

FERRIS BILL IS NOT TO BE PASSED BY LABOR

Motion Presented in State Convention Dies Before It Comes to Vote.

SALEM GETS NEXT MEET

Nominations Made for Officers and Delegates of Federation to Be Referred to Members of Individual Unions.

While the Oregon Federation of Labor adopted a waterpower resolution in the closing hours of its session yesterday, it failed to make a motion to have the body memorialize Congress to enact the Ferris bill now pending on this subject.

Delegate Lawrence had made the motion to memorialize. It was apparent that there was a latent opposition and the matter was sent over to the afternoon session for further consideration.

The convention doubled the amount of its per-capita tax on the unions affiliated with it, and referred it to a vote of the various unions for ratification. It was the purpose of some in the body to push the increase through without referendum, but Delegate McKenzie headed this off by moving the referendum. Debate was sharp and general over the proposition.

Heretofore the tax was one and a half cents for each member of every union affiliated with the federation. Hereafter it will be three cents a month. If the referendum is successful, the plan is to raise $2500 during the current year, so as to finance the "people's land and loan bill" for the election in November.

Salem Next Meeting Place.

Salem was recommended to the incoming executive board of the federation as the next place for holding the convention. This was done just before final adjournment of the session last night. Under the constitution of the body, all officers are nominated on the floor of the convention and elected by a referendum vote of the unions. The following nominations were made:

For president, C. M. Ryneron, printer; T. H. Burchard, musician, and Otto Hartwig, painter.

Vice-presidents, H. L. Kelly, barber, Secretary-treasurer, E. J. Stack, cigar-maker.

Delegates Are Nominated.

Delegates to the American Federation of Labor, Benjamin Osborn, iron worker; Eugene E. Smith, electrical worker.

Delegates to Oregon State Grange convention, T. H. Burchard, C. H. Keller, and R. A. Turner, printer.

Delegates to the Farmers' Union convention, O. E. Hibbs, carpenter; E. J. Burrell, Salem.

Delegates to the Washington State Federation of Labor, Mrs. L. Gee, garment worker.

For the election board, E. H. Pickard, painter; E. W. Stearn, carpenter; A. C. Turner, printer.

For Portland members of the executive board, Mrs. L. Gee, Frank Hanson, civil service worker; C. Turner, printer.

For members for Salem, W. H. Pittcock and E. J. Bend, Astoria; H. M. Lortsen.

Tariff Board Indorsed.

Indorsement was given again for the non-partisan, non-political, non-union National Chambers of Commerce, through the Portland Chamber, presented to the body.

When Mrs. C. reported as chairman of the committee which looked after the use of union labels, J. T. Madson objected to the use of the word "disfranchisement" and the word "deport" which was accepted. W. M. McKenzie charged that firms and manufacturers using union labels were employing non-union workers.

Disfranchisement Motion Referred. The resolution from a pacifist for a world disarmament was referred to the executive board, and the resolution relative to water-power strikes and the like conservation was read and adopted by unanimous consent, as follows:

Whereas, it appears that there are within the boundaries of this state many magnificent undeveloped water-power possibilities, which in time will be harnessed to meet the needs of an ever-growing population;

Whereas, it appears that the greater part of the developed water power of the Nation has passed to the control of a small number of capitalists who are endeavoring to acquire the cream of undeveloped power possibilities throughout the West and thus in time completely control the production of hydroelectric energy throughout the United States;

Whereas, the representatives of these vast interests have been quietly, but diligently at work to secure the passage of legislation which would further their selfish ends;

Whereas, they have recently prevailed upon certain of our public officials to attempt to place this state on record before our Federal courts as favoring the contentions of this selfish interest in what is known as the Utah power case, be it member of the governing board of the institute. The request was granted.

Mr. Daly Is Speaker. City Commissioner Will Daly spoke to the body, saying that the labor report on the fishing in Columbia River and pointed out that methods which had been estimated, but he favored the excess because it would go to the Fortland workmen, for the most part.

H. M. Lortsen, of Astoria, spoke upon the fishing in Columbia River and pointed out that methods which had been estimated, but he favored the excess because it would go to the Fortland workmen, for the most part.

Jack Rosin, of the Seaman's Union, explained the seaman's act, and the convention indorsed it. He reviewed the history of the act, showing that it took

SON OF OREGON HEADS NEWBERG COMMERCIAL CLUB.

NEWBERG, Or., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—For the first time in the history of the Newberg Commercial Club all of its officers were re-elected at the annual meeting this year. George L. Kelly, re-elected president, has been a member of the board of governors of the club every year but one since he came to Newberg eight years ago. Mr. Kelly is a native of Newberg, having been born in 1857 in Polk County.

George L. Kelly. The seamen of this country 25 years to get it. The convention adjourned sine die at 6 o'clock.

GAUNT GUEST OF HONOR

BANQUET GIVEN FOR DEPARTING WESTERN UNION MANAGER.

San Francisco Praise Official for Efficiency and He Replies by Landing Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Charles H. Gaunt, who leaves the position of general manager of the Pacific division of the Western Union Telegraph Company to assume similar duties in Chicago, was the guest of honor today at a banquet given at the Bohemian Club and attended by nearly 100 representative men of San Francisco.

