where Los Angeles Harbor is located, great breakers swept the piers and breakwaters and outgoing shipping was paralyzed. Only two incoming vessels successfully crossed the bar. These were the steam schooners A. M. Simpson and Yosemite, which entered the harbor showing the effects of the battering seas and heavy gale.

RELIEF THOUGHT LOST

FOUR DISAPPEAR IN FOG ON RETURN FROM FIRE ISLAND. Castaways Off Alaskan Shore Whom Party Sought Believed to Be Dead or Taken by Unknown Vessel.

SEWARD, Alaska, Jan. 27.—Four men who crossed the channel to Fire Island to rescue the castaways missing there by the Cook Inlet ice field became lost in the fog while attempting to return to the mainland and it is feared that they were lost, according to word received here today from the rescue party camping at Campbell Point. Watchers on the shore saw the men, Ole Jacobson, Balmyer, Wicks and Irwin, reach the island safely and go ashore to search for the castaways. After a time they returned to their duty alone and started back through the ice fields several hours later. They had rowed only a short distance when a heavy fog swept down on the channel and the men were lost to view. When the fog lifted several hours later no trace of the dory or its crew was to be seen.

Members of the rescue party camping at Campbell Point believe the castaways whom Jacobson and his men sought to rescue had been taken off by some unknown boat from Turnagain Arm or died from exposure while awaiting assistance. No response to signal fires and rifle shots has been received from the island since Monday night.
