

FAY'S "LAST WORD" RECEIVED BY BAT

Cartoonist "Wife Who Wasn't Wife" Willing to Have Marriage Annulled.

FREEDOM WANTED AT ONCE

Mrs. Nelson Laughs at Suggestion of Alimony, Asking Why Money Should Be Mentioned After She Has Long Earned Own Way.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—(Special.)—The postscript to the scolding letter from Mrs. Nelson Love letters, the fervent epistles of woody lambs and affection, has been received. It is the last of the letters received by the pugilist on the artist's letter head of Fay Kline, the cartoonist, he married in January, 1911. Bat wants the marriage annulled, contending that Fay was "wedded, but no wife," and in his behalf Attorney Emilio V. van Deen has filed a suit for annulment. The earlier letters were interesting and amusing documents in the life of a pugilist. The "last word" follows: "Sunday, January 22, 1916.—Dear Bat: Your special delivery letter received this morning. You flatter me when you insist that my letters to you are written under legal advice. I need no legal advice to tell me what to say. I merely am expressing my thoughts and the truth. "You ask me the following questions, which I will place in the order you put them: "1. When do you want it? (Legal freedom.) "2. The answer the better. "3. Why do you want it? "4. Because I married you against my will and never intended to live with you again, because you have been separated for years, and it isn't fair to either of us that we should be bound to each other as we are. "5. How do you want it? (Divorce, separate maintenance, money as compensation with absolute divorce, to assume the name of Miss Fay Kline, or at no cost to me, annulment or law?) "6. Since you have not contributed one cent toward my support since June, 1911, why speak of money now? I only wish my legal freedom, and I don't want money from you. It seems to me the safest way would be for you to divorce me on desertion. But if you have made investigations and find that I would be easier, that's up to you. "7. I hope that I have answered your questions satisfactorily, and I hope that this matter will soon be settled. "8. In justice to yourself, if not to me, I should think you would want to be free. I am nothing to you and never will be. "9. My marriage to you, forced as it was, and farce that it was, meant nothing to me. Had you ever had my interests at heart, you would not have dragged me to Chicago as you did. "10. I filled my part of the bargain when I went through the ceremony as you begged me to do because you were afraid of what will people say? "11. I think this is sufficient."

GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR DIG OUT OF CANADIAN CAMP AND ESCAPE TO THE UNITED STATES, WHERE THEY ENJOY FULL FREEDOM.

LEFT TO RIGHT—HANS NEU, WILLIAM SCHROEDER, GEORGE KLEINWERT, GUSTAV HARTWIG. NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Four of the 12 German prisoners of war who recently escaped from the detention camp in Canada are now enjoying freedom in the United States. On January 17, after having successfully tunneled through 63 feet of frozen ground dug out slowly and patiently during the nights of three successive months, they escaped from the camp at Amherst, Nova Scotia. They had suffered much in making their escape, but the quartet are happy in spite of their experience. Hartwig, the man at the extreme right, was the leader in the plan to escape. At one side of their large bunk-room in the prison camp was a toilet, in the rear of which was a sandpile. Working at night, and at a time when the guards were not too vigilant, and drawing back the dirt, which was stamped into the sandpile, they finally had a tunnel wide enough for a man to wiggle through. Of the 12 who escaped, seven were recaptured.

Buckwheat Cakes

Raised without Yeast. When they are just right, the old-fashioned yeast-raised buckwheat cakes are just fine. But it takes a skillful hand to get them "just right" and many housewives do not want to be bothered with a bowl of batter standing around all the time. Made after this recipe, buckwheat cakes are as good as any you ever ate and much superior to those made with self-raising flour. Made with K C double raise baking powder, the last of the batter will make just as light cakes as the first.

K C Buckwheat Cakes

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

1 cup buckwheat flour; 1 tablespoon sugar; 2 level teaspoons K C Baking Powder; 1 1/2 cups cold water; 1/4 teaspoonful salt. Sift together, three times, the flour, sugar, salt and baking powder; stir the water in all at once and bake on a hot well oiled griddle. Buckwheat flour calls for a generous measure of baking powder. Part milk may be used to mix the cakes but water gives quite as good results.

