

WOMEN'S CLUBS

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

CALENDAR FOR TODAY.

Clubs.

Chapman Parent-Teacher Association, 2 o'clock; important. First Congressional Aid Society, all-day meeting.

Central W. C. T. U., 2 o'clock, 171 Eleventh street.

Presidents' Club, Y. W. C. A. luncheon, noon.

Williamette Chapter, D. A. R., with Mrs. E. G. Corbush, 545 East Twenty-third street North.

Council of Jewish Women, 2 o'clock; music and a farce comedy.

Sidewood Parent-Teacher Association, 2 o'clock; programme.

Irrington Parent-Teacher Association, 2:45 o'clock.

THE first meeting for the new year of the Young Women's Christian Association board was held Tuesday in the memorial room of the association. Miss Carrie A. Holbrook was re-elected to the presidency, the office she has filled so efficiently for several years.

The three new members of the board elected at the annual meeting, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell and Mrs. James F. Ewing, were welcomed. The complete list of officers elected were: President, Miss Holbrook; first vice-president and chairman of business department, Mrs. Charles Basse; second vice-president in charge of travelers' aid work, Mrs. William E. Wheeler; third vice-president, in charge of educational department, Mrs. William Bushnell Osborn; fourth vice-president, chairman of mission and bible study department, Mrs. J. T. Wright; fifth vice-president, chairman of social department, Mrs. Charles T. Kamm; treasurer, Mrs. James Felling; recording secretary, Mrs. C. A. Meriden; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. P. Northrup.

Woodlawn Parent-Teacher Association has postponed its winter picnic until further notice.

Mrs. I. M. Walker has been elected first vice-president of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers associations to the first session vacant by the resignation of Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, who retired on account of the stress of other duties. Mrs. Walker will take an active interest in the flag sale, February 19.

The Aid Society of the First Congregational Church will meet today at 2 o'clock in the church parlors to see for Good Samaritan Hospital. Members will provide box lunches.

Central W. C. T. U. will have an interesting programme today beginning at 2 o'clock. Dr. Vern Warham will sing. Mrs. M. L. T. Hadden will conduct a parliamentary drill.

Chapman Parent-Teacher Association will hold their regular meeting today at 2 o'clock. Dr. Bertha Stewart, of Reed College, will give an address on the physical training of children and Mrs. Andrew Rugg will talk on the preparation and serving of hot lunches in schools.

The Council of Jewish Women will enter once more into its activities and will hold today an interesting meeting at which there will be a musical programme contributed by Miss Harriet Leach, accompanied by Lowell Patton, and an entertaining little sketch, "Just Like a Man," by Mrs. Anton Gutsch and Mrs. P. L. Thompson.

It was planned originally that "The Dances of Cranford" should be repeated for today's session of the council, but some members of the council would not attend, so the programme was changed. Mrs. Albert Wurzwiler will be hostess at the social hour.

An attractive programme has been arranged for the meeting of Sidewood Parent-Teacher Association today at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. C. Grimes will speak, and there will be vocal numbers by Miss Lillian Ward and instrumental duets by Miss Madeline Fields and Miss Evelyn Capelle.

Fernwood Parent-Teacher Association will not hold the meeting tomorrow night as planned. The affair is postponed indefinitely.

February 11 is not only Valentine's day, but to Oregonians it is Admission day, and as that day it will be celebrated by a banquet to be given at 4:30 at the Hotel Imperial by the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers. Mrs. P. J. Hannon is secretary of the organization.

The Woman's Social Service Club, of Oak Grove-Milwaukie, will meet tomorrow at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Howard, of Oak Grove. The history of Oregon will be studied. Mrs. Rose Appleby will read a paper on "The Old Explorers, Lewis and Clark," and Mrs. Sarah Mogg will speak on "The Forts and the Fur-Traders."

Oak Grove Parent-Teacher Association will meet Friday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. M. J. G. Griffin, 952 East Gilliam street.

The civic department of the Railroad Women's Club will meet Thursday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Jennie Michael, 1855 Cleveland avenue. Mrs. Jewel Bruce will preside.

Under the auspices of the Women's Society of the White Temple, a states banquet will be given in the church on Friday at 6:30 o'clock.

Irrington Parent-Teacher Association will meet today promptly at 2:45 o'clock. The entire afternoon will be devoted to the discussion of the two-unit plan as outlined by Superintendent Alderman at a recent meeting.

Mount Taber Parent-Teacher Association will not meet tomorrow, but will postpone its meeting to the third Thursday in February. When Mount Taber School reopens the association will continue to serve hot lunches, as it did so efficiently in the past.

Instead of buying prizes to be awarded to the high-scorers players of their social organizations, the Walnut Park Club has donated the money to the People's Institute and as a result a needy family consisting of a widow and four children will have their rent paid for a month.

During the snowstorm the free dispensary of the People's Institute sent patients out to the suburbs to visit patients who were unable to come to the dispensary. Several young doctors walked miles to get to the isolated cases.

Portland Psychology Club will meet on Thursday in room H. Library, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Brooklyn Mothers' and Teachers' Club will meet on Thursday in the schoolhouse.

Portland Parent-Teacher Council will

PROMINENT CLUBWOMAN SOCIAL CHAIRMAN FOR TODAY'S MEETING OF COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN.

Mrs. Albert Wurzwiler GROVE PHOTO

meet in the Central Library, room A, 18 o'clock in the church parlors to see for Good Samaritan Hospital. Members will provide box lunches.

