riage at the proper time, and the boy asserts that he is prepared to prove his nationality.

He had a heart-to-heart talk yesterday with Harry Bulger, special agent of Multnomah County, about whose office in the Courthouse the insanity examination and its surrounding events were centered, and Mr. Bulger encouraged him.

He told the boy to go to the home of the bride and frankly discuss the situation with the mother. He also told him to relate to her, as Cebell had told Mr. Bulger, that he is willing to wait, as they had been waiting before the trouble of last Sunday, until, perhaps, Miss Link is strong in health. The suitor also was advised to tell the mother that he has aiready arranged for a little home in his father's flats, the Cebell Apartments, and has sufficient wages as an expert plumber to support a home.

The reversal of Wednesday's events, before he realized, as Mr. Bulger explained to him, the strength of home ties, and his own sweetheart, whom he had fought for, apparently turning against him, saw him seemingly illted. His mother was ill in bed yesterday from the sequence of events centering about her son. about her son.

But bright and early yesterday morn-ing young Cebell was downtown pre-paring to straighten them out. In the meantime Mr. Bulger had talked with the mother and brother of Miss Link. Miss Link.
"That love stuff," he told them. "is a hard thing to crush," and he spoke a word for the boy. He believes that the story will end happily.