A delicious "spread" for griddle cakes is made by creaming together about twice as much honey (either comb or strained) as butter. Work it up with a fork to about the consistency of hard sauce. Readers of this paper may obtain "The Cook's Book" containing this and 89 other delicious recipes free by sending the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the James Mfg. RUSSIAN BALLET CENSORED

Sultan's Harem Must Be More Demure in New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Two dances performed by the Russian ballet to the delight of society folk at the Century Opera-House will be "toned down" to meet the criticism of the police commission. It was said following a private talk between Magistrate McCauley and the manager of the ballet. The manager who seizes the silken garment of a Greek maiden after her flight across the stage in one of the dances will be instructed to dance less ecstatically. There will be less carrying on in the Sultan's harem in the scene depicting what happens when the Sultan goes to war.

BURGLAR TALKS TO MISS

Pretty Girl Gently Bound While House Is Ransacked.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The story of a polite burglar who gently bound her victim, a school teacher, in her own home, and while apologizing, ransacked the bureau drawer, getting $50 in cash, was told to the police recently by pretty little Mary Finnegan, 15, whose father owns a restaurant at 75 Fulton street. The Finnegan family live upstairs, 20 West 15th street, and the burglar, who was valued at $200 on top of the ransacked bureau.

Romance Is Denied, but Both Have Comfortable Fortunes.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—If there is any unusual romance in the proposed marriage of Moses Edson Banks, 80 years old, a farmer, of Fairfield, Conn., and Miss Mary Rebecca Buxton, of 29 West 77th street, it is that she is the daughter of James Buxton and that she was born in Asheville, N. C. At her home two maiden aunts said every day and agreed not to discuss the affair. Both Mr. Banks and Miss Bux-

FIFTH AND STARK

"Yes, it was my Digestion; but Sanatogen—"

—Sanatogen came to the rescue—and let us tell you how.

Indigestion is the twin-brother of nervousness; overwork, mental strain, grief or shock is the cause. The proven benefits which Sanatogen confers upon people suffering from nervous indigestion are the happy results of Sanatogen's tonic and upbuilding effects.

As a scientifically-devised food, not as a medicine, Sanatogen helps both nerves and digestion—the former by providing organic phosphorus in such a form, according to Dr. C. W. Saleeby and other authorities, "that the nervous system can actually take hold of it," and the latter by lightening the stomach's burden and making it better able to get the maximum nutriment out of the daily diet.

By thus feeding and strengthening in a kindly, natural fashion, Sanatogen has endeared itself to countless people subject to indigestion. Col. Henry Waterson, the famous editor, boldly asserts he believes he "could not have regained his vitality without Sanatogen acting equally upon the nerve centers and digestion."

Many other prominent people have said similar things about Sanatogen, and the best of it is that their experience is fully upheld by evidence of the medical profession, over 21,000 members of which have endorsed Sanatogen in writing.

So you may be confident that when indigestion and nervousness trouble you, Sanatogen stands ready with real help.

Sanatogen is sold by good druggists, everywhere, in sizes from $1.00 up.

A Little Blossom To Delight the Home

When it is known that in the near future the home is to be blessed with a new addition, it is for this reason that much of the distress such as morning sickness is avoided. All prospective fathers should see to it that the expectant mother is provided with a bottle of "Mother's Friend." This is an external remedy, gently applied over the stomach muscles. It makes them firm and pliant, they receive no undue strain. It removes from the stomach the influences which are responsible for much of the pain incident to the period of expectancy. It is for this reason that much of the distress such as morning sickness is avoided. All prospective fathers should see to it that the expectant mother is provided with a bottle of "Mother's Friend." The directions are simple. Get it at any drug store. It is applied over the stomach muscles, it penetrates deeply and affords quick and splendid relief in a most gratifying manner and reflects a physical benefit to the nervous disposition of the babe. Don't fail to get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" today and then write Broadway Regulator Co., 412 Lexington, Albany, O., for a pretty little book brimful of information for expectant mothers. It is a delight to read it.
