All Hail the Sun of Prosperity!

The rolling clouds of hard times are broken. The hosts of gloom are dispersed. Songs of hope and good cheer greet the glad New Year and the watchword of all is "All's Well."

See the sign emblazoned on the bursting sun. It's a token the ancients read in the starry heavens. And when they read it clearly-Prosperity reigned-All was well with the world.

It's a far cry from the early Chaldeans to our own twentieth century-a big jump from Assyria of old to our beautiful Pacific Slope, but a million good Housekeepers from San Diego to the Canadian boundary, know this sign Is as a guarantee of the purest of all pure foods. Because it's the trademark of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company—the largest pure food concern west of the Rockies.

Swastika Biscuits-every woman who believes in helping along the Prosperity of the Pacific Slope buys them-insists on biscuits with the Swastika seal Is on the ends of the package. And every man, woman and child should know that our trademark in a "Good Luck" seal—a token of Prosperity—a sign that "All's Well."

But-mark this! We do not ask you to buy "Swastika" Biscuits because our factories are located in Portland and the other cities of the Pacific Coastwe do not ask you to buy Swastikas because we pour out a steady stream of gold in wages to the thousands employed in our big, modern, sunlit plants-- we simply ask you to buy Swastikas because they are the best biscuits and because they sell for the same prices as competing lines, often called "Just as Good."

Remember, Ladies, biscuits are no better than the ingredients from which they are made, and every ingredient contained in Swastikas is so thoroughly tested, before entering our bake rooms, that pure food experts call our biscuits "The Purest of All

Then join the Prosperity Crusade right now! If you're interested in an era of Good Times, such as this Coast has never known before, begin by insisting on biscuits with the "Good Luck" sign on the ends of the package—the Swastika seal

And you men-you right royal boosters for home industries-join this crusade today. Wherever you may dine insist on Swastika Biscuits-stand by the doctrine you preach.

Explain the meaning of this 55 to the little folks. Tell them to say Swastika this way, Swas-tik-a, and let them know that this sign is an absolute guarantee of Biscuit Perfection.

All Grocers sell Swastika biscuits, both plain and fancy. There's a Swastika Biscuit for every taste and they all taste delicious.