With the first hint of Spring weather comes the gossip of club politics and the rumor that in all probability Mrs. J. A. Pettit will be the favorite candidate for the office of president of the Portland Women's Club. Her name has been mentioned by many members of the organization and all speak of her in the highest terms.

Mrs. Pettit is general federation secretary for the State of Oregon, chairman of the art department of the Woman's Club and corresponding secretary of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. She is well up in Federation matters, is popular, knows club work and is on friendly terms with several federation officers.

It is probable that there will be but few other changes on the board. The election will not take place until May. The nominations will be a month earlier. Mrs. G. J. Frankel is at present presiding officer of the club.

The Woman's Civic Welfare Club will meet on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock in room 12, Central Library. School affairs will be discussed by the members.

Ladd Parent-Teacher Association will meet tomorrow at 2:30 P. M. Mrs. E. H. Frazeille will speak on "Literature for Children."

In a telegram sent last night to Senator Chamberlain, at Washington, the Women's Political Science Club of Portland expressed approval of the appointment of Louis Brandeis for the Supreme Court and appealed to the United States Senate to approve the appointment. The message was signed by Mrs. Frances M. Hawkes, president, and Dr. Lora Diamond, secretary. It was the result of a resolution adopted at the club meeting yesterday in the Library.

THE SANDMAN STORY

By Mrs. F. A. Walker

The Wonderful Bee—Part II.

EARLY the next morning the little bee woke Tim up. After a breakfast of honey and eggs the two started on through the forest toward the city, the bee floating on before in the sunlight like a tiny speck of gold.

At noon Tim came out of the woods just at the top of a hill. Far below him stretched a level, green plain, in the center of which stood a palace of white stone.

Then Tim noticed coming across some distant mountain what looked like a great black cloud. The thing moved onward and the boy saw it was a vast army of men, whose bodies were covered with curly brown hair and whose faces were a bright green. In their hands were long, keen swords that flashed in the sun and made the dark ranks of soldiers look as if sprinkled with diamond dust.

"That is the army of the Bobo, who lives beyond the mountain," said the bee, sailing close to Tim.

He read a paper out loud to Tim: "Whoever will drive the Bobo away shall marry the beautiful Princess May."

"Let us try and help the King!" exclaimed Tim.

"Don't know what we could do," replied the bee.

"Well, we are tired and can take a nap for an hour," said Tim, dropping on the ground. He laid his head on a red velvet cushion and soon forgot how tired he was for the little purple blossoms were talking.

"Too bad that the Princess May and the King are in trouble," said one, a tall, thin, green man with a long, pointed beard, and the old King is so good. I understand the great Bobo wants to destroy the country if our Princess will not marry him. He is 15 feet tall as greedy as a pig and very rude. He can be easily overcome by the slightest pin on a red spot just back of his left ear."

"Did you hear that, Tim?" said the bee, buzzing about excitedly.

"Certainly, but what of it?" replied the boy.

"Why, it means I can help you out in your wish to aid the King," returned the bee. "Come on, now; let us go down into the valley and on to the castle."

In a few hours Tim knelt at the castle gate. He was admitted to see the King, for the poor man grasped at any hope to get out of his trouble.

"I can defeat the Bobo," said Tim bravely.

"What! you, a tiny, ragged lad, when he has his army and no one can harm him at all!" exclaimed the King.

"Yes, I mean it," replied the boy. "Just do what I say. Order your best soldier to meet the Bobo in a single fight before your men and the enemy tomorrow at noon. Get the Bobo to say that if he is defeated his army will retreat, then place your own men in the woods out of sight at the left. Tell them not to charge till I blow the bugle."

The boy was sure he would win, so the King agreed quickly.

At noon the next day the King's soldier went out on the plain and soon the huge Bobo stalked out, too. Tim saw the bee flying straight for the big, wicked man's head. It lighted behind his left ear, gave him a sting and the Bobo fell dead to the plain with a great crash.

"Sound the charge on the bugle," whispered the bee to Tim as he flew back to his friend. Tim blew a loud blast. The King's men rushed out of the woods and fell upon the Bobo's army, who were too much astonished at their leaders fall to even fight. They turned and flew, never stopping till they reached their own land.

Great was the rejoicing all over the country. The King made Tim come to the palace at once, dressed him in royal robes and gave him fine apartments. The next night the wedding was celebrated and all over the land there were dancing, singing and big fires flashing out the joy of the people.

MANY VISITORS EXPECTED

Large Tourist Movement to West Predicted by Railroad Official.

H. A. Buck, Pacific Coast general agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad system, is paying a brief visit to Portland. His headquarters are in San Francisco.

Mr. Buck says that his most recent advices from Pennsylvania headquarters in the East are that the tourist movement to the Coast this year will be just as heavy as it was last year when the California fairs were in progress.

WATERY PIMPLES ON MY FACE

Developed Into Hard Pimples. Large and Irritated. Face Was in an Awful Condition.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"I first noticed watery pimples on my face which began to develop into hard pimples, and they would disappear into the skin and would then leave marks upon my face. The pimples were large and running water all the time and they fostered and irritated. My face was in an awful condition."

"I ran across a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement in a magazine so I tried it. I first bathed my face with Cuticura Soap and then spread the Ointment on and in about a week's time they disappeared altogether and I was entirely well."

(Signed) Miss Josephine Gotsch, Box 123, Red Elder, Mont., July 15, 1915.
