"WHEN THE DOVE BIT THE EAGLE." BY WHILTON G. HOTAIR. Chapter II.

The full realization of the failure of the first plan of campaign came upon the people of the doomed city, when General Bledsoe and his staff of 10 Colonels hurried back into town half an hour later and commanded the valets at the Arlington Club to restore the furniture to the rooms of their employers.

They had encountered a determined resistance, and the furniture had been taken from the rooms and only a rapid retreat had saved them from being all covered with the dust kicked up by the enemies' column advancing on the city.

Several of the Colonels in the staff had lost their hats and one of them was suffering from a severe stone bruise, and the morale of the entire troop was seriously shattered.

With this force landed in his rear, and the enemy advancing up the Columbia River Highway against the stragglers at Clatskanie, it was concluded that General White and the militia could be of no assistance and that the fall of the city was imminent.

The whole plan of campaign was changed and it was decided to sweep the enemy into the Willamette valley from the east.

F. W. Mulkey offered the use of the municipal docks as a place from which the enemy might be advantageously swept.

George Baker redoubled his efforts, and the campaign was completed as a receipt for prisoners of war.

For the execution of this coup, General M. P. Maus rallied around him the remnants of the veterans of the famous Gato campaign, organizing the command under Col. Poorman as the First Oregon Infantry.

STATISTICS ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

Founded 25 years ago by Rev. Francis E. Clark at the Williston Congregational Church, Portland, Me., the Christian Endeavor Society has now more than 80,000 local societies throughout the world and 4,000,000 members.

Rev. Dan A. Poling, of Portland, is acting head of the organization in the absence of Dr. Clark, who is traveling abroad.

The Portland union has more than 200 members in 14 societies. Plans for a general progressive movement in Portland outlined.

The thirty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Christian Endeavor Society was celebrated yesterday in many Portland churches. Especially elaborate services were held in the First United Presbyterian Church, East Thirty-seventh street and Hawthorne avenue, in the morning and at the Runnymede Congregational Church and in the Millard Avenue Presbyterian Church, in the Mount Scott district, at night.

At the First United Presbyterian Church Rev. Frank DeWitt Pindley, pastor, was the principal speaker. He emphasized the importance of the society organized 35 years ago by Rev. Francis E. Clark, at Williston Congregational Church, Portland, Me. Brief talks were made by E. F. Phillips, Mrs. Beale Duncan, Miss Eleanor Ewing and David Jack.

The regular evening services at the Sunnyside Congregational Church were given over to the Christian Endeavor Society, and a programme of music and addresses was carried out, in charge of Mrs. Verne Graves. The principal address was by Lloyd R. Carrick, president of the Portland union, on the topic, "Christian Endeavor—Millions." He told of the progress of the organization for 1916. He said there were 84 branches in Portland, with 2099 members. Short talks were made by local members.

At the Millard Avenue Presbyterian Church also devoted the entire evening service to a Christian Endeavor celebration. It was asserted that there are more than 80,000 societies, with 4,000,000 members. A Portland man, Rev. Dan A. Poling, son of Rev. C. C. Poling, of this city, is acting president of the organization, stationed at Boston, Mass., while Dr. Clark, the head of the organization, is traveling abroad.

Internal Revenue Officers Say Band Has Been Broken Up.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Feb. 6.—Confessions secured here today by deputy Internal Revenue officers.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 173 pounds I went to 118 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life." Mrs. J. S. BARLOW, 1624 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weakened organs of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, a chronic invalid, recovered so completely.

It pays for women suffering from any female ailments to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Well-Known Man Gives Plant Juice Entire Credit for His Recovery to Health.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of stomach trouble. While stomach trouble is among the most common diseases that prevail, it is sometimes the last recognized by patients who very often content themselves with "doctoring" the symptoms, while the original disease may be sapping their very life blood.

Plant Juice, the new herbal system tonic, relieves the stomach of its burden, thereby giving it an opportunity to regain its normal strength. In a dual with actual experience, as is the evidence of Mr. Michael Sullivan, who resides at No. 699 Hopkins Street, Buffalo, N. Y., who says:

"I have been troubled with my stomach for some time. My food would ferment in my stomach, causing gases to form, and I would blow more or less. I was nervous and restless and could not sleep at night. I also had muscular pains in my legs. I had doctored steadily for one year and did not get any relief. I had heard about Plant Juice and the cures which were being effected by its use and decided to try it. I have now taken one bottle of the remedy and can eat anything I want to and enjoy my meals. I am no longer restless or nervous, sleep well at night, and the pains in my limbs have entirely disappeared. In fact, I can say that I am entirely cured by Plant Juice and I am recommending it to my friends."

Plant Juice is sold in all Owl Drug Stores.
