BERRY SUBMITS TO PAYROLL OF $4500

Opposition to Wishes of Salt Lake, Portland and Oakland Disappears.

MEETING PLAN GOES AHEAD

San Francisco Magnate Wants to Have Powers and Chance There to Hear Him Say Things About the McCredies.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31 .- (Spe cial.)—Henry Berry has practically made up his mind that he will oppose the attitude of the three Coast League ciubs whose owners have already derided they do not want the salary cided they do not want the salary limit increased.

"I have always said I would be for the best interests of the league," he declared today. "From what I have read in the newspapers, McCredie, of Portland; Murphy, of Salt Lake; and Leavitt, of Oakland, are opposed to any change in our $4500 monthly limit, "These are the weak clubs of the league from a financial standpoint, and if they are unalterably opposed to any salary increase, I think the rest of us will have to stand by them. That's the only way I can look at the matter."

As matters look just now, there will be three clubs represented at the special meeting called for Tuesday—San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles.

Frank Murphy, of Salt Lake, telephoned President Baum recently that he could not make the trip at this particular time and asking for a post-ponement.

The meeting is not apt to be an important one, since the result has already been discounted. With three clubs dead opposed to a $500 monthly basis, there is not much chance that anything will happen.

Berry, who has abandoned any hope of seeing the scheme go through, says he has telegraphed Johnny Powers and Chance to be sure to be in San Francisco Tuesday, meeting or no meeting. He wants to talk with the Angel magnate with reference to the McCredic squabble as well as on other business.

Oakland Club President Comes Out for $4500 Payroll.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30 .- (Special. -The death knell to the raising of the Coast League salary limit was sounded Saturday night when President Leavitt gave out an official statement declaring the Cakland ciub is opposed to any increase over the present limit of $4500.

Inasmuch as Portland and Salt Lake have also announced they would vote in opposition to any increase, it means the scheme suggested by Ed. Maier and Johnny Powers must go by the boards, and they will have to get along on the limit that suits at least 50 per cent of the club.

"In fact," remarks Edwards, in a letter to the sporting editor of The Oregonian, "he is one of the best hustlers that either Cleveland club has had in several years, and many Cleveland fans regret that Manager Lee Fohl did not see fit to retain him for a trial with the Cleveland Americans.

"Bill is only a youngster, and his baseball career has been limited to playing with Erie in the Central League and with the Cleveland American Association team. He bats and throws right-handed."
