

WOMEN'S CLUBS
BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

VICE-PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN CHAIRMAN OF PROGRAMME FOR NEXT MEETING.

MRS. M. BARUH.

—Busnell Photo.

THE list of assignments for workers for child welfare day, when flags will be sold for the benefit of child welfare work in the Parent-Teacher Associations has been made by the ways and means committee as follows: Meler & Frank, Dr. Carey Talbot; Olds, Wortman & King, Mrs. W. H. Hawkins; Portland Hotel, Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens; Yoon building, Mrs. E. K. Covert; Owl drug store, Mrs. J. D. Sullivan; Woodard's, Mrs. E. Carlson; Mrs. J. Stevens; Roberts Bros., Mrs. Harriet Hendee; Lipman, Wolfe & Co., Mrs. E. H. Frassella; Mrs. Thomas G. Greene; Northwestern Bank building, Mrs. J. C. Alexander; Mrs. A. H. Lora; Perkins Hotel, Mrs. L. N. Walker; Mrs. Ethel Farrington; Oregon Hotel, Mrs. J. F. Hilder; Jefferson-street station, Mrs. Otto Kasky; Mrs. E. A. Herzbach; Mrs. C. J. Gessell.

Others assisting will be: Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, Mrs. E. E. Boush, Mrs. F. S. Myers, Mrs. R. H. Tate, Mrs. W. F. Fiebig, Mrs. J. L. Mount, Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. A. King Wilson, Mrs. Charles Hillman, Mrs. E. Kinsey, Mrs. J. F. Chapman, Mrs. C. P. Clark, Mrs. E. H. Jagham, Mrs. Aristone Felts, Mrs. Mattie Yall and Mrs. Julia La Barre.

Friday will be an important day for the Portland Parent-Teacher Council members. There will be, in addition to the general meeting, separate gatherings of the various committees. A few of these are scheduled as follows: Social service, room 11, 10 A. M.; president's conference, 10:30 A. M.; programme, room 11 A. M.; Juvenile Court committee, room 11 A. M.; luncheon, Hazelwood, 11 noon; general meeting, 1:30, Library; business for council members and teachers, 3:30 P. M. Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens is president.

Two events are postponed for today, on account of the weather. The Coterie will not meet and the Daughters of the Confederacy will not have their party tonight. Mrs. Anton Gleich, in speaking of the latter event, said "We will have it when the weather cheers up, but until then."

Dr. Eva Walker said the same of the reception planned by the Aid Society of the Atholton Memorial Church for Rev. Thomas Anderson.

Show did not hinder the members of the Bass Line Improvement Club from attending their recent meeting. They went in improvised sleighs and "and the line of their trees." This is a community club, many of the members living at long distances from the clubhouse.

The meeting of the Council of Jewish Women which was scheduled for today has been postponed one week on account of the weather. The next meeting will be February 9.

The school beautifying committee held an interesting meeting Monday afternoon in the Meler & Frank Company's music room. Mrs. Julia Marquand gave a talk. An exhibition of plants and a talk by Miss Setzer, of the library, were features.

The meeting of Alberta Woman's Improvement Club, which was scheduled for last night, was postponed.

All members of the Portland Fruit and Flower Mission are asked to attend the meeting Thursday at 10 o'clock in the day nursery. Election of officers and annual reports will be part of the program.

The Portland Shakespeare Study Club's luncheon that was to have been held on Thursday in the Hotel Imperial will not take place until the weather improves. This was planned as one of the big events of the season, but it will have to be given later.

The Woman's Civic Welfare Club will hold a special meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in room 11, Central Library. Mrs. Carrie W. Allen will speak on "Women and Children in Industry." The meeting is public.

STYLE TIPS FROM PORTLAND STORES

HERALDS of milder days are the striking suits that entered Portland shops yesterday, although almost every one may be worn during February in any reasonable sort of weather. There are green checked, rose, blue and plain green velours, all appointments of the smartest cut, and with the earmarks of the new school of design. The usual black and white check, which is always good and abundant, is in the minority. There is a composite colored check, and here and there a plaid or two, and a bright colored model in plain material comprise the assortment. There is a tendency toward combining tailors' lines with fancy cuts that has resulted in real suits that are not easily mistaken for a frock nor yet made in a mould.

A green velour of quarter-inch check features a flaring tail and black kid trimmings. The collar stands high, is buttoned clear up and flares about the chin. The same idea is executed in the cuffs without the leather. A make-believe box pleat with buttons on each side is the finishing under arm seams. The medium wide felt passes under four half-moons of black kid and fastens in front with a simple buckle. The skirt is as good looking as the natty jacket, and, though neither circular nor pleated, is quite wide. A four-inch yoke is finished on both sides of the hips with buttons covered with self-material, and on both sides of the skirt are sewed-down box pleats with buttons on each side near the hem.

There is a stunning line of suits in plain navy blue, black whipcord, sand-colored gabardine and brown or light brown jersey cloth, which is so very popular this spring, both on the street and for sport clothes.

There will be no dreary days in February for the wearer of an almost ashen rose velour with black velvet trimmings. So rich in tone and so keen in contrast is this model that it stands out in relief among all the others. Straight shoulders lead to belt right at the waistline. But the black velvet belt doesn't go clear around. It is intercepted at the sides with loops of the rose velour that are caught with buttons to the rest of the belt, which is about seven inches in the center back. Fine black velvet piping finishes the turnback cuffs. Big white pearl buttons run up the front to the top of a high, snug, black velvet collar and are repeated on the sleeves just above the cuffs.

The suits are not, as is often the case at the "top-of-the-ladder price," but are made rather reasonable, and the most exclusive of the season's pick are now in the shops. Already some fashion followers have adopted the "Do-Your-Spring-Shopping-Hurry" slogan and are rapidly buying the new suits.

PLAYGROUND IDEA FAVORED

East Side Club Backs Proposed Move at Laurelhurst Park.

"Commissioner Baker will have the cordial support of the East Side Club in the proposed move of the playground to take over block 95 in Laurelhurst Park for playground purposes. We believe it a move in the right direction, but we made our campaign for a swimming pool for this central district for the 14,000 school children," said Secretary Lepper yesterday.

JITNEYS SOUGHT IN VAIN

Machines Snowbound Day Regulation Is to Begin.

Yesterday was the day set for first enforcement of the jitney regulation ordinance, but there were no jitneys to regulate. Practically all were snow-bound, the police reported.

The Council tomorrow will vote on the proposed amendments to the regulation ordinance submitted by Commissioner Daly, to allow the jitneys to stop on either side of intersections instead of only on the near side, as provided in the present ordinance.

DR. JACKSON SAYS "DON'T STIR IT"

He is the inventor of Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal, and if anyone in the world should know how it should be cooked, he is the one.

He says: "Do not stir Roman Meal porridge while it is cooking." If you were to hear his lecture on this food, you would not stir it. There are three scientific reasons for not stirring it, too long to be stated here. Roman Meal positively relieves constipation and indigestion. Stirring a porridge partly defeats this purpose, besides entirely changing the flavor all together robbing it of its deliciousness. Cook without stirring.