Allocations were made to the efficiency which Mr. Gaunt has established in this division, territorially the largest district in the country. It is this accomplishment which dictated his call to the Bohemian Club. In answering these expressions of appreciation he said in part:

"For five years I have tried to be some small part, at least, of the life on the Pacific Coast. I have studied its people and their activities, have marveled at their energy and their unselfishness, and have been the recipient of loyalty. The attributes of its people have brought an empire to the Pacific Coast, and because of them I must operate at a profit until it transcends in power and beauty all other empires.

"The loyalty of the Pacific Coast is not a blind obedience, but the loyalty that places each man's shoulder against the common foe and keeps the shoulder against the wheel to support the common cause to help a brother."

Many congratulatory speeches were made by men of the Pacific Coast, felicitating Mr. Gaunt on his work in this district and wishing him success in his new field.

HOMES FOR BOYS ASKED

AID SOCIETY'S INSTITUTION IS CROWDED WITH TOTS.

Temporary Places From Which Parentless Youngsters May Attend School Are Sought.

If you were a little boy not 10 years old and had no mother to love or care for you, and had to live in the Boys and Girls Aid Society home, how would you like it if some good-hearted couple would open their home and their hearts and take you in and give you a chance to go to school and have nice, warm clothes and good food? Wouldn't you be happy?

The 25 little boys under the age of 16 years who are out at the Boys and Girls Aid Society may not be saying just this, but they are in great need of home and mothering, and kind attention to their needs.

There are now in the Aid Society's care 45 boys and 25 girls, and the place is crowded. It is thought best to get the little ones under good influence and give them a chance to get a start in life in the right environment. Any one who takes a few weeks, according to the plan, with Mr. Arno or Mrs. Heller, East 5.

U-BOATS MENACE BRITAIN

Liner Escorted by Torpedo-Boats Through Danger Zone.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Numerous German submarines have been sighted in the war zone around the British Isles during the last few weeks, according to reports which arrived today on the steamship California from Liverpool and Glasgow.

The sailing of the steamer was delayed one day owing to the reported presence of the U-boats, and the California was escorted by torpedo-boat destroyers until outside the war zone.

UNDER STOCKS DECLARED SMALL

West Coast Dealers Elect Eugene Man as Vice-President of Body.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—J. H. Bloedel was re-elected president of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association by delegates tonight after a dinner to the members of the association at the Rainier Club. Other officers elected were: A. C. Dixon, of Eugene, vice-president; Oregon; L. Paine, Hiram, vice-president for Washington; P. B. Hubbard, Centralia, treasurer; Thorpe Babcock, Seattle, secretary.

Representatives of the industry from all over the territory attended the annual meeting today and heard optimistic reports of the trade, which showed a cut of 75 per cent of the normal stiffening markets and a sustained advance in price.

The name of the organization was changed by vote, following the report of the committee, to the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, by which it hereafter will be officially known. Trustees, who elect the executive officers, were chosen as follows:

R. S. Shaw, Hammond Lumber Company, Astoria; E. B. Hazen, Bridal Veil Lumber Company, Bridal Veil, Or.; E. D. Kingsley, West Oregon Lumber Company, Linnton, Or.; H. C. Dixon, Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, Eugene, Or.; E. Soudeter, South Bend Mills & Lumber Company, South Bend; F. B. Hubbard, Eastern Railway & Lumber Company, Centralia; J. G. Dickson, Pacific State Lumber Company, Tacoma; W. B. Nettleton, Schwager, Nettleton Mills, Seattle; J. H. Bloedel, Biedel-Donovan Lumber Mills, Bellingham; E. C. Knight, Pacific Lumber Company, Vancouver, B. C., and A. L. Paine, National Lumber & Manufacturing Company, Hoquiam, Wash.

The report of the committee indicated a practical elimination among manufacturers of running double shifts in the face of strong markets and an inclination against the higher demand. It was announced that the feeling in the trade was more uniformly encouraging than at any time for two years.

J. D. Moffitt, a prominent lumberman of Toledo, O., in an address before the assembly, declared that the Southern manufacturers have advanced the price of their product at a much more rapid rate than have the manufacturers of Douglas fir. None of the yards east of Chicago, he said, were equipped to handle the product, and the majority of these held stocks below the normal demand.

President Reports Disposition of Millmen to Be Against Operating Double Shifts, Owing to Danger of Bearing Market.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Twelve hundred persons witnessed the military tournament tonight at the Oregon Agricultural College. Governor Withycombe was present and the regiment passed in review in his honor. Adjutant-General White also was present.

Other out-of-town guests of the tournament were: Colonel McLaughlin, Major Knapp, Captain Mielchrook and Lieutenant Swavarsky of the Oregon National Guard, and Lieutenant K. P. Williams, of the United States Army.

The success of the tournament was due to the precision in which the 18 events were conducted. Following the parade and review there were battalion drills, after which the competitions were held.

The private and competitive drills the successful men were Sergeant D. P. Spaulding, Corporal O. H. Hampton and Private J. C. Hirsick. S. E. Brett, cadets major, won the officers' saber drill. L. P. Mitchell won the sharpshooters' retreat, and the equipment race was won by F. Cronemer, of the Department of Artillery. The Third Battalion won. After two preliminary trouts the winners pulled against each other. W. N. Hooper was the victor in the relay race. The team carried away honors in the relay, Company L won the back to back race and T. J. Lowe was first in the shoe scramble.

The big event of the tournament was the tug-of-war, in which the Third Battalion won. After two preliminary trouts the winners pulled against each other. W. N.
